FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY,

of Dakota County.

The proceedings of the Convention will be found in another column, to which we direct our readers, confident that they will find in them an augury of the certain success of the nominee.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

There is no end to the petty checks and annoyances to which of late the loyal arms have been subject. This morning we have news that a rebel battery planted on the bank of the river between Memphis and Vicksburg, had destroyed a dispatch steamer, and captured her crew.

Gen. Price, the best of all the rebel Generals, has succeeded in crossing cannon and a part of his army to the west side of the Mississippi, where, it is to be apprehended, he will begin again a campaign similar to that of last year, which was attended by so many disasters to the Union cause, and which was only ended against him on the hard fought field of Pea Ridge.

The foreign news is not immediately threatening, yet it indicates that recognition of the rebels, and offers of mediation will not be long delayed. Lord Palmerston, while resisting action in that behalf now, declares that it is only a question of time—that separation is inevitable.

HON. IGNATIUS DONNELLY.

We place the name of this honored citizen, the nominee of the patriotic Convention that met yesterday, at the head of our paper as the candidate for Congress of the loyal people of the Second Congressional District. We do so with the high satisfaction that we are supporting for the responsible position of one of the two Representatives of our noble young State in the popular branch of the National Assembly, a man of talents, integrity, and exalted love of country—a man that will do honor to the position, and reflect credit upon the people he represents.

Like Minnesota, Governor Donnelly is young and vigorous—a fit representative of the intelligence, enterprise and energy of our people.

His political advancement has been rapid—indicating character and talents that the people have not been slow to recognize. Twice has he been elected to the second highest office in the State—and in the present canvass there was such spontaneous declarations from all parts of the district in his favor, as were equivalent to the nomination in advance of the meeting of the convention. Three fourths of the newspapers of the district—every one that expressed a preference—declared in his favor.

Gov. Donnelly has acquitted himself of the public trusts to which he has hitherto been called, with the highest honor; and we cannot doubt he will fill with equal credit to himself and advantage to the public, the duties of a Representative of Congress, to the discharge of which the people have already called him—the call to be most surely confirmed at the October election.

Governor Donnelly is true to the principles of civil liberty and the rights of man enunciated in the immortal Declaration of Independence. He is thoroughly reliable as the friend of FREEDOM.

His address to the Convention indicates that he fully comprehends the great issues, of the war that slaveholding despots have inaugurated, and that his voice and vote will truly represent the liberty loving people of Minnesota, with whose views and feelings his own are thoroughly accordant.

That he will be elected by a majority of thousands we believe as firmly as that to-morrow's sun will rise.

WAR MEETING AT SHAKOPEE.

A rousing war meeting was held at Shakopee Tuesday evening. It was the largest meeting ever held in Scott county. The principal speech was from Henry Hines, Esq., (a Democrat), who endorsed the Administration in all its acts for the suppression of the rebellion, and advocated the most radical and thorough measures for crushing the enemy. The most patriotic resolutions were passed, and Scott county was pledged to do her whole duty. She will promptly furnish her quota for the Sixth Regiment.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

The Republican Convention of the Second Congressional District, met in this city yesterday, and with unprecedented harmony and despatch, adopted a platform of patriotic principles, and made a nomination worthy the support of all loyal and freedom-loving people of the district.

We believe it is strictly true that no Convention ever assembled at the capital of the State, that evinced more unity of sentiment and accord in its action.

There were members of the Convention whose first choice was another than the gentleman nominated, yet upon meeting the other delegates, and learning unmistakably that Gov. Donnelly was the choice of a large majority of the delegates, and that the voice of the people so clearly indicated him as the standard bearer of the loyal masses in the approaching contest with treason sympathizers, they without hesitation made the nomination by acclamation. All were unanimous and accordant. And it was hearty accord. There was no forced submission to the power of majority, but spontaneous and voluntary agreement.

The distinguished gentleman for whose nomination some of the delegates had been instructed as the first choice of their constituents—Hon. James Smith—testified in the most magnanimous and noble manner his cordial approbation of the course of his friends, and his most earnest support of Gov. Donnelly.

In doing this Mr. Smith has added to the high reputation he already enjoys, and secured the grateful appreciation of all.

The Convention was unusually able, being composed of the best men of the district. Its character and proceedings were in striking contrast with those of the Vallandigham gathering in this city of July 2d.

The Convention of yesterday held but one session, and that was in sitting but about two hours, to accomplish its patriotic work. That of the Buchanan Democracy required three sessions and near a dozen hours to hatch its quasi treason.

THE PLATFORM.

It is with feelings of pride and gratification that we call the attention of the people to the Platform adopted yesterday by the Republican Convention.

The noble contrast which it affords to the miserable string of resolutions adopted on the 2d of July by the so-called Democratic State Convention, cannot but strike all our readers. It is frank, manly and outspoken, and [illegible]sses faithfully the sentiment of all the loyal people of Minnesota. There is no patriotic citizen but can stand upon it.

Although called as a Republican Convention and consisting in a large degree of Republicans, there was exhibited a generous disposition to ignore past party issues and invite into fellowship all men who place the preservation of the nation above all other considerations. We trust that it will be met in an equally generous spirit by those who, not heretofore connected with the Republican party, cannot now unite with a faction being hostile to the best interests of the country. Such a platform is not a recognition merely of the principles of Republicanism, but an effort to produce among our own people a unanimity of sentiment in behalf of the government, as great as that which evidently exists at the South against it. Let the effort be sustained by all loyal men! Minnesota must do her duty in this war—not only in furnishing her quota of men, but in sustaining the President with the unanimous voice of the people. Let those who would at such a time attempt to raise dissension in our midst be ignored, and set aside, as men a shade worse than the rebels, possessing all the will and dispositions to do evil without the courage to put it into execution.

To the people we would say that the allusion in our platform to the Homestead Bill is just and proper. The plain, common sense of the people, cannot but remark the entire absence in Maj. Cullen's platform of any allusion to this great and wise measure, more fraught with immediate benefit to the people of Minnesota than all the national legislation of the last twenty years. Let the fact be kept before the people that the Convention of the 2d of July regarded the deprivation of the habeas corpus act to traitors, and the suppression of treasonable utterances of foul-mouthed newspapers, of more consequences than the passage of a law which in the next two years will double the population of Minnesota, besides bringing prosperity and happiness to tens of thousands of worthy citizens.

We shall take occasion to recur to this subject again.

REPUBLICAN DISTRICT CONVENTION.

At twelve o'clock M., yesterday, the delegates elect to the Republican Convention of the Second Congressional District, met pursuant to notice at Ingersoll's Hall, and were called to order by Col. R. F. FISK, Chairman of the State Central Committee, who briefly stated the object and circumstances of the call.

On motion of Dr. Geo. H. Keith, of Hennepin, Hon. H. G. O. MORRISON, of Dakota county, was elected temporary Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Stowell, of Anoka, Mr. E. W. CUTTER, of Hennepin county, was elected temporary Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Wheeler, of Morrison, a committee of five were appointed upon credentials, consisting of Messrs. Wheecler, of Morrison; Jordan, of Mecker; Johnson, of Anoka; Hackett, of Wabashaw, and Munch, of Pine.

On motion of Mr. Heaton, of Hennepin, a committee of seven upon resolutions and platform were then appointed, consisting of Messrs. Heaton, of Hennepin; M'Lean, of Ramsey; Kennedy, of Carver; Mayhew, of Benton; Reiner, of Washington; Davis, of Goodhue, and Crosby, of Dakota.

On motion of C. C. Johnson, of Goodhue, the following were appointed a committee on permanent organization: Messrs. Johnson, of Goodhue; Moss, of Ramsey; Peterson, of Stearns; Henry, of Washington, and Malvy, of Wright.

The Convention then took a recess of fifteen minutes to allow the different committees time to perfect their reports.

When the Convention was again called to order, Mr. Johnson, from the committee on credentials, reported the names of the following persons as being entitled to seats in the Convention:

Aiken—A. W. Sylvester.
Anoka—F. M. Stowell, R. M. Johnson.
Benton—G. V. Mayhew.
Becker—N. Gravel.
Big Stone—Frederick Patwell.

Hennepin—David Heaton, E. W. Cutter, Geo. H. Keith, Daniel Bassett, A. C. Austin, J. P. Plummer, G. W. Irving, J. A. Coleman.
Itasca—J. Knight.
Kandiyohi—N. W. White.
Kanabec—Geo. L. Staples.
Lac qui Parle—D. B. Sylvester.
McLeod—F. B. Dean.
Mille Lac—J. H. Allen.
Meeker—C. B. Jordan.
Morrison—Levi Wheeler.
Otter Tail—J. R. Mills.
Pope—Winter Jacques.
Pine—Emil Munch.
Ramsey—T. M. Newson, A. Wolff, Henry Hale, H. L. Moss, Chas. Passavant, H. L. Carver, N. M'Lean, Henry Scheffbaur.
Skerburne—M. S. Croswell.
Stearns—T. H. Barrett, H. P. Bennett, John F. Peterson.
Traverse—Chas. Crawford.
Todd—F. Engel.
Wabashaw—Samuel Doughty, J. Parker, Geo. F. Childs, C. W. Hackett, W. B. Emmons, J. N. Murdock, R. Ottman.
Wright—Thomas Haas, J. B. Blanchard, J. W. McCoy.
Washington—W. Rutherford, J. K. Reiner, W. H. Burt, R. R. Henry.

On motion of Mr. Murdock, of Wabashaw, the report of the committee was adopted.

Mr. Moss, from the Committee on Permanent Organization, made the following report:

President—Hon. W. H. BURT, of Washington.
Vice Presidents—Albert Wolff, of Ramsey; Emil Munch, of Pine; J. B. Mills, of Otter Tail; C. C. Johnson, of Goodhue; Ernest Heyd, of Carver; and Geo. H. Keith, of Hennepin.
Secretaries—Charles Passavant, of Ramsey; John N. Murdock, of Wabashaw; and L. B. Smith, of Chisago.

The report was adopted, and the permanent officers took their places upon the platform.

On taking the chair, the President occupied the time of the Convention for a few minutes, in the following remarks:

My friends, Gentlemen of the Convention:

Though in the absence of the usual political excitement, it has seemed proper that we preserve our Republican individuality and our party organization. Our political adversaries, determined to secure again the controlling power in the Government, and restore themselves to places of patronage and plunder, even to the ruin of the nation, have lately met in this city and renewed and continued their organization. They adopted a platform, full of bitterness and reproach toward the present national Administration, occupied and oppressed as it is with the calamities of one of the most unholy and desperate wars ever waged for the destruction of national life. By these acts they have assured us anew that such Democracy never sleep in life, and that for them there can be no rest in death. My friends, in these darkest hours of the present struggle, a brighter day is dawning. It is said the Commander-in-Chief, heeding the will of the people, indicated by recent acts of Congress, is about to change his base of operations; and with that change, without retiring either wing of the army, will come a new base of supplies—the whole North, from the East to the West, will be one grand base of supplies, teeming with men and means for the army of the Union.

Thus far our armies have been a great deal in swamps, and different kinds of swamps—they have got out of the swamps of Yorktown and Williamsburg, indeed out of White Oak and the Chickahominy swamps. But there are still others from which they must move before we can hope for permanent success. And the National cause has been in a swamp. There are the swamps of "strategy" and "Kentucky," and the great dismal, malarious swamp of slavery, overspread with the fettering brambles of Border State dictation, that we must get out of though it be by severe reverses.

When Captain Lincoln gives the order "forward," and the whole army shall advance right out on the high and dry ground, and into the wide and open fields of freedom, where is an abundance of the living waters of constitutional liberty and the mountain air of free institutions, proclaiming freedom to slaves in every rebel State, with compensation to loyal masters, and inviting to the ranks of the army every loyal man who is willing to work, fight or watch with our bleeding country even for one dark hour, whether he come from the front or the rear, then may we expect Providence to fight on our side, and the God of battles to crown the national arms with victory, and our country will be blest with lasting peace, prosperity and happiness.

Accept my thanks for your kind consideration in calling me to preside over your deliberations on the present occasion. Let us proceed to business.

Mr. Heaton, chairman of the committee on resolutions, made the following report, which was accepted and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we hereby submit to the candid consideration of all the electors of the Second Congressional District of Minnesota the following sentiments and opinions:

First—That the present war with all the carnage, bloodshed and suffering which has followed since its commencement is properly and directly chargeable to a wicked and ambitious band of Slaveholding Secessionists and conspirators of the South; that having been defeated in a Presidential Election in which they freely participated, they formed the desperate resolution that rather than submit peaceably to the will of the Nation as deliberately and constitutionally expressed through the ballot-box, to sunder the bonds holding the Union together and rend in fragments the most liberal and splendid fabric of free government in existence; they wilfully kindled the fires of civil strife by the disgraceful and cruel bombardment of Fort Sumter, and unless we take measures to defend our government and institutions to the full extent of our resources and to the last extremity, we shall be justly liable to incur the scorn and contempt of all nations and the reproach of succeeding generations.

Second—That we are proud to proclaim that the war upon our part is prosecuted from motives, and for objects as sacred and noble as ever animated the human heart; that we have been driven to engage in fierce conflict with Rebels and Traitors for the purpose of preserving the very existence of that Nationality, and the perpetuation unbroken of that Constitution which was bequeathed to us by Washington and his illustrious Compatriots; that for the purpose of aiding and giving strength to these great objects we promptly declare our willingness to sustain and uphold the present National Administration in the grandest and most enlarged preparations for the rapid and more earnest prosecution of the war; that we approve of calling into requisition all the means known to civilized warfare to crush out this most wicked and criminal rebellion, and thus aid in the speedy restoration of our cherished Union to its original power, its former renown and glory.

Third—That at the present eventful period in our history, we regard it as the strongest and greatest of all earthly obligations resting upon every patriot, without distinction of party, to stand firmly by the Government, and heartily sustain the war without reservation or conditions, and with this end and object in view, we hereby heartily and most cordially invite the loyal and patriotic men of all parties and persuasions to unite and co-operate with us in giving to the general Government our undivided sympathy and support.

Fourth—That we endorse the National Administration—that we have the strongest confidence in the wisdom, integrity and patriotism of Abraham Lincoln—that we most cordially approve all his efforts to preserve the Union and destroy the workings and plottings of treason, and that we can safely pledge him the constant adherence of every patriot in Minnesota.

Fifth—That we congratulate the whole country and especially the State of Minnesota upon the final passage of a wise and liberal Homestead Bill, by which Free Homes will be opened to thousands in limited circumstances, and that it is well worthy of remembrance that this beneficent measure along with the Pacific Railroad project so often defeated under former Administrations, have, for the first time become laws under the Administration of Abraham Lincoln.

Sixth—That we should regard with the deepest indignation all attempts at interference in our domestic troubles, by England or any other foreign power, and should such an event actually occur, we can vouch that our last man capable of bearing arms would rally with alacrity to the defense of our beloved land.

Seventh—That the sincere and warmest thanks of the Nation are justly due to our gallant and heroic soldiers, who have so willingly perilled their lives in defense of the Union; that we rejoice to know that the acts of devotion and valor will always illustrate the most brilliant page in our military annals.

Eighth—That we hereby emphatically endorse the late Confiscation Act of Congress, believing it right, and a proper visitation of retributive justice, that the property of rebels, traitors and assassins, who are aiming at the total destruction of our Government, should be used in sustaining and strengthening the Grand Army of the Union.

The Convention then proceeded to the nomination of a candidate for Congress.

Mr. Whitney, of Dakota, presented the name of Hon. IGNATIUS DONNELLY, of Dakota, as a candidate.

Mr. Johnson, of Anoka, presented the name of Hon. JAMES SMITH, of Ramsey.

Mr. Carver, of Ramsey, withdrew the name of Mr. Smith from the Convention, and moved the nomination of Mr. Donnelly by acclamation, which was carried without a dissenting voice amid great applause.

On motion, the Chair appointed a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Heaton, Carver and Baker, to wait upon the nominee and inform him of the action of the Convention.

The committee, after a short absence, returned to the Convention, accompanied by Mr. Donnelly, who, being introduced by the President, made the following address:

SPEECH OF GOV. DONNELLY.

Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention:

I beg leave most gratefully to thank you for the high honor you have done me in this nomination. Whether successful or defeated I shall cherish with pride the recollection of this day; and should your choice be confirmed by the voices of the people, I shall strive by untiring industry to deserve the confidence you have reposed in me.

I have read with attention the platform of resolutions adopted by you, and I need scarcely say that they meet with my heartiest concurrence. The absence of all mere partisan sentiment in them is, at this time, to be particularly commended.

As Republicans we need no re-affirmance, no defence of our principles. This war, in all its terrible features, is the strongest testimony to the wisdom of our opposition in the past to the extension of an institution capable of yielding such results. Any other course on our part would but have prolonged the day of its expansion and power, to leave the nation eventually more completely and helplessly at its mercy.

Nor must it be forgotten that if we, as a party, were prompt to resist at an early day, the extravagant demands of that institution, not less ready were our fellow citizens of the North to oppose those demands, when compliance with them implied the degradation of the great party to which they belonged.

The transition from constitutional effort to armed rebellion was marked by the disorganization of the Charleston Convention. When both the Republican party and the Democratic party of the North refused to obey the extreme demands of the slaveholders, then, and not till then, was insurrection organized.

If to-day two parties are in the field, it is because of the existence, among the people, of two phases of sentiment upon this war:—one, a determination to sustain the government and preserve the unity of the nation, at all hazards and at all cost; the other, a desire to regard any and all side issues as paramount to the government and the Union. Your organization to-day is rendered imperatively necessary by the existence of an organization, already in the field, whose announced platform is simply a bill of grievances and a catalogue of crimes,—charged against the government in this the extremest hour of its peril. You cannot, as loyal men, permit the nation to fall under the control of men who would place it, bound hand and foot, at the mercy of its enemies.

I am glad that you have spoken out boldly on the question of confiscation. There has been too much tenderness—too much faltering and hesitating. Our people have been slow to recognize the magnitude and the desperate earnestness of the rebellion—slow to meet it with an equal earnestness.

We must teach this generation and all posterity that insurrection against a just and beneficent government is the most hideous of crimes, and deserves the most terrible of punishments. We must strip the olive branch of its leaves and scourge these men back into obedience. Our gallant soldiers must no longer be used as a municipal police force to guard the property of traitors. Where the wrath of the nation falls it must fall as of old fell the wrath of God, in fire and in ashes. We must make rebellion synonymous with desolation; and the track of our armies must be as a shining track of ruin.

We are engaged, Mr. President, in a struggle for perpetual national life on the one hand, or individual subjugation and degradation on the other. There is not in all the ample page of history a single instance in which a victorious people halted with magnanimous spirit at the boundary line of a defeated nation and hesitated to impose upon it the bonds and shackles of conquest. Does any one doubt the dark and unhappy character of our future, should our manhood prove unequal to this great trial?

Before such a terrible possibility, who will dare talk of tenderness and timidity!

In the name of the nation, all human institutions that stand in the way of the nation must be swept to atoms. The right of the nation to life is above and beyond all human rights, even as the value of the nation is above and beyond the value of any or all its citizens.

Shall we who send into this whirlpool of destruction the best beloved of our kindred—shall we who are willing to give life and limb for the preservation of the nation—hesitate to destroy the property and the wealth of the enemy? Are the lives of our citizens—are our own lives—of less value than the right of the rebel to his slave? Must we preserve the one at the sacrifice of the other? Let the stronghold of the enemy be assaulted wherever or whatever it may be; and if in subduing armed insurgents a vast population are restored to the simplest rights of humanity, let us thank God that under his wise providence so much good has been made to result from so necessary and so just an act.

It is not necessary for me to enlarge upon the relations of this struggle to the whole human family, here and in other lands; to ourselves, to our posterity, and to all the countless generations of men. Your own minds have already grasped this subject. Let us then rise to the emergency as a chosen generation upon whose shoulders have fallen the toils and honors of a great era. Let us so act that after ages will delight to revert to us as one of the shining examples of history. Let us make our mark on the face of the world that the blessings of our work may live when we have all perished.

Again permit me to thank you for the high honor you have conferred upon me.

Loud calls were then made for Mr. Smith, who came forward, and in a well-timed and felicitous address, congratulated the Convention on the nomination they had just made, counselling a vigilant canvass this fall for the success of the priciples of the Union. He particularly deprecated the effect upon this nation, and throughout Europe, should the nominees of the Democratic party succeed in the coming election; for however loyal they might be, their success would be proclaimed as an affirmance on the part of the people of Minnesota of the disloyal resolutions adopted by the Democratic State Convention.

On motion of Mr. Morrison, a district central committee was then appointed, consisting of Charles Nichols, of Ramsey; H. G. O. Morrison, of Dakota; A. J. Van Vorhes, of Washington; E. W. Cutter, of Hennepin, and C. H. Baker, of Goodhue.

The Convention then adjourned.

More Vigor may be Relied on.

Gen. Halleck's Hand Beginning to be Felt.

NEW YORK, July 30.

A special dispatch to the Times has the following:

You may rely upon it that a vigor never before known in the conduct of the war is henceforth to mark the policy of the Government. Organization is perfect, and material abundant, and soldiers are pushed rapidly to their places in the field.

General Halleck and Secretary Stanton attracted considerable attention at Willard's to-night, by appearing together in the lobby. The Secretary is not often seen so far from the war office.

The statement that Lord Lyons has written a letter to a member of the Legation that England would recognize the bogus Confederacy, is of course without foundation.

Heavy Movements of Rebel Troops to Richmond.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, July 29, 1862.

Dr. Williams, who has been a prisoner at Salisbury, North Carolina, for several months, arrived here on Saturday, having been unconditionally released. He states that for ten days after the battles in front of Richmond, one thousand rebel troops passed through that town daily on their way to Richmond, and more were on their way. The Doctor's window overlooked the railroad and depot, and gave him a good opportunity to ascertain what was going on there. The troops came from James Island and Easton.

Among other facts the Doctor ascertained that 11,000 troops were at Charlottsville, waiting transportation to Richmond; that 30,000 conscripts had been raised in each of the States of Tennessee and Georgia since the 9th of July, and a proportionate number in the other extreme Southern States.

He heard the Adjutant of Col. Goodwin, who commands the post of Salisbury, state that the Adjutant of Gen. Hill told him that the rebels had 173,000 troops engaged in the battle of seven days.

He was accompanied by Dr. Stone, who was taken prisoner at Bull Run, and who corroborates the statement so far as relates to the movements of troops.

On their way to Richmond they passed long trains of empty cars on their way south.

If their statements are true, and there is every reason to believe they are, it shows the rebels are staking their all in this State by concentrating within its borders an overwhelming force.

The boats to-day brought down 494 wounded from Richmond, leaving about 700 yet to come.

There is a report here, through contraband sources, that large bodies of rebel troops are crossing James river south. The contrabands say they are evacuating Richmond.

More Captures at Sea.

WASHINGTON, July 29.

Lieutenant Rogers, of the United States steamer Huntsville, reports that on the 16th inst., off Abaco Island, he fell in with the British schooner Agnes, of Nassau, from Harbor Island, without papers. He sent her to Key West for adjudication.

A later report from the same officer says that on the 21st July, he captured the rebel steamer Reliance, just out from Dobay bar, Georgia, and bound to Nassau, with 234 bales of Sea Island cotton.

The Reliance was commanded by Lieutenant Gladding, formerly of the United States navy.

SANDY HOOK, July 30.

The Australasian, from Liverpool 19th, via Queenstown 20th, arrived off this point this morning. The steamers Bremen and Glasgow, from New York, arrived on the 17th. The Arabia, from Boston, arrived on the 18th.

In the House of Commons, Lindsay's motion to offer mediation, and for the recognition of the Southern Confederacy, was debated pro and con.

Lord Palmerston opposed it, and appealed to the House to leave matters in the hands of the Government.

The motion was finally withdrawn.

Breadstuffs firmer, with trifling advance. Provisions quiet and steady.

The excitement prevalent when the Nova Scotia left Londonderry under the false rumors of disasters to McClellan, offers to surrender, &c., soon received a quietus by the arrival of the Arabia; but during Friday the news received much credence, although the Juras advices two days later fully falsified it.

Dealing in American securities is suspended even under the Arabia's advices.

The Times thinks the news is not shown to be wholly untrue.

In the House of Commons on the 18th, Lindsay's motion, declaring that the confederates have shown such a determination and ability to maintain their independence, that the propriety of offering mediation with a view of a termination of hostilities, is worthy of serious and immediate consideration of the government.

Lindsay was pressed to withdraw his motion, but felt it his duty to proceed. He argued strongly in favor of it, as did Lord A. Vane Tempest, Whiteside and Gregory. Mr. Taylor and Lord Palmerston spoke against it. The latter earnestly advised that the question be left to the government. In the course of his speech he treated the issue of the war as a foregone conclusion, saying that the only satisfactory termination that could be anticipated was amicable separation. This, however, he thought would be impeded rather than facilitated by debates in Parliament. He contended that the acknowledgement of England would give the North no cause of offense, but that the present position of the contest would not justify the recognition of Southern independence. He again appealed to Lindsay to withdraw his motion, which was finally done.

The Times says that every man can see that the time draws near when the Government must give its opinion. If McClellan is proved incapable of resuming the offensive, the propriety of treating the Confederates as independent may be justly discussed in the Cabinet.

The Daily News and Star applaud Palmerston's views, and contend that the time has not yet arrived for mediation.

The London Times, Friday, publishes a third edition containing the following:

BALTIMORE, July 3d.—A communication from Fort Monroe, 2d, states that Gorman and Meade had arrived there wounded. They stated that the divisions of Gen. McCall and Reynolds surrendered to the Confederates. Gen. McClellan was on board the Galena. Jackson was in rear of Federals and Price in front. Gen. Lee refuses to grant any terms of capitulation, and demands the unconditional surrender of the Federal troops. Federal flags have been taken down from the newspaper offices.

The above was by the Glascow at Cork—the arrival of the Arabia on the 19th with regular dispatches from New York completely upset this canard, which was from unquestionably secession quarters.

At Liverpool, July 19th in the evening, breadstuffs steady. Queenstown, July 20th, latest Liverpool breadstuffs market yesterday closed quiet and firm.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald, again asserts that the Emperor Napoleon is about to offer the mediation of France to America, and says the drift of public opinion is in favor of such a course.

The Moniteur publishes an account of the battles before Richmond and says one thing is certain, the army of the North was crushed on the field by overwhelming numbers; it had then to give up foot by foot several miles of ground; it has lost guns, prisoners and stores, and for the present Richmond is disengaged.

Gen. Price Crossing the Mississippi.

Another Campaign West of the Mississippi.

MEMPHIS, July 28, via CAIRO, July 30.

Gen. Grant has ordered Gen. Sherman to take possession of all unoccupied dwellings, stores and manufactories for the Government.

Price has got 25 cannon across the Mississippi, near Napoleon, and endeavoring to cross his whole army.

The rebels say Price is to command in Missouri, Hindman in Arkansas, and Magruder over both. The Union forces are ample to check them.

THE SURRENDER OF THE THIRD REGIMENT.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 22, 1862.

I should have written to you sooner, but even at this lapse of time, have not been able to get at the plain, unvarnished facts of the case. I intended, when I wrote you, to state facts which would either exonerate our unfortunate commander from all blame, or place him in a proper light for the execration of all true Minnesotians; but in spite of not a little perseverance, my inquiries have been almost fruitless.

Briefly, then, we were alarmed early in the morning of Sunday, the 13th, by an attack on the Ninth Michigan. Col. Lester marched us out of camp, as soon as we were in line, and drew us up in order of battle in a strong position, with a section of the battery on either wing. After waiting an hour or so, they charged on us; but we beat them off with the greatest ease. They next made an attack upon our camp, which was defended by only one relief of the old guard, fifteen strong, under Corporal Charles H. Green of Company I. This insignificant force kept an entire regiment of rebel cavalry at bay for some time—in fact, until they made the third charge! This heroic Corporal was pointed out once by General Mitchell, as a model soldier. He held his position until he had killed four, wounded one officer, and taken another prisoner; then, when they charged the third time, he died fighting nobly, for God and his country! Let him be remembered as a generous, noble-minded comrade, and a man in every way worthy of respect. I mention this defense of the camp to show that if there was anything lacking, it certainly was not the men.

After the charge, we saw nothing of the enemy, except scouts, until about two o'clock, when they came down with a flag of truce. When the flag went back, Col. Lester went with it. He returned in the course of half an hour, and held a council of war. Captain Mills and Lieutenant Taylor, of Co. H., were entitled to votes, but were accidentally absent. Five voted to surrender. Captains Andrews and Hoit, and Lieut. Col. Griggs voted to fight.

The enemy was supposed to outnumber us from three to seven to one. The previous surrender of the Ninth Michigan, having placed their guns at the disposal of the enemy, they were at least as well armed as we were.

It was reported that Generals Crittenden and Dudliedd advised su render,—they certainly did so, as far as example was concerned. And to crown all, Captain Hewitt reported his battery nearly out of ammunition. These were the arguments for surrender.

We had nearly five hundred hardy men, all ready for the contest, and not one coward in the lot. Our position was unapproachable with cavalry except at the front; and here, from our experience at the camp and the charge on our lines, no force they had could approach without being thrown into irretrievable confusion, if they outnumbered us ten to one instead of five to one. Communication was open yet to Nashville, and we might expect reinforcements any minute,—they were at that time on the cars—as we have since learned. We had pledged our lives in defense of our country, and this first time we were called upon to put them in jeopardy, was not the occasion for us to draw back. These were some of the arguments for a fight.

After the surrender we went back to camp after our knapsacks, haversacks and canteens. There was no parade. The guards came to their posts one by one.

We marched ten miles that night, and reached McMinnville Tuesday evening. On Wednesday we were paroled. The parting with our officers was the saddest occasion of my life. It was not merely breaking one of the dearest ties of friendship, but bringing up so fancifully before us, as it did, all the sad scenes of the surrender and subsequent march, and reminding us how precarious were our hopes of ever meeting again. Few could repress the last-rising tear, or modulate the tones of their voice.

When we left McMinnville, all order and discipline were at an end. Every one marched to suit himself. If he became thirsty or hungered, he went in search of drink or food. If he became tired, he laid down. When rested, he got up and toddled on again. In this way, we stretched out, until soldiers were in sight of each other, for twenty miles. We lay over one day in Murfreesboro, for stragglers to come up, and reached this place Friday evening.

We certainly cannot complain of the treatment received from the rebels. They were uniformly kind in their actions, and guarded in their language. I do not remember to have heard a word calculated to give offense to the most sensitive. This was the last thing that we expected, and consequently gave us the greatest pleasure. The same may be said of the people, both Union and rebel, between Murfreesboro and McMinnville. I hope never to hear another report about "black flags," rebels shooting their wounded prisoners, &c., for I candidly believe them all to be most unmitigated lies.

I have said little about the force which captured us, because the opinions in regard to it are nearly as various now as they were on the morning of the attack. They consisted of the Texan Rangers, two regiments Georgia, and a battalion or so of Kentucky troops. Their numbers were probably not far from two thousand.

What will be done with us is more than I can say at present. If we are to be kept prisoners at Camp Benton, I don't see as our parole has done us much good. But I can't think that such will be the policy of the Government. M. P. H.

Western Virginia for a Vigorous Prosecution of the War.

WHEELING, Va., July 26.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held in this city this afternoon, and was addressed by Gov. Pierpoint, Hon. Sherrard Clements, and others. The speeches endorse a most vigorous policy of the administration. A memorial was adopted praying the county court to make a loan of $20,000 to aid volunteering.

Unconstitutional.

The following is understood to be a whisky translation of the Vallandigham platform, laid down by the convention of the moccasinites of Minnesota:

"If we draft men for se war, we draft men for se war: if we list men for se war, we list men for se war: Administration's unconstitutional; niggers unconstitutional-tutional: abolition District Chumbia 'stutional: let's go down and take somethin' cons-tu-tional."

Speculation in Regard to Halleck's Plans.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 25, 1862.—It had been announced yesterday that General Pope was to leave by the evening train for his headquarters in the field, and at a late hour, when I telegraphed, it was still generally believed that he had gone, but now it appears that at the last moment he was ordered to remain until General Halleck should return from the peninsula. General Halleck is not expected back in time now to let him leave for the field before the first of next week. We hear all sorts of rumors about what Halleck is going to do with the army of the Potomac, and the chief ones are that with naval and other reinforcements an overwhelming advance up James river will be immediately begun, or that McClellan's army will be brought back to Fredericksburg to start a movement on Richmond in direct conjunction with Pope. Of course these reports are only valuable as showing the course and conjectures well informed people are taking. The general expectation at Pope's headquarters seems to be that the campaign in the valley will be exceedingly active, as soon as Halleck gets back and Pope gets into the field.

Gen. Rousseau.

This Kentuckian has taken the place of Major General Mitchell as commander of the country about Huntsville, Alabama. The mantle of the energetic Mitchell has fallen upon the shoulders of a man worthy to succeed him. Rousseau comprehended the character of the rebellion at the start. He never believed in the conciliating kid glove policy. Our readers will remember his speech at the Louisville banquet. It was proposed to make him a Major General. But Garrett Davis, Wickliffe, Mabory & Co. pronounced him too radical, and certain members of the Cabinet chimed in with them, and he was rejected! The most radical thing Gen. Rousseau said in his speech was, that he thought more of the Union than he did of slavery, and it the latter stood in the way of the former, it must go under. But times have marvellously changed since then.—Chicago Tribune.

Iowa State Democratic Convention.

The "Democrats" of Iowa met in convention at Des Moines on Thursday last. Forty out of ninety counties were represented (?) by delegates. Among the prominent individuals present as participants were Augustus Cæsar Dodge, Mathony, of the Dubuque Herald, and Clagett, of Keokuk. An extract from the speech of the latter personage will show the character of the whole concern:

"I tell you, gentlemen, there is no use to blink the facts of history. Massachusetts alone is responsible for plunging this country into the horrors of civil war! It was the factious Abolitionism of that State which compelled the South to assume an attitude of armed rebellion. Massachusetts did it all! This war is nothing but a raid on the States of the South. The Administration at Washington is corrupt from the 'sole of its head to the crown of its foot;' but the Democracy of this country will yet teach Abe Lincoln and his co-usurpers that the 'way of the transgressor is easy.'"

The resolutions passed by this precious concave of the treason-sympathizers are of the same style. Just one paragraph is devoted to those who are in arms against the Union, and nearly every line of the remaining portion of the series makes war upon those who are endeavoring to uphold the Government and put down the rebellion.

Black Seaman vs. White.

A correspondent at Newberne, North Carolina, of the Cincinnati Gazette, details the following test of capacity for seamens' duty between whites and blacks:

Quite an exciting and interesting regetta came off the other day in front of the naval headquarters. One of the two boats entered, was manned by six contraband seamen, beautifully attired in man-of-war costume, and the other was manned by eight white seamen, who were considered the crack crew of these waters. Distance was offered the contraband crew, who had only been seamen some three months, but their captain refused to accept of any advantage whatever, and insisted on giving the white seamen the advantage of two men. Everything being in readiness the word was given, and off went the boats, throwing the crowd, white and black, into the most intense excitement.

Judge of the astonishment of all when the boat containing the contrabands was seen to turn the mile post first, and great was the excitement and deafening were the cheers as they came in some three rods in advance of the white crew, who were dripping with perspiration and thoroughly mortified at the unexpected result. They were inclined to think the contest was an unfair one, until the captain of the contrabands offered to renew the race by having the crews exchange boats, which proposition was not accepted by the white seamen, for fear of a like result. The captain said his contrabands could not only pull a small boat faster and with more steadiness than the same number of white seamen, but that they, with others he had on board, could man his big guns with more agility and skill in time of action than any white seamen he had ever seen. Also, that they were more attentive to duty, and performed more work, and were more civil and orderly than the white seamen.

A Rebel Operator Reads Gen. Halleck's Dispatches for Four Days.

MEMPHIS, July 23, 1862.

The telegraph line between Memphis and Corinth is exceedingly important. Gen. Halleck's messages to Com. Davis, Gen. Curtis, and the commandant of this post have all passed over it. Little of the line is guarded, but of late the rebels have refrained from cutting the wires. Their unusual amiability is now explained—they found better use for it!

For a week the Memphis operators have detected something wrong in the working of the instruments, and surmised that some outsider was sharing their telegraphic secrets. They communicated this suspicion to the superintendent at Corinth, who promised to keep a sharp lookout.

Yesterday, they discovered that their uninvited confident could talk as well as listen. The transmission of a message was suddenly interrupted by the ejaculation, "O pshaw!" A moment after it was again broken with "Hurrah for Jeff Davis!"

Individuality shows itself as well in telegraphing as in the footstep, or in handwriting. Mr. Hall, one of the Memphis operators, instantly recognized the performer, not by his tune, but his time, as a young man formerly in Buffalo and other northern offices, but now employed by the Confederates. Mr. Hall so prised him by replying promptly, "Ed. Saville, if you don't want to be hung, you had better leave! Our cavalry are closing in on both sides of you!"

There was a little pause, and then the reply: "How in the world did you know me? However, I've been here four days, and learned all we want to know. As this is becoming rather a tight place, I think I will leave. You'll see me again when you least expect it. Good bye, boys!"

The rebel operator made good his escape. He had cut the wire, inserted his own, and by a pocket instrument been reading our official dispatches. Some of the utmost importance, giving the very information most desired by the rebels, were passing, and as they were not in cipher, he must have received them. One from General Hovey, commandant of this point, in reply to a question from General Halleck, stated the precise number of our available men in Memphis, (only about 3,000,) and their exact location!

The ill effect of this exposure of our weakness has been guarded against as far as possible. General W. T. Sherman has already started for Memphis with two or three divisions under his command, and will arrive to-day. So we are in no special danger of a rebel dash.

The brilliant and audacious telegraphic feat was performed between here and Moscow, only 22 miles distant, and probably within 15 miles of Memphis! We are at a loss here to understand why, after the enemy has disappeared, the magnificent army with which General Halleck threatened Corinth is unable to guard 200 miles of railroad and telegraph, or to furnish fifteen or twenty thousand men for the capture of Vicksburg. We hope our brilliant successes in the West are not to be followed by an era of HOW NOT TO DO IT.

FROM CAIRO AND BELOW.

CAIRO, July 25.—The steamer Silver Moon arrived this morning from Memphis. She brings forty prisoners and about 400 discharged and furloughed soldiers from Curtis' army. Capt. Pierce of the 3d Iowa cavalry, died on board, just as the steamer arrived here. His remains will be sent home. The prisoners are in charge of Lieut. McAdams of Missouri. Gen. Curtis had returned to Helena from below. He reports that the enemy has crossed into Arkansas in considerable bodies, and have carried with them twenty-five guns of various sizes, and he thinks they intend to reinforce Hindman. Gen. Curtis has forbidden the purchase of cotton near his command, that article being in the hands of secessionists. It is little better than aiding the revolutionists to pay them for it. He thinks it should be confiscated.

Needing a warehouse in Helena which belonged to a secession merchant, he gave the owner notice of his intention of taking it. The owner said it was full of furniture at first, but finally said that he had secreted cotton in it, and begged that it might be taken out at night, for if the inhabitants found it he would be assassinated. His request was granted. Gen. Curtis' army is soon to move, if it has not already gone; but not to Vicksburg, as has been said. The report of the capture of the rebel gunboat Arkansas is not yet confirmed.

Andy Johnson on Vallandigham Democracy.

Col. Forney writing to his paper says:

The rancor and bitterness of the Breckinridge leaders in the free States may be profitably contrasted with the patriotism and disinterestedness of the heroic people in the Southern States, represented by Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee. This latter class are constantly surrounded with perils, and know full well that, if ever captured by the rebels, they cannot escape with their lives. Mr. Brownlow goes forth as the champion of the Union, speaking for the patriots of Tennessee, and sustaining the war with marvellous eloquence and power; and in return is denounced by the organs of the so-called Democratic party with unsparing bitterness. Andrew Johnson himself is never referred to in language of approval or admiration. The reason is obvious: the loyal heroes of Tennessee are objects of hatred to the enemies of the country in the free States, because, unlike these enemies, they refuse to misrepresent the purposes of the Administration and the Republican party, and because, also, they regard all the followers of John C. Breckinridge—whether in the rebel army, or in the organization styling itself Democratic—as the most dangerous and malignant foes of the good cause. It is a fact of signal significance, that the movement against the General Administration, in the free States, which began with the address of the fifteen "Democratic" members of Congress, was promptly repudiated, and has been consistently rejected, by Andrew Johnson and his friends.

GENERAL HALLECK.—We announce, with great pleasure, that General Halleck is to take command of the armies of the United States. We have differed with him in his negro policy, and severely condemned his order No. 3; but that policy has been changed, and order No. 3 consigned to the tomb—there let it rest; and now we extend to General Halleck the right hand of fellowship, and bid him God speed in his new position. All eyes and all hearts will now be directed toward the General-in-Chief. He comes to us in a dark and trying hour, and we pray he may be endowed with wisdom equal to his high trust.—National Republican.

INDIANA DEMOCRATIC MASS CONVENTION.—There is to be a grand mass convention of the Democracy of Indiana, at Indianapolis, on the 30th inst. Among the gentlemen from abroad who have already accepted the invitation to be present and address the meeting are Hon. John J. Crittenden, of Kentucky; Hon. Wm. A. Richardson, of Illinois; Hon. J. S. Carlile, of Western Virginia; and Hon. Chas. A. Wickliffe, of Kentucky.

Another Trial of the Armstrong 300-pounder.

Another experiment with the Armstrong 300-pounder gun is thus reported:

"The 300-pounder Armstrong gun was on Monday again used at Shoeburyness against iron plates, at a range of 200 yards. The target presented a portion of the side of the new class of steam frigates. The armor is five and one half inches thick, instead of four and one half, as in the Warrior, but the thickness of the teak back is reduced from 18 inches to 9. For the first three trials the shot was of cast iron, and the charge 50 pounds as usual. No. 1 struck and pierced the center plate, damaging but not passing through the inner skin and framing. No. 2 struck the upper plate and went completely through armor, timber, and skin. No. 3 was directed against the lower plate, and, like No. 2, passed quite through the target. At the fourth round the gun gave way, the breech being blown backwards to a distance of thirty or forty yards. The gun did not break into fragments, and no one was hurt."

GREAT COMPETITION.—A great competition now exists between the different Railroad lines going East from Milwaukee. To such an extent has this competition been carried, that the large majority of the travel from the Northwest now goes to Milwaukee to purchase their Eastern Tickets, as by so doing they can save from $3 to $5 in fare. Passengers even going no farther than Chicago, save money by purchasing to Milwaukee and then purchasing to Chicago. Notwithstanding this competition, the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad and steamship Line, known as the Grand Haven Route, sell tickets at $1.00 less than any other route, no matter what their fare may be. Now is the time to travel, and Milwaukee the place to buy your Eastern tickets at low rates. jy30-tf

JULY—PIMPLES AND SKIN DISEASES are the result of impure blood. The blood becomes thick and clogged. The skin is not able to cast off the impurities so important to health. How many young men and women we see with their faces covered with pimples and blotches, who are endeavoring to remove them by the use of soaps and washes of various kinds. This is very dangerous and should never be practised by persons desirous of good health. Mothers who have children afflicted with sores and eruptions, should never dry them up by external applications, for in this way they will drive in the humors and produce ill health for the child during its whole life time. There is no mother that likes to see her children afflicted with feeble health.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are prepared expressly for the cure of eruptions of the skin, such as Pimples, Blotches &c. They cleanse the blood of all impurities, producing a beautiful, clear and healthy skin, so much admired by all people of taste and refinement.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

This Society was organized in the year 1859, with a cash capital of $100,000 deposited in accordance with the insurance Department of the State of New York, in United States bonds, on which it allows but seven per cent. per annum to the stockholders, and the entire profits of the business is shared by the policy holders. The nett profits in two years amounts to $129,000, which shows an unparalleled success in the history of Life Insurance. Its operations are managed by a Board of Directors composed of the ablest business men of the country, and its business is conducted entirely on the cash plan. Dividends to the policy holders will be made every five years, and no Company in the country offers equal advantages to its dealers.

HOME

INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Extract from Third Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York. WM. BARNES,
Superintendent.

There are now ninety-five joint stock fire insurance companies incorporated by the State of New York, engaged in the transaction of business; of these companies, fourteen only received premiums during the last year, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars; four only received premiums above the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and the premium income of one only exceeded three hundred thousand dollars. The premium receipts of this Company, the HOME, with a capital of $1,000,000, were $828,953.53. The premium income of thirty of the smaller companies was $851,573.65 only, with capitals, however, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,900,000.

The state of things should be improved; the premium income of the mass of our fire insurance companies is by far too small for their capitals, and inadequate to the proper support of a separate and independent corporation. The experience of the HOME, PHOENIX, (of Brooklyn) and some other companies, has demonstrated that, with proper skill, tact and sagacity, business can be increased and managed to an indefinite extent, with entire safety, and even additional security to the company. We have now the machinery and organization in working order for nearly one hundred joint stock fire insurance companies. In the course of a few years their business can be safely doubled, and even quadrupled, without doubling or quadruping the yearly expenses. Any considerable expansion of business must of course be mainly effected through the instrumentality of reliable, safe, and well managed agencies. The premium income of the HOME amounts to nearly one-eighth part that of the ninety-five companies combined, so that eight companies like the HOME could conduct the entire business of all these companies. If each company transacted the same amount of business as the HOME the aggregate premium income would reach the enormous amount of over seventy-eight millions of dollars per year. Our companies are not too numerous for the great future of this country, managed on the progressive scale demanded by the spirit of the American people.

The annual statement of this our foremost local live and Inland company, made up to the first of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, President, A. F. Wilmarth, Vice President, and John Metlee, Secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of over half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our State, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the first of January last amounted up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43; and, moreover, it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,451.11, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company; bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,065. Any one not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution, must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $1,875,745, taking $824,955 premium, and paid losses $355,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of ten per cent. was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund, the company shows a "nett surplus" of $160,654 clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

MILLS,

SITUATED ON PHALON'S CREEK, WHERE THE STILLWATER ROAD CROSSES.

This Mill is just completed, and is in good running order. Our machinery embraces all the latest improvements, and was got up in the East, without regard to expense. It has two run of Burrs, which will be kept running night and day, so that farmers coming from a distance can be accommodated without much delay.

The need of a first class Mill of this kind has long been felt by the citizens of St. Paul and vicinity. We have secured the services of James Craigie, who has made milling the business of his life, and in whom we can place entire confidence.

All kinds of grain will be weighed when brought to the Mill, and also when taken away, if desired. We feel confident in saying to the public that we can make as good Flour and as great a yield to the bushel as any Mill in Minnesota, and respectfully solicit a fair trial.

Also a new Mill for grinding corn in the ear.

☞ All work done at this Mill is warranted.

LA CROSSE AND ST. PAUL

PACKET COMPANY.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

During the summer of 1862, till the close of navigation, the LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company, having completely equipped their Line and made large additions to their business facilities, will offer to shippers and passengers on the river greater inducements and conveniences, and QUICKER TIME, than was ever offered by any company on the river.

All the boats on the Chippewa, Minnesota, St. Croix and the upper Mississippi rivers, and the different lines of stages north of LaCrosse, will, the coming season run to connect with the Davidson boats and the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company will run a

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE.

The former will number two first class boats—the nicest and fastest on the river. They will be the NICOLLET AND NORTHERN BELLE.—The first will be the Lightning Line, making the run from La Crosse to St. Paul in EIGHTEEN HOURS, and returning will leave here in the morning, and arrive at La Crosse in twelve hours time to connect with the evening train, by which our passengers will make close connection and reach Milwaukee in time for cars, or boats on the Lake in TWENTY HOURS FROM ST. PAUL, and reach Chicago next morning, by Minnesota Junction or Milwaukee, in just TWEN

THE CITY.

E. J. KNOBLESDORF, a well known business man on Third street, has enlisted in the Sigel Guards, Sixth Regiment.

UNION BLOCK, now in course of erection at the corner of Roberts and Third streets, bids fair to be the handsomest of the many really handsome and substantial blocks in this city.

WILLIAM DAVIS, not the one of that name who runs the engine on the steamboats, was taken up for disorderly conduct yesterday, and fined $5 and costs which he paid. The money is coming in rapidly this week.

THAT Copper Still, to which we alluded yesterday as bound for the Selkirk Settlement, was manufactured by Messrs. Byers and Pollock, Jackson street, in this city, who say they can furnish "more of the same sort" at short notice.

W. S. COMBS has commenced business again, having purchased the stock of his predecessor, Mr. C. H. Mix. It looks right to find him again at this establishment where he has so long presided, even to the time when the "memory of man runneth not to the contrary."

CAPT. MUNCH.—We were much gratified, yesterday, to see in town Captain Munch of the 1st Minnesota Battery, who was very badly wounded at the battle of Shiloh. Capt. M., though still lame, thinks soon to be able to return to his gallant company.

GOOD TEMPLARS, DASHAWAY LODGE No. 56.—There will be a meeting of the Lodge, for the election of officers, and other business, this evening in the rooms of the St. Paul Lodge, Concert Hall.

A full attendance is requested.

E. H. NORWOOD, Secretary.

DEATH OF CAPT. CURTIS.—Capt. Gold T. Curtis of Company K, Minnesota Fifth, residing at Stillwater, died at St. Louis on Friday last, from the effects of fever and bloody dysentery, contracted at Corinth. His family were with him at the time of his decease, having been summoned thither by a telegraphic dispatch from Cairo. The body will be brought home for interment.

BOYS, don't you swim in the Mississippi in the day time. Don't you swim there at all, for it is absolutely dangerous: but besides being dangerous, to swim there in the day time it is a nuisance—a naked shame. Four boys were hauled up by the police yesterday for swimming in the river at the Lower Levee and properly fined. Go to Lake Como—there's the place to swim; never swim in the river unless you happen to fall in, and then get out as quick as possible.

TOO LATE.—Several of the delegates from below to the Convention yesterday delayed their departure till the Northern Light came along, which boat unfortunately for them got a ground at Kaposia. They came up on foot from there, and arrived just in time to see the Convention adjourn. Their coming would only have made more unanimous and harmonious the proceedings which characterized the deliberations of that body.

THE LAST WORD.—A good matron, who made her nice light bread her boast, lately bade adieu to a favorite daughter, just married, and going to a distant State to settle. The last words of advice the kind lady uttered in confidence were, "Use Dolland's Chemical Saleratus, and you will have good bread, and nice light biscuits, and your husband will love you the more as a good housewife." The mother was right and if her advice is heeded, that match will doubtless prove a happy one. For sale by all the Wholesale Grocers in Chicago and Milwaukee.

RIVER ITEMS.—The arrivals since our last are the Northern Light from Duluth, Favorite from LaCrosse, Clara Hine and Antelope from Carver.

The down boat this morning for LaCrosse is the McLelland, and the down boat this evening for Duluth is the Itasca.

The bars in the river between this point and Hastings do not seem to have been much improved in the last twenty-four hours.

AN ARKANSAS REFUGEE.—We saw yesterday a Scotchman by the name of Muir, who has resided for the last sixteen years in Arkansas and Louisiana. He left the former State about three weeks ago, traveling in company with General Curtis' army to Helena on the Mississippi, from which point he came up the river. Having lost all he had in Secessia, consisting of a farm, cattle, farming implements, &c., in consequence of his adherence to the Union, he comes to this State to take a new start in the world, and is going to avail himself of the Homestead law. He represents the state of affairs in Arkansas in the most deplorable light. The armies on both sides have run over the State, carrying devastation in their track, leaving the people who remain in a state of actual starvation; and there is nothing being raised this year to help them along. The march of Curtis' army from the interior of Arkansas to the Mississippi was attended with a good deal of distress, as they were obliged to march for miles without a drop of water, and when they did come to it, they frequently found the well or spring filled with carrion. He showed us some of the Arkansas shinplasters, of various kinds and denominations, printed on common brown paper in some backwoods office in the coarsest style, and the filling up almost a blot, some of which were good for nothing even where they are issued. So frenzied and reckless are the people there, that they think it a capital joke to take the oath of allegiance, and then take up arms again in the rebel cause: and in a number of instances when rebels have been killed with arms in their hands, the oath of allegiance to the United States has been found in their pocket. He believed that the rebellion would never be put down till the most sanguinary measures were resorted to by the Government, as the rebels only laughed at the gingerbread style in which they have hitherto been treated.

CONJECTURES AS TO STONEWALL JACKSON'S MOVEMENTS

HALLECK'S RETURN FROM THE PENINSULA

Mr. Seward's Relations to the Cabinet

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, July 27.—It is generally admitted that the rebels under Jackson and Ewell are making preparations either to attack Pope's forces or move down the west side of the Shenandoah. Some well informed men insist that a battle may come off in three or four days. Everything would depend upon such battle, and the consequences of a defeat could hardly be estimated.

Gens. Halleck and Burnside returned from the Peninsula to-day. Halleck immediately called on the President and had a consultation. Perhaps in view of the kind of dispatches afterward sent from here, it may be well to explain that the results of the conference have not been furnished to correspondents.

Pope's last order putting a stop to the practice of guarding rebel property is directly in the teeth of one of his corps, also of the whole practice in the Peninsula. It gives great satisfaction.

The order offering a reward of five cents for the apprehension of a certain officer absent without leave from his command, will have a wholesome effect on crowds of officers swarming about the hotel bars in this city, Baltimore and New York, whose presence was absolutely needed with their men.

The following is the significant portion of the National Intelligencer's article by authority explanative of Mr. Seward's relations in the Cabinet. It was omitted by the Associated Press.

The Secretary truly admitted that every rumor of division of counsels and of conflict among or about Generals, every private jealousy, and even utterance of any private grief, tends to defeat prompt response to the Government's call for reinforcements. He never exercised nor assumed any power in the progress of this war which was not especially charged by the President, and in performance of which he was not always in free communication with him.

He had never expressed either to President nor any other person distrust of any of his associates, but had uniformly supported and defended them all: had not been quick or willing to entertain complaints against any General, whether Scott or McDowell, Fremont or McClellan, Halleck, Grant, Buell, Sigel, Shields, or Bleaker, but has exerted his best endeavors to sustain them all more when they encountered defeats than when they achieved victories. He had never introduced nor encouraged any test question in the Cabinet concerning men or measures, nor the rejection of any men, nor the adoption or rejection of any measures as a condition of adherence to the administration. He has never purposed removal or overruling propositions of any member of the Cabinet, nor has he thought of resigning his own place in it, nor has one word of distrust passed between the President nor any of his official advisers and himself.

This explanation has rather a depressing influence than otherwise. It is interpreted as indicating Seward's continued ascendency over the President, and the consequent continued danger of his perverting to the old rose-water war policy.

Arrest of an Ex-United States Marshal for Treason.

BURLINGTON, Vt., July 21.—General Lewis Partridge, of Norwich, Vermont, was arrested a few days since by United States Marshal Baldwin, on the charge of treason, and taken to Windsor, where the United States Circuit Court sits next week. His trial is expected to take place during the coming session of the Court. The evidence against him is said to be very strong. Gen. Partridge was United States Marshal for this State under Buchanan's Administration.

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 26.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO, IN CAMP, NEAR FLORENCE, ALA., June 24, 1862.

There are 14,000 officers and soldiers absent from their duty with the various Divisions of this army. Some of them have gone off without any authority; others with the permission of officers not authorized to grant it. In general, sickness is given as the cause of absence, but in very many cases the cause has notoriously ceased to exist, and men remain away, drawing the same pay as their comrades who are faithfully performing their duty. To correct this abuse it is ordered—

1. All officers and soldiers who are absent without proper leave from these Headquarters, the period for which has not transpired, will, on or before the 10th of July, proximo, join their companies or regiments wherever they may be. If ignorant of their locality, they will report to the commanding officer at Louisville or Nashville, by whom they will be directed to their regiments, or put on such light duty as they may be able to perform, if they are not entirely fit for active service; and these will be promptly reported to their regimental commanders by the officer so assigning them.

The cases of those who fail to join as above required, will be disposed of as follows:

2. If any absent officer or soldier, in consequence of sickness or wounds, is absolutely unable to report for duty as above required, he will forward by mail to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville, Tennessee" a Certificate of Disability, according to the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY.

I declare on oath that I have carefully examined.....of Captain.....
Company, Colonel.....Regiment of .....Volunteers, now at this place and under treatment by me, and find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier for the following reasons: [Here state all the facts known concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the the injury occurred or disease originated; the duty or situation of the officer or soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted; and whatever facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.]

Place: (Signed).
Date: Surgeon [or Physician.]

Sworn and subscribed to before

This certificate must be subscribed and sworn to by a Surgeon or private Physician in good standing, and known as such by the aide-camp or other officer by whom the oath is administered; and on it a discharge will be ordered from these Headquarters, or the case otherwise disposed of according to the circumstances.

3. The death of any officer or soldier which has occurred since the 1st of January last, while he was absent from his regiment or company, and which has been reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital in which the death occurred, or by the friends of the deceased if not in Hospital, will be immediately reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital, or by the affidavit of friends, to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville," setting forth the date of decease and other material circumstances.

4. All absent officers and soldiers who do not join their companies and regiments, or are not satisfactorily accounted for as above by the 10th of July next, will be reported on their muster-roll as deserters, dating from the time they may have been absent without authority.

By Act of Congress every deserter forfeits all claim on the Government for pay and allowances, besides being liable to arrest and trial by Court Martial. Any person who apprehends and returns a deserter to the commanding officer of a military post is entitled to five dollars.

By command of MAJOR GEN. BUELL.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1845, and since that time have finished and sold TWENTY-SEVEN THOUSAND. These instruments are now in use not only in the United States and Canada, but also in Europe, Asia, Africa, South America and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held.

AT ALL INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITIONS THEY HAVE INVARIABLY BEEN AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM WHENEVER EXHIBITED IN COMPETITION WITH OTHERS.

We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or dealers in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by accident or design.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY,

THE MORNING'S NEWS.

We have a report from the South that ten iron-clad gunboats built in England for the Confederates, had safely entered Mobile harbor. It is probably a canard.

We have the word of a refugee, that the Yazoo river is swarming with rebel mail-clad craft of formidable armament. The Arkansas was but the pioneer of a fleet.

From McClellan's army there are rumors of fighting. Probably the only foundation of the report, is the fact that orders had been issued to the army to be ready at a moment's warning for action or a movement. An attack of the enemy was hourly expected.

WAR MEETING LAST NIGHT.

A Draft in Thirty Days Called for.

St. Paul spoke out again last night through the medium of a largely attended meeting of her citizens in the yard at the Capitol, got up especially under the auspices of her laboring men and mechanics, in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war for the preservation of the Union.

Mr. C. B. Shanley presided at the meeting, and made some very sensible and pointed remarks at its close.

The speeches were numerous and directly to the point, by Messrs. Sullivan, O'Conner, Dillon, Crooker, Col. Robertson, Capt. Grant, and a Dr. Tiffany and Mr. Fowler of Chicago. They were patriotic and well received—the meeting being kept up till a late hour in the evening.

At the close of his speech, a portion of which was made in defense of a draft, if it should become necessary, Col. Robertson submitted the following resolution to the meeting:

Resolved, That if the three hundred thousand men called for by the President be not enlisted within thirty days, this meeting recommends to the Governor of this State, the Governors of the loyal States, and to the President of the United States, an immediate and unconditional draft of the people.

The resolution was put to the large assemblage, carried almost entirely of working men, and adopted by a unanimous and hearty response, without a dissenting voice.

GEN. HALLECK'S FAMOUS ORDER No. 3.

It will be remembered that Col. Blair defended Gen. Halleck from the censures occasioned by his order No. 3, and read a letter from Halleck explanatory of the order.

The following is the letter, which indicates very clearly that Halleck was in favor of confiscating the slaves of rebels, and very ready to enforce such a measure.

To Hon. F. P. Blair, Washington:

DEAR COLONEL.—Yours of the 4th inst. is just received. Order No. 3 was in my mind clearly a military necessity.

Unauthorized persons, black or white, free or slave, must be kept out of our camps unless we are willing to publish to the enemy everything we do or intend to do.

It was a military and not a political order.

I am ready to carry out any lawful instructions in regard to fugitive slaves which my superiors may give me, and to enforce any law which Congress may pass; but I cannot make law, and will not violate it.

You know my private opinion on the policy of enacting a law confiscating the slave property of the rebels in arms. If Congress shall pass it, you may be certain I shall enforce it. Yours truly,

H. W. HALLECK.

THE DODD ROAD.

APPROPRIATION BY CONGRESS FOR THE RELIEF OF CAPT. W. B. DODD.

We find among the published acts of the late Congress the following.

If we remember rightly the money expended on the Dodd road, which by this act is proposed to reimburse, was contributed chiefly by the citizens of St. Paul. It would be well for the parties to make the proof required by the act and secure their equitable claims:

[PUBLIC No. 102.]

AN ACT for the relief of William B. Dodd and others.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury be and he is hereby directed to pay out of the appropriation to complete the road from Mendota to the Big Sioux river, contained in the act approved March third, eighteen hundred and fifty-five, entitled "An act making appropriations for the support of the army for the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and fifty-six, and for other purposes," into the hands of Horace Austin, of Saint Peter, Minnesota, who is hereby appointed a commissioner to dispose of the same, the sum of three thousand two hundred and seventy dollars, the same being estimated for in said appropriation, and being for completing a part of said road, to be paid by him as follows, to wit: The said commissioner shall give notice to all persons having claims against William B. Dodd for labor or materials furnished in the construction of said road, by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the neighborhood where said roads is situated, for ninety days, and for imposing written or printed notices in three public places in each county through which said road passes, to present and prove their claims within ninety days aforesaid; and all such claims, so presented and proved within the time limited, he shall pay to the parties respectively, and the balance, after the liquidation of such claims, and the payment of the expenses of this commission, he shall pay to said Wm. B. Dodd.

Approved, July 1, 1862.

—It is said that one hundred and eighteen commissioned officers of the army of the Potomac have tendered their resignations during the past week. They were not accepted.

The Sioux and Chippewas.—A Scalping Affair.

LETTER FROM REV. S. R. RIGGS.

To the Editor of the St. Paul Press:

We have been hoping that the eternal enmity existing between the Dakotas and the Ojibwas might sometime be permitted to die out—that the scalp-dance and the glory of wearing eagle-feathers might by and by be forgotten, or only be remembered as among the things of the past. But only about a month ago, the Ojibwas made a raid upon a village in one of the Islands of Lake Traverse—attacked the few Dakotas living there, by night, and killed two, wounding some others. In that case, we understand, they failed to get the scalps.

And now again, only day before yesterday, Sabbath, the twentieth instant, another party of Ojibwas made a dash, at midday, on Red Iron's settlement, twelve miles above this place, and killed a man and his son. We had rather expected that short hair, wearing a hat and pantaloons and otherwise appearing like a white man, might be some guarantee of protection to an Indian man from this scalp warfare. But in this case the man was a farmer Indian—a very industrious, energetic man. His scalp with short hair will be danced around at the Ojibwa villages, and young men will court women while they together sing the war song, all this summer long.

The question is, what will our government do in this case? Our civilized Indians are not expected to go to war. They have buried the tomahawk and forsaken the war-path, and given themselves to the cultivation of the soil. Shall they be protected? By the treaty of 1858 they are prohibited from going to war on other Indian tribes, and are required to submit all grivances to be settled by the United States authorities.

It will be, then, a question for Superintendent Thompson to settle. Doubtless he will not let his Ojibwa children impose upon his Dakota children. Yours truly,

S. R. RIGGS.

DAKOTA MISSION, July 22, 1862

THE THIRD REGIMENT SURRENDER.

REPORT OF CHAPLAIN CRARY.

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 24, 1863.

To his Excellency Gov. Alexander Ramsey:

DEAR SIR: It is a painful task to communicate to you a brief summary of the facts concerning the history of the Third Regiment during the past two weeks. I am not able to make a complete report for obvious reasons: but I have made arrangements to obtain full and accurate details of every case necessary to be reported to you.

I cannot give the facts of the attack of the 13th instant at Murfreesboro, of the disposition and conduct of the Regiment, of the surrender and paroling of some and escape of others, without compromising myself and stigmatizing men whose conduct may be made the subject of official investigation.

The health, discipline and spirit of the officers and men, were improving, and it is generally stated and believed that no better troops, nor braver men, can be found in the service.

The cavalry force attacking us numbered about two thousand.

Our camps were plundered and burnt within our sight and hearing early in the morning. Our lines were attacked at the same time. All of our loss was at the camp, where Corporal Charles H. Green, Company I, after most heoric resistance, was mortally wounded, and private —— Woodburn, Company C, was killed.

Fifteen were wounded, most of them slightly. I have heard since that one of our men had died at the hospital in Murfreesboro, but could not find out his name nor the nature of his wounds. The only name of the wounded I have are those I took from the persons themselves on the field:

Walter W. Doyle, Company E, was shot through the arm, above the elbow.

C. H. Turnley, Company K, wound of the same kind as the above.

Joseph Fogleson, Company E, shot through the thigh.

My notes are exhausted, and I am unable to give facts concerning other casualties, though I think none are very serious.

The cannonading and skirmishing continued from 5 o'clock A. M. until 1 o'clock P. M. Our loss was very little; the enemy's it is believed, amounted to sixty or seventy.

Colonel Lester surrendered at 3 o'clock. The men were immediately disarmed and marched off in the direction of McMinnville. Since, all the men have been paroled and are now in Nashville under orders to move to Jefferson Barracks as soon as possible.

The following list of officers paroled, escaped, absent, &c., will enable you to judge of our condition:

Dr. Butler is at Nashville with the regiment; Dr. Wedge in the hospital at Murfreesboro; both of whom have done everything men could do for the wounded men:

PAROLED.

Lieutenant R. C. Olin Company B.
Lieutenant J. K. Putnam, Company K.
Lieutenant J. H. Howlett, Quartermaster.

ESCAPED FROM THE ENEMY.

Chaplain B. F. Crary.
Capt. W. H. Mills, Company C.
" Enstrom, " D.
Lieut. Taylor, " H.
" Greenleaf, " I.
" Hodges, " K.

ABSENT.

Major H. Mattson.
Capt. Rice, Company K.
Lieut. Blakeley, Adjutant.
" Shaw, Company I.
" Grummons, Company C, with forty men on special duty.

Sorgeons Butler and Wedge are not considered prisoners of war.

I had been sick two weeks before the surrender, but had preached to the men when it was possible; had visited the hospitals as much as I was able. There are very many personal incidents which might be interesting to our friends, but we cannot give them now.

The paroled and escaped officers are deeply grieved at the unexpected ruin of the regiment, and hope that it may be possible to exchange the prisoners, reorganize the regiment, and put it under a competent leader in active service.

There are now ready for service, Major Mattson, Doctors Butler and Wedge, Chaplain B. F. Crary, Captains of Companies C, D, and H, five Lieutenants, and about fifty privates.

It is my intention to hunt up our sick here, and then meet the regiment at St. Louis.

Quartermaster Howlett is here, settling up some business, and we will proceed together to St. Louis as soon as the regiment moves.

There are so many contradictory statements of matters of fact pertaining to our fight and surrender, that it is not possible to arrive at the truth without a legal investigation.

All the officers and men with whom I have conversed, hope for a speedy opportunity to vindicate the honor of the State, and redeem themselves from the unjust reflections cast upon them by those who do not know the things whereof they affirm.

With great respect I remain,
Very truly and respectfully yours,
B. F. CRARY,
Chaplain Third Reg't Minnesota Vols.

Death of Capt. Gold T. Curtis.

From the Stillwater Messenger, 29th.

A dispatch received from the wife of Capt. Gold T. Curtis on yesterday, announced the death of that officer at St. Louis on Saturday. Although somewhat prepared for such an event,—it being known that he was dangerously ill for a week past,—the announcement of the event cast a universal gloom among all classes of our citizens. Capt. Curtis relinquished a lucrative law practice in the early part of last winter, and devoted his entire energies to the recruiting of a company for the Fifth regiment, of which he was chosen Captain at the organization of the company. His regiment moved early in the spring for Corinth, and although new and undisciplined it will be remembered participated in the terrible battle of Shiloh, in which Capt. Curtis conducted himself with marked skill and bravery. Always possessed of a delicate constitution, it is not surprising that he could not resist the attacks of disease incident to arduous camp life, and the change of habits and climate. His disease was dysentery, of which he died soon after being removed to St. Louis. His wife hastened to him as soon as advised of his condition some days since, and no doubt reached him in time to minister to his last wants.

Captain Curtis was born in Madison county, New York, in 1819, and was consequently in his 43d year. He was admitted to the bar when but nineteen years of age, since which, until entering the military service, he had devoted his entire attention to the practice of his profession. He located in this city some seven or eight years since, and for two years was Judge of Probate of Washington county. He was also a member of the Convention which framed our State Constitution.

The death of Captain Curtis will create a vacancy in our community which will be severely felt. He leaves a most interesting family, who will receive the entire sympathies of our whole community.

The remains of Captain Curtis will arrive on the steamer Fred Lorenz the latter part of this week—perhaps on Friday. We are sure our citizens will unite in some suitable testimonial of their respect for their late fellow-citizen, who has thus yielded up his life in the service of his country while in the promise and vigor of manhood.

General Halleck's Appointment.

The appointment of General Halleck to be Commander-in-Chief of the army will be regarded with high satisfaction by the country. It will do all that any single administrative act can do, to revive public confidence in the conduct of military affairs. It will not stimulate popular enthusiasm like a brilliant victory, but it will fortify the country against fears of fresh disasters growing out of incapable councils, or the vacillating policy of unprofessional commanders.

General Halleck is not known to the country as a brilliant leader of armies in the field. Nor, for that matter, have we a single soldier in the service who is. General Scott, we believe, is the only living American general who ever, before the present war, led 5,000 men to the field of battle. It is not fair to expect that we should extemporize Napoleons, who are never over-abundant in any country. General Halleck's career at the West proved him to be a safe and thoroughly reliable commander, an excellent disciplinarian, and a master of the theoretic art of war. He knows perfectly what ought to be done to insure success; that he is precisely the man to do it, possibly the country might hesitate to concede. But there will be no difference of opinion that he is the best man to be found in the army for the precise position assigned him. His knowledge of army officers is thorough and practical. He knows the service for which each is best fitted, and can combine their operations to the best advantage.—New York Times.

The Mortar Fleet in James River.

There can be no donbt that Commodore Porter's mortar fleet has arrived in James River, whither it was ordered from New Orleans some five weeks ago. Important results are expected from the presence of this formidable flotilla in front of Fort Darling, which guards the obstructions to the navigation of the river a short distance below Richmond. We shall be in no haste to prophesy the reduction of the rebel capital, but when we reflect that the navy has undertaken nothing which it has not brilliantly achieved, and when we know that there will be nine iron turreted Monitors afloat during the month of September, there surely seems ground for the belief that the spot of ground covered by Richmond will yet be brought under our guns. It is believed by the most sagacious naval officers in the the James river, that the obstructions could be removed in twenty-four hours, if Fort Darling could be silenced in that length of time.—Chicago Tribune.

THE CITY.

WE learn that Mr. John Kennedy, of Hastings, will be up with his company this morning, to be mustered into the Sixth Regiment. It consists of about forty men, and is rapidly filling up.

ALDERMAN BRANCH.—It affords us much pleasure to be able to state that the fears entertained for the recovery of Mr. Branch, are now in a great measure dispelled, he being considered out of present danger.

CHICAGO EXCURSION.—The excursion party which started from Chicago and Milwaukee on Tuesday last, is now here, having come up by the McLellan yesterday morning. They are stopping mostly at the International, which seems to be crowded to its utmost capacity.

GREAT preparations are making at Stillwater for the funeral of Capt. Curtis, whose body is expected to arrive there to-day or to-morrow. The Masonic order and the military have the mater in barge.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!—A long list of absentees from the Fourth and Fifth Regiments, and the Second Battery, of Minnesota Volunteers, is published in our paper this morning, who are directed to report themselves to their regiments within thirty days, or be published as deserters.

TWO MORE TRAINS.—On reference to the proper notice, it will be seen that on and after to-morrow there will be two additional trains between here and St. Anthony, making in all five trains over the road each day.

UNION VOCALISTS.—This celebrated concert troupe, who have giving a series of concerts through the Western States, will, we understand, visit this city sometime next week From notices received by our exchanges, we think this troupe stands second to none now traveling.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Michael Cook, of Rice county, is in town, and stopping at the International.

Selah Chamberlain, of railroad notoriety, is also at the International. It is intimated he has in contemplation the building of the Cedar Valley Railroad, from St. Paul to its junction with the Transit, at Owatonna.

RIVER ITEMS.—The arrivals yesterday were the McLellan and Wenona from La Crosse, Itasca from Dunleith, and Clara Hine and Antelope from Carver.

The down boat this morning is the light draught steamer Northern Belle, and the down boat this evening for Dunleith is the commodious steamer Milwaukee.

THE Supreme Court adjourned at noon yesterday, having finished the hearing of the entire and unusually heavy calendar for this term. The only case in which a decision was rendered was that of the State vs. Heenan, convicted of perjury at the Hennepin Court, who was granted a new trial. The Court will convene on the first Wednesday of September for the purpose of making decisions.

GREAT FALL OF GRAIN.—Throughout the State of Minnesota, there has never been a time in which there has been such a heavy fall of grain, as during the present week. It generally commences in the fairest portion of each man's grain field, and continues till the whole crop is flat on the ground. We doubt not there is enough lying on the ground this morning to glut the markets of Europe, could it be all conveyed there at once. Reapers are a great institution.

EVERYBODY were cleaning up their guns and otherwise making preparations yesterday and last evening for a chicken hunt this morning. Each one is trying to get the start of his neighbor, by being on the ground in advance and filling up his game bag before breakfast. As it is perfectly lawful to shoot chickens this morning, and will be during the rest of the season, it is thought that a few hours only will elapse before they will be found in great numbers on our streets—and that too at a price far below that prescribed by the statute previous to the first of August.

WE are glad to notice that our old friend Mr. Joseph McAlpin has returned from the wars to recruit his health, after having faithfully performed a soldier's duty. No sooner has he for a few days been revived by the air of this incomparable climate, than we hear of his opening a recruiting office at the Tower in Saint Anthony, where he so successfully gained his recruits for the Second Minnesota. We hope he may be as successful recruiting for Mayor Merriman's company as he was for Capt. Jno. B. Davis of the River Rangers,

A BLOODY SKIRMISH.—An affair occurred yesterday at the lower end of Third street, between two well known merchants doing business upon opposite sides. South side called over the North side to his headquarters, but no sooner had he reached his lines, than by a sudden movement he commenced a galling attack upon the North's rear. After his momentary panic was over, the North rapidly changed his front and charged upon his adversary, pouring in several well-directed rounds with his artillery, and punishing him most severely. The South then retired to his base, leaving the field, over which the blood ran in copious quantities, in the possession of his adversary.

NINE ORGANIZATIONS.—So far there have been nine persons commissioned as second lieutenants in the Sixth Regiment, representing, of course, nine different organizations of fifteen or more men each. In all we believe there are about 180 men sworn into the Regiment. The latest commissions issued are to L. C. Dayton of the Minnesota Grenadiers, William Grant of the Hennepin County Company, and R. N. McLaren of the Goodhue County Company.

POLICE COURT.—Two more boys were brought up for swimming in the day time—fined one dollar each and costs. Served you right, boys. Keep your clothes on and stay out of the water next time.

A quarrel among the hucksters at the Market House, about some chickens, was the cause of four of them being arrested for disorderly conduct, who were each fined one dollar and costs. Better be peaceable, and then the officers will let you alone.

An individual who gave in his name as McKenzie, was arrested for fast driving and disorderly conduct. He was fined five dollars and costs, which he paid.

Two young gents who gave their names as Smith and Jones, were on a bit of a spree night before last. They went into Muller's saloon and called for sausages, and because they couldn't get them, one of them engaged in the innocent diversion of throwing tumblers at the barkeeper. A muss was the consequence, but the policeman came along and took a hand in, arrested the two young men aforesaid, and Justice Gibbs fined them five dollars and costs. Altogether this was a pretty good day's work for the city, as she made twenty-one dollars clear money off the frailties of poor human nature.

LIFE INSURANCE.—We would call the attention of our readers, to the advertisement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Wisconsin. This prompt and reliable Company issued during the past year 1082 policies, and has on hand $134 for every $100 of liability. It is a mutual company, established on the cash basis. All the profits being divided among the insured. A continuation of present success will enable the Company to make as liberal dividends as any Company in the Union. ad-1w

WINSLOW'S LINE.

Rumors in New York of Fighting on the Peninsula.

Six thousand Sick and Wounded on James River.

Foreign Advices to the State Department Pacific.

Semi-Secesh Journals to Receive Attention.

NEW YORK, July 31.

The Post says the streets are filled with news of fighting on the Peninsula, but they are improbable.

The Government has taken four vessels to-day to go to the James river for the conveyance of sick and wounded soldiers, of whom there are known to be six thousand in that neighborhood. Other vessels would have been sent if they had been found suitable.

The State enlistment committee have returned from Washington. They had an interview with the President, Secretary of War and Gen. Halleck on the subject of facilitating enlistments in the old regiments. Their suggestions were received favorably and the matter was left in the hands of Gen. Halleck.

A Washington special to the Post says our ministers abroad show the tone of foreign Governments to be uniformly pacific.

Attention of the Government is called to the tone of one or two semi-secession journals in New York, on the the ground that they interfere with enlistments.

Col. Ulhman, of the 78th New York volunteers, is quite ill of typhoid fever in Gen. Pope's army.

From McClellan's Army.

Preparations for Active Duty.

An Attack Hourly Expected.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 29.

The mail boat arrived here this afternoon from Harrison's Landing. A move of some kind is hourly expected with the army.

Yesterday Gen. McClellan issued orders for every man to be ready for action at a moment's notice. It is thought that an attack by Gen. Jackson may be expected at any time, and it is not known whether he will attack Pope's or McClellan's army. It is the prevailing opinion in the army that an immediate movement is to be made. But few probably know where to find Gen. Jackson, as the rebels say he takes what men he likes, goes where he likes, and does what he chooses with them.

CAPTURE OF A REBEL MAIL.

Beauregard Resigned.

BRAGG AT VICKSBURG.

NASHVILLE, July 29.

A special dispatch to the Herald says a rebel mail from Chattanooga has been captured. The letters contained valuable information.

Beauregard has resigned, and gone to the Springs in Alabama.

Bragg is at Vicksburg with 20,000 men, but is scarce of horses. An artillery company from Georgia could not be supplied with guns or horses, and parties are out buying and stealing them wherever they can be found.

The rebel letters seized were from Tupelo, Mississippi, south of Corinth. The writers are anticipating the early re-occupation of Tennessee by rebel forces. The rebels are reported to have evacuated Lebannon with the intention to mass their troops for a sudden dash on Nashville.

Gen. Hatch Relieved of Command.

WASHINGTON, July 31.

Brigadier-General Hatch is in the army and will await orders from Major-General Pope.

Fort Warren Prisoners to Embark for the South.

BOSTON, July 30.

The military prisoners at Fort Warren will be taken south to-morrow to be exchanged for Federal officers and soldiers, by virtue of an agreement recently made. They will embark upon the steamer Ocean Queen for New Orleans, which will land them at some point on James river. Among the prisoners are Gens. Buckner, Tilghman and Mackall, and 60 or 70 other officers. The whole number of rank and file is about 200.

Rebel Deserters.

NEW YORK, July 31.

Herald's Harrison Landing correspondent, 29th, says, last evening the pickets of Averill's brigade while stationed on the Newmarket road, near St. Mary's Church, were surprised by two deserters from the enemy coming in. Both of the deserters are New Yorkers, and were of the 10th Verginia Cavalry. One was captured from our army during the recent battles, and in order to attain a chance to escape took the rebel oath and enlisted in the above named regiment.

They report the rebels at the fight at Malvern Hill were panic stricken, and retreated to Richmond, and they could not be rallied; hence the reason for not following our troops.

Cheering News from Maine.

BRISK VOLUNTEERING.

BANGOR, July 30.

Volunteers have been pouring in for the last three days at an unprecedented rate. The 18th regiment will be full this week probably. The companies from Penobscot county are being illled full to overflowing, and several extra companies are being offered. The State has raised her full quota, and many counties have furnished a surplus.

IMPORTANT FROM THE SOUTH.

Arrival at Mobile of Ten Iron-Clad Gunboats from England.

CHICAGO, July 31.

A special dispatch to the Times, dated Memphis, July 28th, says late advices from the South by rebel sources are important. Ten Iron-clad gunboats built in England, and fully equipped, have arrived off Mobile harbor; three more are on their way. These constitute a fleet ordered by the Southern Confederacy to be purchased in Europe. They mount from ten to thirty guns each, and said to be mailed with inch iron.

The blockade was run openly by dint of superior strength and weight of metal. Mobile is now considered open to the world, with support of her newly acquired power.

FROM THE YAZOO RIVER.

A Whole Fleet of Rebel Vessels---Some Iron-Plated---where the "Arkansas" came from.

VICKSBURG, July 29.

A gentleman recently arrived from the Yazoo country reports that the steamer Star of the West, captured off Galveston by the rebels, is up that river, armed with twenty-two guns. She is iron plated, to a considerable extent; also another boat has been plated in the style of the Sumter. She is constructed as a ram. They have also the tug Nashville, mounting one gun. The Star of the West and the Webb came up from New Orleans when that city was captured, bringing, among other rebel plunder, 108 guns. At Liverpool, 65 miles up the river, the rebels have an ingeniously constructed raft, which is a perfect lock against ascending boats. They also have a battery on the shore at that point.

In addition to the above named vessels there are about thirty river steamers up the Yazoo river.

War Meeting in Milwaukee.

Grand Demonstration.

MILWAUKEE, July 31.

The great war meeting to-day bids fair to be a grand affair. The streets are already a moving mass of human beings. Owen Lovejoy, of Illinois, has arrived. Wisconsin is completely aroused—the excitement intense—Yankee Doodle, Star spangled Banner, guns and bells are perfectly deafening.

LATER.

MILWAUKEE, July 31.

The war meeting this P. M. was a perfect success. So large was the assemblage, that the Court House Park was entirely too small, and the meeting adjourned to Mr. Kneeland's Grove, on Spring street. The crowd was addressed by several prominent men, among them were Gov. Salomon, Hon. J. R. Doolittle, and Hon. Owen Lovejoy. Wisconsin is aroused.

Cavalry Skirmish in Tennessee.

JACKSON, TENN., July 29.

The Federal cavalry attacked 80 rebels yesterday, near Brownsville, and captured 40 prisoners. The rebels afterwards reinforced, and recaptured 29 men, 14 horses. Federal loss four killed, and six wounded; rebel loss about the same.

—The Richmond Enquirer of the 11th contains the following: "Two negroes were hung at Kingston, N. C., for recruiting for Burnside."

—The annual convention of American denists will be held this year at Trenton Falls, New York, commencing on Tuesday, August 5th. In these gatherings the dentists aim to combine business with pleasure and the attendance will no doubt be large.

—The insecurity of property in Kentucky is shown by the reception at one of the banks in New York city on Monday, of no less than $1,500,000 in specie, sent from the banking institutions in Kentucky for safe keeping. Thousands of peaceable families retire at night, feeling that before dawn every inmate of the house may be slaughtered by the prowling guerrilla bands.

—General Smith, who is in pursuit of Morgan, the guerrilla, is a nephew of Cassius M. Clay, and is named G. Clay Smith, and resides in Covington, Kentucky.

—The Illinois Democratic State central committee have called a State convention on Wednesday, September 10th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for State Treasurer, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and for a member of Congress for the State at large.

—The New York Herald brings out Secretary Seward as a candidate for U. S. Senator in Mr. King's place, saying that "some such man as Seward is needed there now as leader in our present crisis, to mark out for the Senate a course to pursue, and to answer, as he alone can, the infernals of that body." Mr. Seward must be more puzzled this time than he was a few days ago, when the Herald put him out of the Cabinet.

—An army correspondent says that King Whisky has been driven from his throne in the army of the Potomac. The red-headed barrels have but a poor existence now, for, except in cases of extreme necessity, liquor is not to be allowed the men. The men received one gill a day, and the officers drew all they wished from their brigade commissaries. Finally, the bad effects of that kind of "lightning" were made manifest, and the surgeons recommended its abandonment as part of the rations. General McClellan, in consequence, issued an order forbidding the use of "whisky," except in cases of "extreme fatigue, or apparent necessity." Even in such cases as these, the division General is to hear the application and give the order. In lieu of the whisky, the men are allowed rations of dried apples and pickles.

—Hon. Isaac N. Arnold, in a speech before the Board of Trade meeting on Thursday evening in Chicago, said that just before Congress adjourned, he had visited the President, and informed him of his intention to return to that people who had placed him in the Presidential chair. He had said to him, "In the olden time you mauled rails, now the time has come to maul the rebels." "Tell the people of Illinois that I'll do it," said Old Abe.

—The Charleston Courier says that seven families in Galveston, Texas, were discovered to have the stars and stripes concealed in their houses. Thereupon those guilty of that offense were immediately taken out and hung! Is it any wonder what has become of the Unionists of the South?

—Africa, (says Dr. Livingstone in a recent letter), is a continent of the future. It is impossible to recite its capabilities. It is pre-eminently a cotton country, for here the plant is perennial, and requires little of that heart-breaking toil necessary where it is an exotic: no frosts endanger the crops, and the best qualities yield largely. Slave-hunting is the greatest drawback known—it depopulates the country so that labor becomes dead in proportion to its prevalence. The Portugese possessions on the Zambezi are valueless, because all the labor is departed to Bourbon, the subjects of His Most Frightful Majesty of Lisbon having performed the part of the boy of the goose with the Golden egg.

Bloodhounds Used to Catch our Soldiers.

A letter in the Bloomington Pantagraph, from near Memphis, says that the writer joined a party sent out by General Grant to the scene where a railway train had been attacked, the cars run off the track, and the men driven from the cars and then hunted down by bloodhounds. A Mr. Cash, who lived near the scene of disaster, had a pack of six celebrated hounds—in fact, pets, as Mr. Cash afterwards told the writer. These were let loose, and put on the scent of the Illinoisans, and right well they worked. Twenty-five or thirty were hunted down; some who had run eight miles in the woods and brush. One man they followed fifteen miles, but for some reason did not touch him, and finding he could make friends with the dogs, if not their masters, he finally escaped. Another was not so lucky. He was caught in a cornfield, and before the human cavalry could come to capture him, he was torn considerably.

SHERBURNE COUNTY CONVENTION AND WAR MEETING.

FIFTY DOLLARS BOUNTY FOR RECRUITS.

To the Editor of the St. Paul Press.

At a Convention holden in this county on last Saturday, (to choose a delegate to the Congressional Convention,) the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Our Government has at length inaugurated a "war policy on war principles," announcing its purpose to use all legitimate means, and all persons offering themselves to suppress the rebellion, therefore

Resolved, That we heartily respond to its late call for men; and in the discharge of this duty we recommend and respectfully request our County Commissioners to pay fifty dollars to each volunteer first enlisting in the several regiments to be raised in this State, until the quota for each from this county is furnished.

Resolved, That the members of this Convention, (in case the county commissioners fail to adopt the policy indicated in the first resolution,) pledge ourselves to contribute to a fund for this object, to the extent of our several means.

Voted, that the doings of this Convention be furnished to the PRESS and Pioneer and Democrat of St. Paul for publication.

W. UPTON, Jr., Clerk.

It is proper to state here that the County Treasurer and others present agreed to cash any orders given for the bounty proposed; and a committee was chosen to confer with the Commissioners on the business.

Pioneer and Democrat please copy.

BIG LAKE, Sherburne Co., Minn., July 28, 1862.

FROM SUPERIOR CITY.

SUPERIOR CITY, July 25, 1862.

To the Editor of the St. Paul Press:

The schooner Ford arrived on the 23d from Milwaukee, with a full cargo, consisting of over three hundred barrels of flour! besides corn, corn meal, oats, etc., and a number of passengers. Several of them startad to-day in the regular stage for St. Paul, several more expect to leave on the next stage. The Ford will take down a cargo of lumber for Ontonagoo. The schooner Naptune sailed to-day for Eagle River, with a full cargo of lumber, etc. The steamer Planet or Water Witch from Cleveland and Detroit is due on the 28th. We have a number of visitors from Chicago, Cincinnatti, New York and St. Louis, who have reached here via steamboats, sailing vessels, and stages from St. Paul, and one traveler came in a canoe from the Mississippi, via Sandy Lake.

IMPORTANT TO OWNERS OF ADDITION LOTS IN SUPERIOR.

The following is an extract from an act to confer on Circuit Courts power to vacate towns or parts of towns in certain cases, which was passed by the Wisconsin Legislature, in March, 1862, viz:

"It is intended hereby to confer discretionary power on the circuit courts to vacate any city, town or village, or addition thereto, or parts thereof, whether the proprietors thereof are residents or non-residents, in all cases where the proprietor or proprietors have neglected or shall neglect to pay the taxes assessed and levied on the same, and the county in which the same is situated has acquired, or shall hereafter acquire, an interest therein, by virtue of tax deeds, tax certificates or otherwise, and the court to which such application shall be made shall hear proofs of the facts and circumstances." R.

ALBANY BRIDGE.—The U. S. Circuit Court, has dismissed the bill and dissolved the injunction in the suit against the Albany bridge company—Justice Nelson delivering the opinion. There is now says the Argus, no legal obstacle to the construction of the bridge.

SAM HOUSTON AGAIN DEAD.—The Boston Post says: "A gentleman who arrived in this city on Saturday, from Texas, states that Gen. Sam Houston is positively dead, and that before he died he requested the old flag to be brought, that he might die as he had lived under the stars and stripes."

HOW THE PEOPLE ARE RESPONDING.

THE GREAT UNION MEETING IN ST. LOUIS.

ST. LOUIS, July 27.—A large and enthusiastic meeting was held at the court house last evening to encourage enlistments. The rotunda of the court house was completely filled, and a large assemblage gathered in the street in front of the building. Stirring speeches were made by Charles D. Drake, Hon. F. P. Blair, T. S. Nelson and others.

Resolutions were passed that the preservation of the Union is to St. Louis an interest greater than all other interests, we will contribute the last man and last dollar, if necessary, to reinforce the armies; that loyalty should be intolerant to treason, and that no description of disloyalty to the government of the United States should be tolerated by the military authorities; that we demand security from home traitors and rebel spies, by their removal from our midst.

THE NEED OF THE HOUR.—Extract from a private letter by one who participated in the late battles before Richmond:

"Say what they (rebels) will, and boast as they may, they are feeling and staggering under our blows. God grant that the people of the North may come at once to our aid, and that the precious time now ripe for the overthrow may not be lost. Weeks, days, years, hours, now are of untold value to our cause. An immediate forward movement, with adequate force, would crush them never to rise again. If it is not made, where shall this army find fortitude and patience in its long suffering, its hope deferred, its heart and home sickness? Oh! for Omnipotent faith in right, in God, to lead us through! Surely the nation can commit no greater sin than to refuse now to put forth its enormous strength to overwhelm this monster of rebellion, and surely it will be accursed if it does not."

NEW YORK SLAVES IN THE REVOLUTION.—The Legislature enacted, in 1781, that any owner of a slave who should have him mustered into either of the two regiments for the defense of the frontier, should received a grant of 500 acres of land. And further, that any such slaves, serving for three years or until regularly discharged, "shall immediately, after such service or discharge, be and he is hereby declared to be a freeman of this State. —Laws of the State, Greenleaf's Edition.

FROM THE SOUTH.

REBEL OUTRAGES AT HENDERSON, KY.

Steamer Fired into above Vicksburg.

CAIRO, July 26.—The Gen. Anderson arrived this evening and reports all quiet at Henderson. She left 150 men there brought from Evansville.

The Silver Moon, this morning, brought up a large number of furloughed officers and men from Curtis' army; also, thirty-two secesh prisoners of Hindman's and Price's forces, captured by Curtis. The officers corroborate my report yesterday that Price had not crossed the Mississippi, and that Hindman had no considerable force.

A rebel officer captured just before they left, stated that he had left Price a few days previously, who was on the other side of the river moving South.

The Wilson has just arrived from Vicksburg, which place she left on Friday last. She started with four empty barges in tow, and when at Princeton Point, ninety-five miles above Vicksburg, she was fired upon from a rebel masked battery of six 12-pounders, and by a large force of riflemen. She received in all forty-eight shots, eighteen of which were from artillery, and to effect her own escape was obliged to cut loose from the barges.

Fortunately no one on board was injured, though some narrow escapes were had. The steward lay sick in his room, through which a dozen balls passed under and over him, smashing the furniture and completely riddling articles of clothing hanging about the room. One shell burst directly under the boiler; the boat in fact is completely riddled with rifle and cannon shots, and it is a most singular coincidence that no one on board was injured. When about sixty miles above the Point, the Wilson met the DeSoto bound down, and warned her of the danger; she, however, kept on, and fears are entertained that she has been captured.

CAIRO, July 26.—The Woodford has just arrived and brings news from Henderson, Kentucky, to Thursday evening. As Colonel Covin, of the 7th Indiana, and half a dozen others, were returning to Henderson from camp, seventeen miles out, and when near eight miles from town, were fired at by four rebel bushwhackers, who ran as soon as they had fired: the Colonel was wounded in the hand by a buck shot; Lieut. Broden was instantly killed by a rifle shot in the breast, and a doctor was severely wounded in the shoulder.

An order has been issued at Columbus, Kentucky, forbidding women from going South over the railroad from that place.

The commander of the rebel gunboat Arkansas is N. J. Brown, formerly Lieutenant commanding the United States frigate Niagara.

Oppression in Texas by Slave Propagandists.

As long ago as last December Anthony M. Ignowitty of San Antonio, on behalf of himself and of thousands of other loyal citizens of Texas, chiefly of German origin, presented a memorial to Congress praying for the military occupation of Texas with a view to the protection of loyal citizens.

This memorial sets forth that he and thousands of others had settled in Texas with the assurance and expectation that it would be made a Free State, but that they had been oppressed by the propagators of negro Slavery, who had finally precipitated the State into the Rebellion. The memorial urges the adoption of a plan for the speedy reconquest of Texas, the deliverance of its loyal citizens from despotic bondage, and the conversion of the State into a Free State.

In conjuction with an expedition it recommends the adoption of a wise and equitable measure of negro emancipation, indemnifying loyal men, and confiscating all property of rebels. And sets forth in glowing terms the importance on grounds both of political economy and morals of this project. This memorial was referred to the Military Committee, and it was subsequently laid before Gen. McClellan, who then being General-in-Chief of the armies, disapproved of it. While it was pending, there was talk of intrusting the enterprise to Gen. Fremont, and since that General's retirement from the command in Virginia, the plan has been revived, and Dr. Ignowitty is pressing it upon the Government, with what success is not know. Friends of Gen. Fremont, however, assert confidently that he will have the command.

Important Foreign News.

CAPE RACE, July 26.—The Edinburg from Liverpool passed here Saturday evening. The Times publishes a letter from Mr. Spencer, of Liverpool, eulogistic of the power of the confederates in maintaing and organizing armies, and says there is but one source of such strength, viz: Sense of right. The Times again pitches in to the American tariff, and hints at prospective injury to England, but says it will be nothing to what America herself will suffer, and asks what have the people of England done that they are made the object of this short sighted hostility.

It was reported that 125,000 bales of cotten were shipped in one day from Bombay in consequence of a rise of one penny in Liverpool.

Invasion of Missouri by the Guerrillas

IRISHMEN, AFTER VOTING FOR YEARS, CLAIMING BRITISH PROTECTION.

Loyal Irishmen Denounce the Protection Seekers.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—Information has been received that a large force of guerrillas from Arkansas have entered the State in Howell and Ozark counties. They are under Coleman, McBride and Hawthorne, and Union men from these counties, as well as from Texas, Wright, and parts of Pulaski, are fleeing towards Lebanon, Springfield and Rolla for protection.

Arrests for disloyalty are numerous, including several Irishmen who have voted at elections for years, and to avoid enrollment have taken out British protection papers.

Adolphus Paul was arrested for refusing to act as assistant enrolling officer, on the ground that he did not approve of the object.

Isadore Morrison, a pretty female brought from Cairo recently on the charge of acting as a spy, attempted to commit suicide last night by swallowing an overdose of laudanum, but failed to succeed.

The loyal Irishmen, in mass meeting last night, denounced the protection seekers, and resolved to give them twenty-four hours to leave town. The result is that to-day very few applications have been made at the Consul's office for papers. A crowd was on hand, however, to punish those who did. A painter named Hogant a veritable Englishman, was the only individual insulted.

The Merrimac No 2.

The success achieved by the rebel ironclad ram Arkansas in running through our entire Mississippi fleet admonishes the government to be on its guard against the Merrimac No. 2, now nearly completed at Richmond. There is no doubt at all as to the existence and formidable character of this vessel. She was seen by several of our surgeons in Richmond, and by Col. Charles of the Tammany regiment, who is now in this city wounded. The new vessel is described as being a formidable ram. If the Navy Department has provided anything of the kind for the James River it is not known to the public, and while this state of things continues much uneasiness will be felt. It would be awkward if some fine morning an array of formidable batteries should suddenly make their appearance on the banks of the James River below the position of our army, and at the same time the new ram attack our wooden fleet above. Neither the Galena nor the Monitor are rams, and would therefore scarcely be able to impede the progress of the Merrimac No. 2, if she is thickly ironclad, as reported. If there are to be any more Merrimac raids, let us be at least prepared for them.—New York World.

DIVIDENDS ON CAPITAL LIMITED BY ITS CHARTER TO SEVEN PER CENT. PER ANNUM—THE ENTIRE PROFITS GO TO THE POLICY HOLDERS.

This Society was organized in the year 1859, with a cash capital of $100,000 deposited irrevocably with the Insurance Department of the State of New York, in United States bonds, on which it allows but seven per cent. per annum to the stockholders, and the entire profits of the business is shared by the policy holders. The nett profits in two years amounts to $120,000, which shows an unparalled success in the history of Life Insurance. Its operations are managed by a Board of Directors composed of the ablest business men of the country, and its business is conducted entirely on the cash plan. Dividends to the policy holders will be made every five years, and no Company in the country offers equal advantages to its dealers.

HOME

INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Extract from Third Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York. WM. BARNES, Superintendent.

There are now ninety-five joint stock fire insurance companies incorporated by the State of New York, engaged in the transaction of business; of these companies, fourteen only received premiums during the last year, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars; four only received premiums above the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and the premium income of one only exceeded three hundred thousand dollars. The premium receipts of this Company, the HOME, with a capital of $1,000,000, were $829,961.33. The premium income of thirty of the smaller companies was $851,267.58 only, with capitals, however, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,900,060.

The state of things should be improved; the premium income of the mass of our fire insurance companies is by far too small for their capitals, and inadequate to the proper support of a separate and independent corporation. The experience of the HOME, PHOENIX, (of Brooklyn) and some other companies, has demonstrated that, with proper skill, tact and sagacity, business can be increased and managed to an indefinite extent, with entire safety, and even additional security to the company. We have now the machinery and organization in working order for nearly one hundred joint stock fire insurance companies. In the course of a few years their business can be safely doubled, and even quadrupled, without doubling or quadrupling the yearly expenses. Any considerable extension of business must of course be mainly effected through the instrumentality of reliable, safe, and well managed agencies. The premium income of the HOME amounts to nearly one-eighth part that of the ninety-five companies combined, so that eight corporations like the HOME could conduct the entire business of all these companies. If each company transacted the same amount of business as the HOME the aggregate premium income would reach the enormous amount of over seventy-six millions of dollars per year. Our companies are not too numerous for the great future of this country, if managed on the progressive scale demanded by the spirit of the American people.

The annual statement of this our foremost local fire and inland company, made up to the first of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, President, A. F. Wilmarth, Vice President, and John Metcey, Secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of over half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our State, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the first of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43; and, moreover, it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,431.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company; bond and mortgages $940,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,710,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $220,636. Any one not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution, must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $105,715,148, taking $829,961 premium, and paid losses $235,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of ten per cent. was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund, the company shows a "nett surplus" of $190,644 clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

MILLS,

SITUATED ON PHALON'S CREEK, WHERE THE STILLWATER ROAD CROSSES.

This Mill is just completed, and is in good running order. Our machinery embraces all the latest improvements, and was got up in the East, without regard to expense. It has two run of Burrs, which will be kept running night and day, so that farmers coming from a distance can be accommodated without much delay.

The need of a first class Mill of this kind has long been felt by the citizens of St. Paul and vicinity. We have secured the services of James Craigie, who has made milling the business of his life, and in whom we can place entire confidence.

All kinds of grain will be weighed when brought to the Mill, and also when taken away, if desired. We feel confident in saying to the public that we can make as good Flour and as great a yield to the bushel as any Mill in Minnesota, and respectfully solicit a fair trial.

Also a new Mill for grinding corn in the ear.

☞All work done at this Mill is warranted.

LA CROSSE AND ST. PAUL

PACKET COMPANY.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

During the summer of 1862, till the close of navigation, the LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company, having completely equipped their Line and made large additions to their business facilities, will offer to shippers and passengers on the river greater inducements and conveniences, and QUICKER TIME, than was ever offered by any company on the river.

All the boats on the Chippewa, Minnesota, St. Croix and the upper Mississippi rivers, and the different lines of stages north of LaCrosse, will, the coming season run to connect with the Davidson boats and the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company will run a

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE.

The former will number two first class boats—the nicest and fastest on the river. They will be the McCLELLAN and NORTHERN BELLE.—The first will be the Lightning Line, making the run from La Crosse to St. Paul in EIGHTEEN HOURS, and returning will leave here in the morning, and arrive at La Crosse in twelve hours time to connect with the evening train by which our passengers will make close connection and reach Milwaukee in time for cars, or boats on the Lake in TWENTY HOURS FROM ST. PAUL, and reach Chicago next morning, by Minnesota Junction or Milwaukee, in just TWENTY-FOUR HOURS FROM LEAVING ST. PAUL, and in time for close

Gen. Nelson and the Niggers.

From the Nashville Union, 25th.

We learn on good authority that Gen. Nelson has ordered five hundred negroes, belonging to rebel masters to be sent to him, for the purpose of putting them to work for the benefit of the army. We are not informed as to the work they will be required to do, but suppose they will be made to aid in re-building the bridges destroyed by the rebels, and to construct fortifications. It might be a good plan to fortify Murfreesboro'. General Nelson has done exactly right in this case, and we hope his example will be extensively followed by our officers. Why don't our authorities here find work for a few hundred? They might be usefully employed, for ourselves, while at the same time they were kept from aiding the Confederate Government. We hope the matter will be attended to promptly. General Nelson has given strict orders, we learn, that no loyal man's slaves shall be taken, and the same rule would of course be observed here. This is the policy. Weaken the enemy, while you strengthen yourself, and make his resources serve your own necessities.

WANTED.

A situation, as managing clerk or assistant in a law office in this city, by a young lawyer who has acted in that capacity in New York. The very best references given, if required. Address, jy29-1w "LAWYER," this office.

The Duty of To-Day.

From the New York Independent.

The South sacrifices everything that conflicts with her central idea. The North must do the same. The South is not ashamed of Slavery. The North must not be ashamed of Liberty.

Under such circumstances, we hold:

1. That it was unwise to call for 300,000 volunteers. The day has gone by for that. The Administration should have drafted half a million men for instant, service, and half a million more as reserves. It will waste months of time and spend millions of money, and encourage growing discontent, and expend precious popular enthusiasm—and then, be obliged to draft. It was not prudent? The people might be discontented? To this is replied: It was, and is necessary. The people must consent to that or dismemberment! This call for volunteers is one more step in that just-behind-the-time policy which has marked the war. Volunteering would have sufficed early in the war, had the Administration been wise according to the exigency. They did not want the men that wanted to go. Now the men do not want to go. Drafting now will succeed. Wait four months, and that will have become four-fold more difficult than now! Always behind!

2. The Government can no longer avoid choosing the issue that has been made up and thrust upon it—Freedom or Slavery. The time has come. So long as there was a chance of solving the question as a civil question, it was wise to leave it, as far as possible, to the States concerned, and to employ the moral influences which changes men's minds. But slavery has become a military question. One year has changed all things. A remiss and vacillating policy of the Administration; the committing of the armies of the United States for a whole year to a man who thought he was at West Point giving a four years' course of instruction to 500,000 men, infinitely at leisure, has changed the relations and possibilities of things. It has taken slavery out of the realm of discussion, and placed it in the arena of war. It must be settled by force. There is the country, and slavery on it like a deadly cancer. Diet and regimen will not cure it. The knife may. Choose! Shall the patient die, or shall the cancer be cut out? The question before the American people to-day is Knife? or Death? Liberty and Slavery cannot live any longer together. Choose between them!

The crisis is reached.

3. Let no one fear that a bold policy of Military Emancipation will distract the country. It would have exactly the opposite effect. There is now no current of public feeling. Administrative hesitation and a policy so fine and intricate as to be beyond popular comprehension, have checked popular enthusiasm. The Administration lies like a dam across the river, and the nation has flowed back into a vast current-less, slack water pond This is a condition of public mind which breeds discontent and division. These stagnant waters breed insects, vapors and diseases. They are beginning to rise and show themselves already. But once make a channel, remove the dam, give course and current to waters, and they will flow irresistable as the Mississippi. There may be at first some discent, some resistance, some hesitation of men who bring old traditions to new affairs; but, like eddies on the Mississippi, they will but wrinkle the edges of a stream that moves on with omnipotence.

Nothing will unite this people like a bold annunciation of a moral principle Let the American flag be lifted up by Mr. Lincoln, as was the brazen serpent, that every man who looking upon it on this continent, should be free, and a tide of joy and irresistable enthusiasm would sweep away every obstacle. Let Mr. Lincoln decree it. The nation will do it.

Col. Owens' Report.

Gov. Ramsey has sent, in behalf of the State, several parties to look after the welfare of our brave volunteers. But in our opinion none of the reports of those parties amounted to much, and probably the State could have saved the expense with a good deal of profit, if we except the report of our old editorial friend John P. Owens, Esq., who gives more light than all the rest put together. We hope he may be employed on behalf of the State to continue in the same service. He is just the man for the place.—Gleaner Register.

GREAT COMPETITION.—A great competition now exists between the different Railroad lines going East from Milwaukee. To such an extent has this competition been carried, that the large majority of the travel from the Northwest now goes to Milwaukee to purchase their Eastern tickets, as by so doing they can save from $3 to $5 in fare. Passengers even going no further than Chicago, save money by purchasing to Milwaukee and then purchasing to Chicago. Notwithstanding this competition, the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad and Steamship Line, known as the Grand Haven Route, sell tickets at $7.00 less than any other route, no matter what their fare may be. Now is the time to travel, and Milwaukee the place to buy your Eastern tickets at low rates. jy29-tf

JULY—PIMPLES AND SKIN DISEASES are the result of impure blood. The blood becomes thick and clogged. The skin is not able to cast off the impurities so important to health. How many young men and women we see with their faces covered with pimples and blotches, and are endeavoring to remove them by the use of soaps and washes of various kinds. This is very dangerous and should never be practised by persons desirous of good health. Mothers who have children afflicted with sores and eruptions, should never dry them up by external applications, for in this way they will drive in the humors and produce ill health for the child during its whole life time. There is no mother that likes to see her children afflicted with feeble health.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are prepared expressly for the cure of eruptions of the skin, such as Pimples, Blotches &c. They cleanse the blood of all impurities, producing a beautiful, clear and healthy skin, so much admired by all people of taste and refinement.

Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO, IN CAMP, NEAR FLORENCE, ALA., June 21, 1862.

There are 14,000 officers and soldiers absent from their duty with the various Divisions of this army. Some of them have gone off without any authority; others with the permission of officers not authorized to grant it. In general, sickness is given as the cause of absence, but in very many cases the cause has notoriously ceased to exist, and men remain away, drawing the same pay as their comrades who are faithfully performing their duty. To correct this abuse it is ordered—

1. All officers and soldiers who are absent without authority from those Headquarters, during the period for which has not transpired, will, on or before the 10th of July, proximo, join their companies or regiments wherever they may be, if ignorant of their locality, they will report to the commanding officer at Louisville or Nashville, by whom they will be directed to their regiments, or put on such light duty as they may be able to perform, if they are not entirely fit for active service; and these will be promptly reported to their regimental commanders by the officer so assigning them.

The cases of those who fail to join as above required, will be disposed of as follows:

2. If any absent officer or soldier, in consequence of sickness or wounds, is absolutely unable to report for duty as above required, he will forward by mail to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville, Tennessee" a Certificate of Disability, according to the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY.

I declare on oath that I have carefully examined.....of Captain.....Company, Colonel.....Regiment of.....Volunteers, now Volunteers at this place and under treatment by me, and find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier for the following reasons: [Here state all the facts known concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the injury occurred or disease originated; the duty or situation of the officer or soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted; and whatever facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.]

Place: (Signed).

Date: Surgeon [or Physician.]

Sworn and subscribed before

This certificate must be subscribed and sworn to by a Surgeon or private Physician in good standing, and known as such by the magistrate or other officer by whom the oath is administered; and on it a discharge will be ordered from these Headquarters, or the case otherwise disposed of according to the circumstances.

3. The death of any officer or soldier which has occurred since the 1st of January last, while he was absent from his regiment or company, and which has been reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital in which the death occurred, or by the friends of the deceased if not in Hospital, will be immediately reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital, or by the affidavit of friends, to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville," setting forth the date of decease and other material circumstances.

4. All absent officers and soldiers who do not join their companies and regiments, or are not satisfactorily accounted for as above by the 10th of July next, will be reported on their muster-roll as deserters, dating from the time they may have been absent without authority.

By Act of Congress every deserter forfeits all claim on the Government for pay and allowances, besides being liable to arrest and trial by Court Martial. Any person who apprehends and returns a deserter to the commanding officer of a military post is entitled to five dollars.

THE MORNING'S NEWS.

The alarming report, which came yesterday, of ten iron-clad rebel steamers having arrived at Mobile, is wholly discredited.

Seven vessels of Porter's mortar fleet have arrived safely in Hampton Roads. They will be at work up James river.

There is activity in naval movements. Two vessels at the Brooklyn Yard were unexpectedly ordered to sail.

Rousing war meetings have been held in Milwaukee and Cincinnati. The most energetic action on the part of the Government was urged, and men and means pledged to prosecute the war to final success.

ARRIVAL AT ST. LOUIS OF THE MINNESOTA THIRD.

A special dispatch of the 29th from St. Louis to the Chicago Times says the Minnesota Third Regiment, five hundred strong, which had been released on their parole after the Murfreesboro surrender, had arrived at Benton Barracks.

RELEASED MINNESOTA SOLDIERS.

In the official list of soldiers released on parole from Richmond, July 22, we find the following names of Minnesotians:

Corp. H. C. Bradley, Company E, Minnesota First; Murdock Patterson, do, do.; H. E. Scott, do. do.

CHIPPEWA TREATY.

The Washington special despatches of the 25th to the New York Tribune of the 26th, contain the following:

The Commissioner of the Indian Bureau, Wm. P. Dole, designs leaving here in the course of a few days for the purpose of negotiating a treaty with the Chippewas of Northern Minnesota, and extinguishing their title to the lands in that vicinity, or so many of them as may be needed. These lands are situated on both sides of the Red River, which the Government desires to get into its possession.

"OUR ERRING SOUTHERN BRETHREN."

The following from the Murfreesboro correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial illustrates the beauty of the above phrase in use by rebel sympathisers among us. The returning released prisoner was one taken at the Murfreesboro surrender with our Minnesota Third.

Yesterday, our company was on picket on the McMinnville pike. A member of the 7th Pennsylvania cavalry came in, who had been taken prisoner. He stated that he was the last of the prisoners to come in, and told us of a most cold blooded murder. He was in company with another paroled soldier, and when fifteen miles from this place, heard a shot fired. As his companion was about two hundred yards in advance of him at the time, he hurried forward only to find his friend dead, and the four murderers in the shape of citizens standing over his body. Shall such an outrage go unpunished?

DEATHS IN THE FOURTH REGIMENT.

Chaplain Fisk, of the Fourth Regiment, writes under date of July 22d that the health of the regiment was decidedly improving. Some deaths had occurred since his quarterly report, which we published a few days ago. On the 16th of July corporal Samuel Rolfofe Co. K died at the general hospital near Corinth; Daniel Estbrook of Co. C, at Keokuk, Iowa, of typhoid fever, on the 15th; J. J. Jones in camp on the 23d of lung difficulty. Sylvanus Wacfield died from an injury received upon the boat on which he was going north. He left Hamburg on the 15th of May, and died at Mount Vernon hospital on the 17th.

METEOROLOGICAL NOTES FOR JULY, 1862.

The month has proved a most propitious one for health and for harvest. The yield of small fruits and early vegetables was very abundant; and during the past week, the grain harvest has commenced, with the promise of a yield never surpassed in this or any other State—regard being had to population.

The most marked feature of the month, was the fall of rain during the night of the 6th and morning of the 7th. In the report for June, the deficiency of rain for the year was noticed as being more than nine inches, and that we must expect to have this failure compensated. This expectation has been quite realized. On the night above named, and in less than six hours, more than six inches of water was deposited. This amount is partly conjectural, for the rain-guage failed to fulfil its office; the water fell upon the small surface it presents with such force, that it was dashed over the side. Testimony, however, from several independent sources, furnished by the filling of pails and tubs, makes it clear, that between six and seven inches of water was deposited. Add to this the other rains of the month, and the usual average is reached.

The thermometer gave results as follows:

Maximum of the month	(4th and 5th)..	88°
Minimum " "	.....(17th)	56°
Highest daily mean	..(4th and 5th)	80°
Lowest "	(18th and 24th)	63°
Greatest daily range	.....(21st)	17°
Least "	.....(18th)	7°
Range of the month	.....	32°
Mean temperature of the month	.....	70.43°

Rain fell on ten days and there were sprinklings on two others, to the amount in all of 10.15 inches.

Fair weather prevailed to an amount equaling twenty days. The winds were variable.

JOHN A. DIX, Major General.

HEADQUARTERS, DEP'T OF THE GULF, NEW ORLEANS, La., June 25, 1862.

MY DEAR GENERAL: When I read your decisive and patriotic order, as secretary of the treasury, "to shoot on the spot" whomsoever should attempt to haul down the American flag, my heart bounded with joy. It was the first bold stroke in favor of the Union under the past Administration.

It gives me, therefore, redoubled pleasure to testify my admiration by sending you the identical flag of the revenue cutter Mc Clellan which was the subject of that order, together with the Confederate flag which was hoisted by traitor hands in its place.

David Ritchie, a young scotch sailor on board that boat, remaining true to his adopted country, when so many of her sons proved recreant, went on board the Mc Clellan when she was being burned by the Confederates and brought off the flag.

His affidavit, which accompanies this, will give you the details of the facts.

I doubt not the Secretary of the Treasury will permit you to retain the flags, which could not be in better hands.

Believe me, General, most truly yours,

BENJ. F. BUTLER.

To Major General John A. Dix.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, July 30, 1862.

MY DEAR GENERAL: I am highly gratified by the just appreciation of the fitness of things displayed by General Butler, in sending to you the flags of the McClellan, forever associated with your memorable order. No one has so good a right to them as yourself. My consent to your retaining them is most cordially given.

Yours most truly, S. P. CHASE.

Secretary of the Treasury.

MATTERS AT WASHINGTON.

First Fighting Expected in Pope's Department.

WASHINGTON, July 28.—Great activity has prevailed in military circles here today. Gen. Pope has been preparing to take the field. Baggage has been sent forward and everything is ready. His officers make no secret of their expectation that the conflicts with the enemy must begin within a very few days after they get with the army. All eyes are still turned to the Shandoah Valley, and the general conviction is that the first decisive break of the present quiet in Virginia must come there within a few days.

Gen. Mitchell has left Washington on a short visit to his son-in-law in New York, while awaiting an assignment to a command. Nothing came of Norton's charges. In fact, they were never preferred in regular military form.

Advices from various parts of the country, indicate that recruiting progresses more slowly than desirable, and that a general resort to drafting will be necessary. If not, the call must be speedily filled.

Fears are still expressed that McClellan's army may be blockaded in its present position. Private advices confirm the late news that the rebels are planting strong batteries on the bluffs below Harrison's Landing, where they cannot be dislodged by the gunboats. Should they do this it will be as impossible to reduce them by gunboats as it was for Farragut's fleet to take Vicksburg. It is the general belief, however, that Halleck will inaugurate offensive movements shortly, and that among them will be some plan for getting McClellan's army out of its present situation.

Robert J. Walker will, to-morrow, issue a second letter favoring Lincoln's emancipation policy in the border States, and showing that if the latter had earlier adopted emancipation they would have been one hundred per cent. better off.

The New Army Corps.

WASHINGTON, July 29.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 84.—The designation in General Orders No. 25, from the headquarters of the army of the Potomac, of the forces commanded by Brig. Gens. Porter and Franklin as the 5th and 6th army corps, is confirmed by a general order, which also declares that the forces under Maj. Gen. Dix, will constitute the 7th, those undar Maj. Gen. Wool the 8th, and those under Maj. Gen. Burnside, belonging to the department of North Carolina, the 9th army corps, respectively.

[Authorised.] E. D. TOWNSEND, A. A. Gen.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Daniel Norton, of Winona, paid a brief visit to this county in the early part of this week. He is very nearly recovered from his late illness.—Mankato Record, 30th.

FROM TENNESSEE.

HUMBOLDT NOT CAPTURED.

ATTEMPT TO DESTROY A BRIDGE

HEROISM AND LOYALTY OF A SLAVE.

A Traitor Hanged.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, July 29.—I have just arrived from Columbus. Two trains have arrived—one on the Mobile and Ohio railroad, at seven o'clock. The accounts previously received of rebel raids were greatly exaggerated. From official information I derive the following account:

Two hundred of Jackson's cavalry came to the house of a wealthy man named Beadle, residing near Humboldt, early yesterday morning, and as he was about starting to pilot them to the bridge inside of our lines, he discovered a party of six or seven Federal scouts riding towards them; concealing himself behind a fence, Beadle directed the rebels to an ambush from whence, upon the arrival of our men, they could pounce upon and capture them. This plan, however, was frustrated by a young slave of Beadle, who, at the risk of his own life, started across a cornfield and warned the Federals of their peril, who at once turned back, hotly pursued by the rebels.

Only three of our men succeeded in reaching Humboldt safely. One received a ball in the breast, with which he rode six miles, dying soon after he reached the town. The other two were probably captured, as they have not been seen. A portion of the rebels then proceeded to the bridge, six miles from Humboldt, driving off the small force stationed there, and set fire to it. Our men being reinforced by a small party, drove the rebels back to the river, where they in time were reinforced, and the federals again driven back, and it was not until our troops were reinforced from Humboldt that the rebels were put to tight. Our men succeeded in extinguishing the fire after about sixty feet of the bridge had been burned. Col. Bissell's engineer regiment was immediately set at work, and at 10 o'clock this morning the bridge was repaired. In the meantime large scouting parties were sent out in every direction. Beadle and four others supposed to have been connected with the rebels were arrested in the afternoon, and eight others during the night. Beadle was at once tried and sentenced to be hung this afternoon. He had taken the oath of allegiance, which was found upon his person. His house was also burned, as well as the houses of the four others taken with him. On their retreat the rebels burned a bridge on the Mississippi Central road, eight miles from Memphis.

Active preparations were made at Humboldt last night to meet the rebels, an attack being expected, and General Logan threatened to set fire to the town upon the first alarm. Heavy forces will now guard the Mobile and Ohio road all the way to Corinth, and no more trouble is anticipated.

The following is a copy of a dispatch received by General Quimby, at Columbus, at five o'clock this evening.

TRENTON, TENN., July 29.—To Gen. Quimby:—The man who guided the rebels to the bridge that was burned, was hung to-day. He had taken the oath. The houses of four others who aided have been burned to the ground.

(Signed) G. M DODGE,
Brigadier General.

Emerson Etheredge delivered a rousing speech yesterday, to a large gathering of citizens and soldiers at Trenton.

Gen. Halleck.

From the New York Tribune.

It is quite needless to say the author of Order No. 3 was not our choice for Commander of the armies of the United States. No man who ever could have issued that Order comprehends sufficiently the nature and vital elements of the great struggle which now convulses our country to be placed by us in any such position. Nor does he seem fully to realize the value of time in warfare. Had he ordered Commodore Foote with his gunboats to go up to Nashville the day after the surrender of Fort Donelson, he would have at least deprived the rebels of millions' worth of provisions and munitions that a week's most extraordinary delay on our part enables them to run off. At Corinth, he wasted more men in his slow and toilsome approaches than he would have lost by storming Beauregard's position within three weeks after taking command in person. The great art of making the most of an advantage is one in which our new commander has yet to prove his proficiency.

But Gen. Halleck is a thoroughly educated soldier; he has large natural capacity; he has brains enough to detect and profit by his own errors. Above all, he is the actual and duly appointed commander of all our armies, subject only to the President of the United States.

We insist, therefore, that, having to bear the responsibilities of his high position, he shall enjoy the fullest measure of its powers. If the President shall at any time become dissatisfied with his management, let Gen. Halleck be superseded at once; but, so long as he may be continued in his present command, let there be no interference with him whatever in the discharge of his duties, subject to the laws of the land. If anything should go wrong, the country will blame him; let it not be truly said that the failure resulted from interference. It is for the President to determine, subject to the Constitution and laws, the ends to which his efforts shall be directed; but the use of military means should be left to the discretion of the Commanding General. The immediate problem before him—how to employ two widely separated and non-communicating armies so as to baffle and vanquish an enemy who holds a strong position nearly between them, and can operate with nearly his whole force against either—is intrinsically difficult; let it never be truly said that it was complicated by the meddlesome interposition of civilians. Every one to his trade!

GENERAL JAMES H. LANE.—General James H. Lane arrived in this city yesterday morning, and expected to leave this morning for Kansas. General Lane has ample powers from the War Department to raise and equip, and to use an army; and that he will do it in the least possible time and with convincing, crushing effect upon the rebels, his past history gives the best possible assurance. The public will watch his movements with deep interest.—Chicago Tribune.

ARRANGMENT FOR THE COLLECTION OF THE INTERNAL TAX.

HOW THE STAMP CURRENCY WILL BE ISSUED.

From the New York Times.

WASHINGTON, July 26.

THE TAX BILL.

Gov. Ramsey, of Minnesota, and others, had an interview with Secretary Chase this morning, on the subject of the Tax bill. It was decided that for Minnesota and other small States there shall be but one Assessor for the State, and a Collector for each District. In the larger States, excepting probably in cities, each District will have an Assessor and Collector. All the applications are now being considered, and the appointments will be announced before the close of next month.

The Commissioner of Internal Ravenue, Mr Boutwell, with the approval of the Secretary of the Tseasury, in order that the Act of Congress of the 17th of July inst. may be carried into effect more speedily, to-day submitted the following propositions for the consideration of the Postmaster-General, who has considered and adopted them, namely:

First—That the Post-office Department furnish the Treasury Department with such postage stamps as may be necessary for currency; that Department paying to the Post-office Department the net cost thereof.

Second—That the arrangement shall cease at the option of either party, or when the Treasury Department is prepared to issue its own stamps as currency.

Third—The stamps to be prepared that they can be distinguished easily from the ordinary postage-stamps.

Fourth—The stamps to be redeemed by the Treasury Department, as contemplated by the act of July 17, 1862.

Fifth—Such stamps to be received by the Post-Office Department for postage, and to be at all times exchangeable for ordinary postage stamps.

Arrangements will be immediately made to carry the above propositions into effect.

Proposals will be received by the Treasury Department until the 6th of August, for furnishing revenue stamps, under the Internal Revenue act. On and after the 30th of July, designs for the stamp may be seen at the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

THE STAMP CURRENCY.

The Postmaster General and Secretary of the Treasury have had almost daily consultations on the stamp currency. It seemed difficult to decide the question of jurisdiction. To-day, however, a compromise has been effected between the two Departments, viz.: The Post-Office Department is to order and prepare the stamps, and deliver them to the Treasury Department for distribution. They are to be of all the denominations, from one to thirty cents. The engraving is being done in New York, and Mr. Blair expects to have some ready for use on or about the 10th prox.

The New Orders of the War Department---Enthusiasm Among the Soldiers.

Correspondence of the New York Times.

OLD POINT, July 24.—The new executive orders respecting using the property of rebels for military purposes, and also employing contrabands in our army, is hailed with delight among all loyal classes here, civil and military. People pull a long breath, and feel as if we had started afresh, this time on the right road. It is true the order comes rather late, and after we could have prevented the loss of thousands of brave lives and millions of treasure, could we have sooner managed to get the country out of its coils of red tape; but still let bygones be bygones. Let us be happy that matters, bad as they are, are no worse; and like honest Sancho Panza, bid God bless the giver, and not look the gift horse too closely in the mouth.

There are people in the North who, no doubt, look upon this movement as a sort of semi-abolition one; who think it "unconstitutional" to save the bones and sinews of our Northern white men, by employing the property of Southern rebels in digging our trenches, &c., while our soldiers rest for fighting, and who would make many a Northern fool believe that the enemy would lay down their arms in disgust if one word was mentioned in their hearing about the negro. I wish to heaven that one of these people had been at my side this morning, to hear what I did from the lips of poor bedridden fellows, with mutilated limbs, halting, limping, suffering, many dying, on board the S. R. Spaulding. He would have been convinced that, whatever political writers may choose to think of the necessity of having our men murdered by thousands while protecting rebel property, or dying like rotten sheep in swamps, to save the sleek negroes of armed traitors, soldiers who have to undergo those hardships have no sympathies that way.

And let the public be assured that this official order came not one moment too soon, and that the army is going to permit no tampering with it now that it has been promulgated. A cloud—a short time since no larger than the prophet's hand—had made its appearance, and was rapidly swelling into portentous dimensions. That which had hitherto passed from lip to lip, in timid murmurs, would soon burst into a roar of thunder so loud that the deafest among us would have been bound to hear. The army will die to a man defending our country, but will not fight for protecting traitors. A broad and distinct line has to be drawn—and that immediately—between those who are for the Union and those who are against it; the former to be encouraged, the latter to be overcome by any and every means known to civilized warfare, and all side issues, be it slavery or anything else, must and will be thrown overboard.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO ST. PAUL.

WINSLOW'S LINE.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The story of ten Iron Clad Rebel Vessels at Mobile Untrue.

Commissioners Appointed to Compel the Return to the Army of Absentees.

WASHINGTON, August 1.

The story of the arrival of ten iron clad gunboats in Mobile is disbelieved in official quarters. It is presumed that the Government is not ignorant of the rebel movements in Europe.

Capt. Porter, of the mortar fleet, has left Washington for a brief visit North to recruit for his health previous to resuming his command.

Simon Draper, of Now York, has been appointed a commissioner with general powers to enforce the order issued yesterday by Secretary Stanton, directing army officers and men to report for duty. Mr Draper will go to New England tonight to begin the performance of his duty. It is understood that this appointment was entirely unsolicited by him.

The Navy Department has positive knowledge that but one war vessel purchased by the rebels in Europe is trying to escape from England, and the federal gunboat Tuscarora is watching her.

Internal Tax Commissioner for Washington Territory.

Arrangements for War Meeting in Washington.

The President to Preside.

WASHINGTON, July 31.

Major H. A. Goldsborough, appointed Collector for Washington Territory, will sail from New York to-morrow, with commissions for the collectors and assessors on the Pacific coast.

Preliminary arrangements were made to-night by a number of gentlemen, with Senator Pomeroy as chairman, for a public meeting to encourage recruiting for the army. President Lincoln will be invited to preside. The prospect is that a large sum will be subscribed to facilitate this patriotic movement.

A great many applications are made to the War Department by individuals for authority to raise regiments in the loyal States. None of these applications are granted, because the entire control of the new regiments has been given to the Governors until they are ready for service.

Porter's Mortar Fleet at Fort Monroe.

Gen. Pope Advanced Beyond Warrenton.

PHILADELPHIA, August 1.

A letter from Fort Monroe, dated June 30, to the Enquirer, says seven of Com. Porter's fleet arrived, and came to anchor in the roads this morning. Twelve of the fleet in all left the Southwest pass on the 17th of July. Of these, seven have reached Fort Monroe, and the others are hourly expected.

The officers and crews of all the vessels think they are to reduce Fort Darling, and intimate a perfect willingness to undertake the job.

Fierce times may be looked for in that direction shortly.

A special dispatch from Washington, says the correspondent of the Enquirer reached here to-night from Warrington, with the intelligence that Major General Pope's army had advanced beyond Warrenton. The men were in the best of spirits, and an enthusiastic feeling prevailed at prospect of future business.

Unexpected Orders to Put Vessels in Commission.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.

Yesterday orders were somewhat unexpectedly received at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, to put two United States vessels in commission at once, accordingly the brig Brainbridge and steamer Vixen were commissioned.

It is said that the New Ironsides iron clad frigate ram, almost finished at Philadelphia, is to be commissioned and dispatched to sea with sealed orders to-morrow, all her officers have been ordered to report at once.

Henceforth no unnaturalized alien is to be employed in any navy yard in the Union—all persons seeking employment must before they are accepted, produce certificates of naturalization; this order is aimed at a large class of foreigners who like to get Government money, but threaten to demand British or other protection, if compulsory military service is demanded of them. If carried out, it will result in the discharge of some 6,000 men at different stations.

Immense War Meeting at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, August 1.

War meeting last night—immense affair—business generally suspended after four o'clock—speaking from three stands. Speaking by Governor Morton, General Wallace, Lieutenant Governor Fisk, and many others.

There were several bands of music, display of fire-works, bells, and the Fire Department enlivened the occasion.

Resolutions we e adopted pledging all to the Government in the more vigorous prosecution of the war, recommending the confiscation of the property belonging to traitors everywhere, expressing unalterable opposition to compromise with traitors, and hostility to foreign intervention.

From Pope's Command.

WASHINGTON, August 1.

A letter from Virginia says that Gen. Hatch's cavalry brigade, belonging to Pope's command, is actively scouting the whole country from the enemy's lines to Little Washington, but is not meeting with any large forces. He is, however, making it too hot for spies and guerrillas, many of whom are frequently captured and consigned to the charge of the provost marshal.

WISCONSIN AROUSED!

Great War Meeting in Milwaukee.

Strong Resolutions Adopted.

MILWAUKEE, August 1.

The State mass meeting yesterday was a splendid affair, and successful in every point of view. Enthusiasm, harmony, and perfect order prevailed throughout.

The beautiful grove kindly tendered to the State, for the purpose, by Mr. Kneeland, was one moving mass of human beings.

The procession formed on Main street at 12 M., consisting of civic societies, headed by His Excellency Gov. Salomon, State officers, and Judges of the Supreme Court, Central War Committee, Authorities of the City, Fire Department, Chamber of Commerce, Young Men's Association, Turners Association, Employees of different Railroad Companies, and vast concourse of citizens, numerous banners beautifully inscribed with mottoes, were carried by different delegations.

The procession moved up Spring street to the grounds, where three stands were erected for speakers. Gov. Salomon presided at stand No. 1, and opened with a handsome and patriotic speech, and said, "whatever doubts I may have had about raising of three thousand men, since I have seen you here with your faces aglow with the honest purposes of coming forward as you have to assist in the noble work of filling up the ranks of the army, my doubts have vanished." After enumerating our former victories and the territory won, he says, "but now we come to a stop—for a moment there is a cessation of victories—they out number us—they come up in array, and our hitherto victorious armies are in danger of being overwhelmed. Shall this be the case. [Cries of no.] Shall we stand here like dastards, and hear that cry for 300,000 more men. We want 4,000 men to fill the thinned ranks of the regiments in the field. When I cast my eye over this vast assembly, I think there ought to be 5,000 men here ready to answer the call of the President, and 5,000 more at home ready to follow." [Applause.] He was followed by Lovejoy, of Illinois, and Howard, of Michigan, in stirring and patriotic appeals.

At stand No. 2, H. L. Palmer presided. Senator Doolittle and George B. Smith spoke at this stand. At No. 3, the young men's stand, F. A. Pitkin, President of the Coung Men's Association, presided.

Speeches were made by Matt. H. Carpenter and several home speakers.

The resolutions of the meeting, which were unanimously adopted, are substantially as follows:

Resolved, That the men who are engaged in armed resistance to the Government stand in the double attitude of rebels and of armies in open war; that as rebels they are criminals and traitors, and justly subject to all the penalties and punishments which follow the crime of treason under the Constitution and the laws. As enemies in open war, we may justly pursue, weaken, disable and crush their power, by all means which are permitted by the laws of war, and it should be the unalterable purpose of the Government to crush out the rebellion utterly, and to destroy forever the power of the leaders to do us harm.

Resolved, That the country is in a crisis demanding the exercise of every prerogative of the Government and every exertion and sacrifice on the part of our people to maintain its integrity and just authority.

Resolved, That in our opinion it is the duty of the National Administration to prosecute the war with the utmost vigor and to employ every kind and description of persons and property in the country to accomplish the speedy end of this rebellion.

Resolved, That in our opinion the Government ought to prepare for a war of indefinite duration, a war to be prosecuted one year or for ten generations, as shall be necessary to accomplish the end in view.

Resolved, That with nations prodigiality is often economy, and we recommend that at least 1,000,000 of men be drafted at once from the militia of the North, one half for immediate service and the other half for instruction, to be held as reserve.

Resolved, That we entertain the most unbounded confidence in the President of the United States, and assure him that there is no possibility of his getting in advance of the wishes and sentiments of the people in employing any means whatever to restore the authority of the Government.

Resolved, That in our opinion the greatest obstacle that has yet existed to the accomplishment of our purpose, has been that the Administration has underrated the magnitude of this rebellion, and the unlimited means and forces which the people are able and desirous of offering to the Government to be employed in vindicating the constitution and the laws.

Resolved, That we deem it our right and duty to assure the Administration that there is no division of sentiment among the people on this subject—all the money and all the men in the North are at the disposal of the Government—and we beseech the Administration to entertain no further fear that any of its drafts will be protested.

Resolved, That we duly appreciate and cannot too highly commend the judicious and impartial manner in which our Governor is performing the duties of his office, disregarding all claims of politicians and importunities of friends, and fairly and sagaciously consulting only the public good; we pledge him our continued support and confidence.

Resolved, That we are proud of the bearing and conduct of our volunteers in the field, and can safely commit to their hands the honor of our young State—called from the industrial pursuits of life they have instantly taken on the discipline and exhibited the fortitude and coolness of veterans.

Illinois Regiments Getting Ready.

Encouraging News About Volunteering.

WASHINGTON, July 31.

Colonel Loomis, Adjutant General of Illinois, is here to obtain arms for the ten regiments called for from that State. He says the ranks of the nine will be full by the time the arms reach them.

Reports from Indiana, Vermont, Massachusetts and New Jersey are particularly encouraging. Other States are doing better than was anticipated.

Several of the heads of Departments have been in favor of drafting ever since the call for 300,000 men was issued. Others, however, are known to be strongly opposed to this step. The probabilities would seem to be that no system of drafting by the general Government will be adopted, but every Governor who asks for it will receive the authority to draft.

—The late Iowa Republican Convention, among other resolutions, passed the following:

Resolved, That as the citizens of a loyal State whose patriotism both at home and upon foreign battle fields, has spoken for itself, we earnestly appeal to the incumbents of the legislative and executive departments of the Government to use every legitimate means in their possession to crush the rebellion, and if, as a last measure for the preservation of the republic, it shall become necessary to blot out the institution of slavery from the soil of every State, we shall say amen! letting the consequences fall upon the wicked authors of the war, and leaving the final issue with God!

—The Louisville Journal, a paper which would be likely to know, says there has been many an instance in which a rebel guerrilla has aided in the murder of loyal troops stationed for the protection of his own property.

—The Union League at Balimore now numbers over fifteen thousand members. It is of immense service to the military, and is a most effective agency in keeping the secessionists in check.

—The Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce last week passed a resolution that every member of that body should take the oath of allegiance to the United States, and that any one who refused should be expelled.

—Col. Norton, of the 21st Ohio, has not yet been found. The order for his arrest was founded in part upon his unsoldierly conduct in concocting and publishing false accusations against General Mitchell, instead of bringing his charges, if any he had, to the notice of his superiors.

—There are fair lands and broad acres in Maryland and in the occupied portions of Virginia, tenanted chiefly by persons of African descent, which notoriously belong to leading rebels who fall within the classes whose property it is made the duty of the President, by the confiscation act, to free the slaves and institute proceedings against. Some surprise is manifested that no steps have been taken as yet to carry out the law in this respect.

Who has Prolonged the War!

The pro-slavery press have been very industriously trying to propagate the belief that the war was been prolonged by the course, in and out of Congress, of the radicals. The Albany Evening Journal has been quoted by the Pioneer in support of this absurd proposition. We are willing to offset against the Journal the following from the Nashville Union, which cannot be accused of undue sympathy for Sumner and other radicals who incur so severe condemnation from the Journal:

The rebellion apart from its innate zeal and earnestness which is the real secret of its power, has gained strength not from the violent and vehement opposition of its adversaries, but from the timid, hesitating and vacillating policy which too many of them have pursued. Nothing is more natural than for a body of violent men to mistake the leniency and indulgence of their opponents for cowardice, and this belief will excite them to new outrages. It is not "radical plans, threats and actions," that have strengthened and advanced the rebellion, but the unwise substitution by Federal authorities of mild and persuasive measures towards prominent rebels, instead of the rigid exercise of military power.

The Government declared war, and war means force and compulsion, but our officers unhappily forgot their true business, and have been endeavoring most unsuccessfully to win the rebels over by allowing them commercial privileges, by suffering them to trade, by protecting their slave property, by hiring hands for them, and purchasing provisions for them at big prices. Instead of destroying them, the exercise of their former privileges as citizens, we have treated them exactly as though they had forfeited no right. Worse than all, we have actually allowed them to place themselves on an equal footing with loyal citizens, and claim the protection of the Constitution! The consequences of a policy so weak and meaningless have necessarily been most disastrous. We speak of these things, not seated in an office five hundred or a thousand miles from the scene of action, but living in the region of the rebellion, a slaveholder ourself, and from long acquaintance and association with rebels, claiming a knowledge of their feelings and disposition—a good deal more accurate than those editors who know nothing personally of the insurrectionists. We have heard rebels assert frequently that the Federal Government was afraid to adopt severe measures, and that it confessed its weakness by its conduct. We have known men who had served as Captains and Colonels in the rebel service go to Federal camps to reclaim their fugitive slaves, obtain their negroes, and, on returning home, denounce the very officer who restored his negro as a hypocrite and an Abolitionist. We never have known or heard of one instance where a rebel abated his opposition to the Government by having his slaves restored or his property protected by Federal officers—and it would be very strange if such a thing were to occur.

THE LARGEST CITY.—A very erroneous idea is indulged in by many people in relation to the largest city in the known world, many very confidently asserting that London, or, as it is more frequently termed, the great Metropolis, is far superior, both in size and number of inhabitants. But such is not the case. Jeddo, the capital of Japan is, without exception, the largest and most populous city in the world.

It contains the vast numeer of $1,500,000 dwellings, and 5,000,000 human beings. Many of the streets are nineteen japaneserls in length, which are equivalent to twenty-two English miles.

THE CENSUS.

Increase of Population in Ten Years.

Mr. Kennedy, the Superintendent of the Census, makes the following preliminary report of the growth of the United States, based upon the census returns of 1860:

COMPARISONS.

Thus far in our history no State has declined in population. Vermont has remained nearly stationary, and is saved from a positive loss of inhabitants by only one third of one per cent. New Hampshire, likewise, has gained but slowly, her increasement being only 8,097, or two and one-half per cent. on that of 1850. Maine has made the satisfactory increase of 45,110, or 7.74 per cent. The old agricultural States may be said to be filled up, so far as regards resources. The conditions of their increase undergo a change upon the general occupation and allotment of their areas. Manufactures and commerce then come in to supply the means of subsistence to an excess of inhabitants beyond what the ordinary cultivation of the soil can endure.

This point in the progress of population has been reached, and, perhaps, passed, in most if not all of the New England States. But while statistical science may demonstrate within narrow limits the number of persons who may extract a subsistence from each square mile of arable land, it cannot compute, with any reasonable approach to certainty, the additional population resident on the same soil, which may obtain its living by the thousand branches of artificial industry, which the demands of society and civilization have created. This is forcibly illustrated by the returns relative to the three other New England States—Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut: which contain 13,780 square miles. The following table shows their population in 1800 and 1860:

Massachusetts	994,514	1,311,066
Connecticut	370,792	460,147
Rhode Island	147,545	174,620

Their density (or number of inhabitants to the square mile) is as follows:

Massachusetts	127.49	157.83
Connecticut	79.31	98.42
Rhode Island	102.25	123.33

The aggregate territorial extent of Maine, New Hamshire and Vermont is 48,336 square miles; the number of their inhabitants 1,269,450, or 26.26 to the square mile. The stated point of density was passed by the three States named in the table more than fifty years ago, and yet go on increasing in population with a rapidity as great as at any former period of their history.

SLAVE STATES.

South Carolina has gained, during the decade, 35,201 inhabitants of all conditions, equal to 5 27 per cent. Of this increase 16,825 are whites and the remainder free colored and slaves. It is, perhaps, a little remarkable, that the relative increase of the free colored class of this State was more considerable than that of any other. As their number, 9,914, is so small as to excite neither apprehension nor jealously among the white race, the increase is probably due both to manumission and natural causes. This State has made slower progress during the last term than any other in the South, having advanced only from 27 38 to 28 42 inhabitants to the square mile.

Tennessee, it will be observed, has made but the moderate gain of 10 63 per cent for all classes. Of this aggregate increase, the whites have gained 9 24 per cent, upon 1850, the free colored 13 67, and slaves 14 15.

The next lowest in the rate of increase in the list of Southern States is Virginia, whose gain upon her aggregate population in 1850 was 174,657, equal to 12 29 per cent., the slaves 18,357, or 3 88 per cent.

STATISTICS OF RAPID INCREASE.

These are examples of the states wherein the population has advanced with slowest progress the past ten years. Turning now to the States which have made the most rapid advance, we find that New York has increased from 3,097,-235 to 3,880,735, exhibiting an augmentation of 783,344 inhabitants, being at the rate of 25 29 per cent. The free colored population has fallen off 64 since 1850, a diminution to be accounted for probably by the operation of the fugitive slave law, which induced many colored persons to migrate further North.

The gain of Pennsylvania has been, in round numbers 595,000. In that State the free colored have increased about 3,000. The greater mildness of the climate, and a milder type of the prejudices connected with this class of population, the result of benevolent influence and its proximity to the slaveholding States, may account for the fact that this race increases in Pennsylvania, while undergoing a diminution in the State next adjoining on the North.

Minnesota was chiefly unsettled territory at the date of the seventh census: its large present population, as shown by the returns, is, therefore, nearly clear gain.

The vast region of Texas ten years since was comparatively a wilderness. It has now a population of over 600,000, and the rate of its increase is giving at 184 per cent.

Illinois presents the most wonderful example of great, continuous and healthful increase. In 1839. Illinois contained 157,445 inhabitants; in 1840, 475,183; in 1850, 851,470; in 1860, 1,711,951. The gain during the last decade was, therefore, 860,481, or 101 06 per cent. So large a population—more than doubling itself in ten years, by a regular course of settlement and natural increase—is without a parallel. The condition to which Illinois has attained, under the progress of the last thirty years, is a monument to the blessings of industry, enterprise, peace, and free institutions.

The growth of Indiana in population, though less extraordinary than that of her neighboring State, has been most satisfactory. her gain during the decade having been 262,000, or more than thirty-six per cent., upon her number in 1850.

Michigan, Wisconsin and Iowa have participated to the full extent in the surprising development of the Northwest. The remarkable healthfulness of the climate of that region seems to more than compensate for its rigors, and the fertility of the new soil leads men eagerly to contend with and overcome the harshness of the elements. The energies thus called into action have, in a few years, made the States of the Northwest the granary of Europe, and that section of our Union which, within the recollection of living men, was a vast wilderness, is now the chief source of supply in seasons of scarcity for the suffering millions of another continent

DISPROPORTION BETWEEN NORTH AND SOUTH.

Looking curiously over the returns, it appears that the fifteen slaveholding States contain 12,240,000 inhabitants, of whom 3,039,000 are whites, 251,000 free colored persons and 3,950,000 are slaves. The actual gain of the whole population in those States from 1850 to 1860 was 2,627,-000, equal to 27.33 per cent. The slaves advanced in numbers 749,931, or 23.43 per cent. This does not include the slaves of the District of Columbia, who decreased 502 in the course of ten years. The nineteen free States and seven Territories, together with the Federal District, contained, including 27,749 Indians, of whom 18,930,579 were white and 237,218 free colored.

The increase of both classes was 5,598,-603, or 41.21 per cent. No more satisfactory indication of the advancing prosperity of the country could be desired than this general and remarkable progress in population. North and South we find instances of unprecedented gains, as in the case of Illinois, just adverted to. In the southwest the great State of Missouri has increased by the number of 500,000 inhabitants, which is within a fraction of 74 per cent. It is due to candor to state that the marked disproportion between the rate of gain in the North and South respectively, is manifestly to some extent caused by the larger number of immigrants who settle in the former section, on account of congeniality wherewith respectable employment is invested, and the freedom of labor.

Owing, among other causes, to the extremes of climate in the more Northern States, and in other States to expulsive enactmens of the Legislature, the free colored show a decrease of numbers during the past ten years, according to the census, in the following ten States: Arkansas, Florida, Indiana, Maine, Mississippi, New Hampshire, New York, Oregon, Texas and Vermont.

The free colored have gained eleven thousand in Ohio, three thousand in North Carolina, and nine thousand in Maryland. It the latter State the prejudices against this class appear to exist only to a limited extent, and constituting as it does 12 1-4 per cent. of the whole population, it forms an important element in the free labor of Maryland.

It is important to observe the growing disparity between the pace at which the white and colored races are advancing in this country. While the whites, from 1850 to 1860, gained 38 per cent., the slaves and free colored increased somewhat less than 22 per cent.; and the total increase of the free colored and slaves for seventy years was but 485 against 757 per cent. for the whites.

Our New Iron-Clads.

From the New York Post.

It is expected that on Friday next a new iron-clad steam frigate will be commenced at the Delamater Iron Works, in this city. This vessel is to differ in several important particulars from the other armored vessels now building. She will be a frigate instead of a gunboat, and will, consequently, be larger and more formidable. Captain Ericsson, who will superintend the work, entertains the hope of making her the fastest vessel of the new iron-clad fleet. The preliminary work has dready commenced. The house in which she is to be built is nearly finished, and is three hundred feet long.

The iron war-vessels in course of construction at Greenpoint are pushed ahead rapidly. One of them has her machinery on board, and will be ready for sailors and marines, it is thought, before the end of August. These two ships have been some weeks on the stocks, and as many hands as can be conveniently employed on them, are working incessantly.

The new Ironsides, the iron frigate just built at Philadelphia, is now ready for sea. The Navy Department has detailed her officers, and the Government is selecting her crew and marines. She will be put formally in commission in a few days.

The Roanoke, at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, is also going on favorably, and will be ready for transfer to New York on the 1st of August. Her final preparations may be complete before September.

Orders have been sent from the Navy Department to the Charlestown Navy Yard for the construction of an iron-clad battery, which, from its peculiar model, is probably designed for harbor defence. It will be 240 feet long, 53 beam over all, and eleven and one half feet deep. It is required to draw twelve feet, and to register 1,300 tons. The upper deck will be flush, like that of the Monitor, neither bulwark or railing rising above it. The dock will consist of six-inch oak plank, with one and a half inches of iron plating outside of that. The iron mail on the outside of the hull will be five inches thick. Workmen are setting the blocks for this formidable craft, which will be built at once in the upper ship-house.

Our New Navy—Foreign Intervention.

The New York Times publishes a list of the navy of the United States, from which it appears that we can now comnt 292 vessels of war, in place of 88 one year ago, and that 55 wooden and 23 iron-clad ships have been actually built during the year, or are now in course of construction. While the exhibit is remarkable in the number of keels added to our ocean defenses in this brief period, it is even more remarkable in the elements of strength and efficiency, and the moral standing achieved for us among the powers of the earth. It is not too much to say that the little Monitor, in her first conflict in Hampton Roads, shot down all the navies in the world. The wooden walls of old England, alike with the iron ribs of France, were pierced and submerged by the two guns of her impenetrable turret. Shivering as we had been for months in terror of British frigates and foreign intervention, we suddenly found ourself almost on a level with the strongest naval and maritime power of Europe, at the moderate cost of $275,-000, and it became a question of only a few months' time, and a fair degree of enterprise, to put the bughear of foreign intervention beyond the fears of the most timid on this sile of the Atlantic, and beyond the reach of the most selfish and inimical on the other.

That point is now fairly reached. Whether England and France, or either of them, really desire to interfere in our domestic quarrel, is by no means clear. So far as the outward professions of their Governments may be trusted there is no such purpose, no such wish. The daily blackguarding we receive from the London Times harms nobody, and we lose something of proper dignity in being offended by it. Yet the danger to which we should be exposed, unless able to cope with any foreign power on the ocean, to the extent at least of protecting our own harbors, and maintaining the blockade of the Southern coast, would be of the most appalling character. We could not be sure of national existence an hour with the navy and treasury of England ready to be thrown into the scale on the side of the rebellion. But the danger, if it ever really existed, exists no longer. Nine new Monitors, built upon an improved plan, some of them double-turreted, and all of them sea-going, are ready to be launched, and will be cleaving the waters by the 15th of September. Foreign intervention and invasion cannot overtake us before then, and will not afterwards. If we have strength enough and wisdom enough to put down the rebellion, we may use it all to that end, for we shall have no French or English cannon pointing their hated muzzles at us "in the interests of peace."

Let us not forget to award to the Navy Department the well-earned meed of praise for its beneficient achievements. These works are marvellous in our eyes; they are noble and enduring, and, at the present moment, priceless to the nation. To Secretary Welles, and his sagacious and indefatigable Assistant, Capt. G. V. Fox, the country owes its gratitude. If we could forget George D. Morgan and his ill-gotten $70,000, we should say that no department of the Government had ever been managed more efficiently, more to the advantage and glory of the country, than that of the Navy during the past twelve months.—Chicago Tribune.

Winter Wheat.

Over in Iowa there is a neighborhood of farmers long noted for being successful in raising winter wheat, so much so that they have attracted attention from abroad—the widest attention this year. Their secrect is found to be simple, nothing more than sowing their seed tolerably early in the fall, with a sufficient quantity of oats to cover the ground and protect the wheat through the winter and spring. Some recommend that the oats be first sowed and harrowed in, and that the wheat be afterwards put in with a drill. The oats wither at the first frost, fall and lie upon the ground, forming a light mattrass, but sufficient to prevent the killing effects of freezing and winds. The method cannot fail, as will be seen at once. The fact that the chinch bug and other casualties have made this country almost a failure for spring wheat, the bug being a late crop as well as spring wheat, the farmers must see to proper remedies, even to the total abandoning of spring wheat. If winter wheat can be made a successful crop by the Iowa method, of which we entertain no doubt, then the chinch bugs must fail, for they are a later crop. Let every farmer make the experiment, which promises in all reason to be a certain success. Let arrangements be made immediately for procuring winter wheat seed. Let five, ten or twenty farmers join and send one of their number to buy seed.—Grant County Herald.

This Society was organized in the year 1859, with a cash capital of $150,000 deposited irrevocably with the Insurance Department of the State of New York, in United States bonds, on which it allows but seven per cent. per annum to the stockholders, and the entire profits of the business is shared by the policy holders. The nett profits in two years amounts to $123,000, which shows an unparalleled success in the history of Life Insurance. Its operations are managed by a Board of Directors composed of the the ablest business men of the country, and its business is conducted entirely on the cash plan. Dividends to the policy holders will be made every five years, and no Company in the country offers equal advantages to its dealers.

HOME

INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Extract from Third Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York. WM. BARNES, Superintendent.

There are now ninety-five joint stock fire insurance companies incorporated by the State of New York, engaged in the transaction of business; of these companies, fourteen only received premiums during the last year, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars; four only received premiums above the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and the premium income of one only exceeded three hundred thousand dollars. The premium receipts of this Company, the HOME, with a capital of $1,000,000, were $820,963.33. The premium income of thirty of the smaller companies was $851,556.85 only, with capitals, however, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,900,000.

The state of things should be improved; the premium income of the mass of our fire insurance companies is by far too small for their capitals, and inadequate to the proper support of a separate and independent corporation. The experience of the HOME, PHOENIX, (of Brooklyn) and some other companies, has demonstrated that, with proper skill, tact and sagacity, business can be increased and managed to an indefinite extent, with entire safety, and even additional security to the company. We have now the machinery and organization in working order for nearly one hundred joint stock fire insurance companies. In the course of a few years their business can be safely doubled, and even quadrupled, without doubling or quadrupling the yearly expenses. Any considerable expansion of business must of course be mainly effected through the instrumentality of reliable, safe, and well managed agencies. The premium income of the HOME amounts to nearly one-eighth part that of the ninety-five companies combined, so that eight corporations like the HOME could conduct the entire business of all these companies. If each company transacted the same amount of business as the HOME the aggregate premium income would reach the enormous amount of over seventy-eight millions of dollars per year. Our companies are not too numerous for the great future of this country, if managed on the progressive scale demanded by the spirit of the American people.

The annual statement of this our foremost local fire and inland company, made up to the first of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, President, A. F. Wilmarth, Vice President, and John McGee, Secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of over half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our State, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the first of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43; and, moreover, it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company; bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,656. Any one not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution, must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148, taking $829,993 premium, and paid losses $335,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of ten per cent. was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund, the company shows a "nett surplus" of $160,844 clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

MILLS,

SITUATED ON PHALON'S CREEK, WHERE THE STILLWATER ROAD CROSSES.

This Mill is just completed, and is in good running order. Our machinery embraces all the latest improvements, and was got up in the East, without regard to expense. It has two run of Burrs, which will be kept running night and day, so that farmers coming from a distance can be accommodated without much delay.

The need of a first class Mill of this kind has long been felt by the citizens of St. Paul and vicinity. We have secured the services of James Craigie, who has made milling the business of his life, and in whom we can place entire confidence.

All kinds of grain will be weighed when brought to the Mill, and also when taken away, if desired. We feel confident in saying to the public that we can make as good Flour and as great a yield to the bushel as any Mill in Minnesota, and respectfully solicit a fair trial.

Also a new Mill for grinding corn in the ear.

LA CROSSE AND ST. PAUL

PACKET COMPANY.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

During the summer of 1862, till the close of navigation, the LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company, having completely equipped their Line and made large additions to their business facilities, will offer to shippers and passengers on the river greater inducements and conveniences, and QUICKER TIME, than was ever offered by any company on the river.

All the boats on the Chippewa, Minnesota, St. Croix and the upper Mississippi rivers, and the different lines of stages north of LaCrosse, will, the coming season run to connect with the Davidson boats and the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company will run a

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE.

The former will number two first class boats—the nicest and fastest on the river. They will be the McCLELLAN and NORTHERN BELLE.—The first will be the Lightning Line, making the run from La Crosse to St. Paul in EIGHTEEN HOURS, and returning will leave here in the morning, and arrive at La Crosse in twelve hours time to connect with the evening train, by which our passengers will make close connection and reach Milwaukee in time for cars, or boats on the Lake—in TWENTY HOURS FROM ST. PAUL, and reach Chicago next morning, by Minnesota Junction or Milwaukee, in just TWENTY-FOUR HOURS FROM LEAVING ST. PAUL, and in time for close connection East! This will be the tw

THE CITY.

DR. STEELE will be the city physician and health officer for the present month.

MAYOR PRINCE will shut down his mill after to-night, and allow his hands to go into the harvest field.

THE "Wizard Oil man" is in Hudson, Wisconsin, astonishing the people with his wonderful performances.

REV. MR. NEILL is expected home by the first of September, when he will remove his family to Philadelphia.

PERRY D. MARTIN, a prominent citizen of Wabashaw county, and a member of the Third regiment, has arrived home in a poor state of health.

A. T. C. PIERSON, Grand Master of the Masonic order in this State, is now making his annual tour of visitation to the Lodges within his jurisdiction. He was in Wabashaw on the 30th ult.

BLACKBERRIES have made their appearance at Hastings, being taken from Gray Cloud Island, a few miles below this city, where they are said to be in great abundance.

MESSRS. Thompson and Washburne of this city have leased the steam ferry boat "Hudson City," for their lately established ferry at LaCrosse, by the way of Target Lake into Minnesota.

THE house of Jacob Lowell, of Lakeland, was burned to the ground on Saturday last. There was an insurance on it of $200.

MR. A. L. WILLIAMS, an old citizen and lawyer of this city, has recently returned from the Fourth Regiment, having been mustered out of service in consequence of physical infirmity.

THIRTY DOLLARS additional bounty will be paid to the families of the first ten married men who shall enlist from Ramsey county. Apply to

H. P. GRANT,
2d Lieut, Union Guards, 6th Reg't.

EDITORIAL VISIT.—We are pleased to announce that Mr. Joseph Medill, of the Chicago Tribune, arrived in town yesterday, and is stopping at the International. He will remain in this State for several weeks.

THE great railroad competition on the routes east of Milwaukee, we learn has been adjusted by conceding to the Detroit and Milwaukee Company the privilege of selling tickets eastward from Milwaukee for one dollar less than the competing routes.

CITY BOUNTY.—So far there have been twenty-six applications for the recent bounty offered by the city to recruits from Ramsey county. Of these, seven have enlisted in the Minnesota Grenadiers under Dayton and McConky, nine in the Sigel Guards under Schoneman, Exel and Holl, and ten in the Union Guards under Alderman Grant. But six of them have families, and only two or three of these will apply for further aid from the city.

AN EXCHANGE.—Ministers sometimes exchange pulpits, and Judges exchange benches: therefore, why can't Mayors exchange jurisdictions? Whether they can or not, it so happens that day before yesterday, Mayor Prince was in Stillwater, and Mayor Delano of Stillwater was in St. Paul. During the administration of Mayor Delano a Stillwater man was mulcted for five dollars and costs in our police court. Whether any St. Paul man was similarly served in Stillwater that day, we have not yet learned.

MINNESOTA STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.—The Second Annual Meeting will be held at St. Paul on Wednesday and Thursday, the 27th and 28th of August. The Association will open at 10 A. M. of the 27th. Lectures will be delivered by Rev. Prof. Jabez Brooks, of Red Wing, Rev. Prof. A. D. Williams, of Wasioja, and others. The State Superintendency, the School Law, Normal Schools and Teachers' Institutes will each in their turn engage the attention of the meeting.

PREMIUM FOR FILLING THE OLD REGIMENTS.—By the following notice recently issued from the War Department, it will be observed that the premium for enlisting in regiments at the theatre of war, has been doubled. This order has been made for the purpose of filling the up the ranks of regiments which have been decimated in the service of their country:

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
WASHINGTON, July 26, 1862. }

To Capt. T. M. Saunders, U. S. Disbursing Officer.
St. Paul, Minnesota:

CAPTAIN: I am directed to inform you that for the purpose of rapidly filling up the old volunteer regiments, the Secretary of War has ordered that for volunteer recruits for old regiments, there shall be paid a premium of four dollars, to take effect from this date. This premium is double that paid to recruits who enter the new volunteer regiments under the last call of the President.

I am, Captain
Very respectfully,
Your ob't servant,
W. A. NICHOLS.
Assistant Adjutant General.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.—The Ministerial Association of the St. Paul District, Minnesota Conference M. E. Church, will convene at Taylor's Falls, August 5th and 6th. Sermons, essays, criticisms and other exercises may be expected. Ministers of other denominations are cordially invited to participate in the exercises. The following is the programme for the session: Tuesday evening 7 1-2 o'clock, August, 5th, sermon by Rev. Mr. Rich, of St. Paul. Wednesday from 1 1-2 P. M. till 5 P. M., essays, discussions, etc. Wednesday 7 1-2 P. M. sermon by some one of the ministers present.

LIBERAL BOUNTY.—Messrs J. C. Burbank & Co., it will be seen by the following, have made a most liberal proposition to the first ten men of families who may enlist in either of the companies from this town. We are gratified to see our business men taking hold of this matter in earnest. Who will be the next man or firm?

The undersigned hereby agree to pay three hundred dollars in bounty for recruits as follows: To the first ten able bodied men who have families that will enlist in either the "McClellan Guards," "Minnesota Grenadiers," Union Guards" or "Sigel Guards," we will pay ten dollars each at the time they are mustered into service, and ten dollars each per month for two months thereafter, provided they remain in the service of the United States during that time, or are honorably discharged: the money to paid to the families of the recruits. The parties claiming this bounty will notify us through a recruiting officer on or before the 15th of August.

J. C. BURBANK & CO.

ST. PAUL, August 1, 1862.

TO CHICAGO EXCURSIONISTS.—Excursion tickets, it will be borne in mind, are good to return by the way of Prairie du Chien. Going by this route, the privilege is given to lay over any length of time at Madison, the capital of Wisconsin. The boats running in connection with this road leave every evening at seven o'clock, and make sure connections with the 9:20 A. M. express train, through from Prairie du Chien to Chicago without change of cars. For further information call upon Charles Thompson, ticket agent, right hand corner of Jackson street and Levee. tf

RIVER NEWS.—The river has become so low that the LaCrosse line of boats do not come up any further now than Hastings, transferring their freight and passengers to the Wenona, which makes daily trips to that point.

The arrivals since our last are the Milwaukee and Wenona from below, and the Clara Hine. Antelope and Ariel from above.

The down boat this morning for La Crosse is the Favorite, Captain Bell, and the down boat this evening for Dunleith is the Key City, Captain Worden.

The Fred Lorenz is expected to arrive so as to leave for St. Louis at 9 o'clock this morning.

The St. Croix river is now as low as it generally gets, and if it should continue receding will soon entirely "dry up."

A CORRECTION.—In our notice a few days ago, of the Bank of Minnesota, we inadvertently spoke of the securities deposited—U. S. 7 3-10 interest paying treasury notes—being worth a premium of 15 per cent. The premium on these notes is not so great. What we should have stated is, that the value of securities deposited is 15 per cent. in excess of the notes issued. It amounts practically, so far as security is concerned, to the same thing as stated.

ST. PAUL, August 1st, 1862.

MR. EDITOR:—Having been an attentive listener at the late meetings held at the capitol, I beg leave to make the following proposition: It is known to many of our citizens that I have been engaged in recruiting for a company, and it may not be out of place to say that I have spent both time and money. Many of us some months since said, that when Government actually needed us we would go. In my humble opinion, that time has now arrived. I propose to be one of twenty (co-sign papers) to meet at the City Hall, on Wednesday, August 6th, and march to Fort Snelling and swear in as high privates. The city bounty money (four hundred dollars) to be left in the hands of the Mayor and City Council, for the relief of the families of any volunteer in the Sixth Regiment. BENJAMIN M. CARR.

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 23.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO, }
IN CAMP, NEAR FLORENCE, ALA., }
June 24, 1862. }

There are 14,000 officers and soldiers absent from their duty with the various Divisions of this army. Some of them have gone off without any authority; others with the permission of officers not authorized to grant it. In general, sickness is given as the cause of absence, but in very many cases the cause has notoriously ceased to exist, and men remain away, drawing the same pay as their comrades who are faithfully performing their duty. To correct this abuse it is ordered—

1. All officers and soldiers who are absent without direct authority from these Headquarters, reported for which has not been given, will, on or before the 10th of July, proximo, join their companies or regiments wherever they may be. If ignorant of their locality, they will report to the commanding officer at Louisville or Nashville, by whom they will be directed to their regiments, or put on such light duty as they may be able to perform, if they are not entirely fit for active service; and these will be promptly reported to their regimental commanders by the officer so assigning them.

The cases of those who fail to join as above required, will be disposed of as follows:

2. If any absent officer or soldier, in consequence of sickness or wounds, is absolutely unable to report for duty as above required, he will forward by mail to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville, Tennessee," a Certificate of Disability, according to the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY.

I declare on oath that I have carefully examined.....of Captain.....
Company, Colonel.....Regiment of .....Volunteers, now at this place, and on such examination I find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier for the following reasons: Here state all the facts known or ascertained in the case of wound, or cause of disability; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the the injury occurred or disease originated; the duty or situation of the officer or soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted; and whatever facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.]

Place:
Date: Surgeon [or Physician.]
Sworn and subscribed to before
This certificate must be subscribed and sworn to by a Surgeon or private Physician in good standing, and known as such by the magistrate or other officer by whom the oath is administered; and on it a discharge will be ordered from these Headquarters, or the case otherwise disposed of according to the circumstances.

3. The death of any officer or soldier which has occurred since the 1st of January last, while he was absent from his regiment or company, and which has been reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital in which the death occurred, or by the friends of the deceased if not in Hospital, will be immediately reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital, or by the affidavit of friends, to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville," setting forth the date of decease and other material circumstances.

4. All absent officers and soldiers who do not join their companies and regiments, or are not satisfactorily accounted for as above by the 10th of July next, will be reported on their muster-roll as deserters, dating from the time they may have been absent without authority.

By Act of Congress every deserter forfeits all claim on the Government for pay and allowances, besides being liable to arrest and trial by Court Martial. Any person who apprehends and returns a deserter to the commanding officer of a military post is entitled to five dollars.

By command of MAJOR GEN. BUELL.

Persons unacquainted with the Melodeon and its history, will bear in mind that we are the pioneers and leading manufacturers, not only in the United States, but in the world. We commenced the manufacture of Melodeons in the fall of the year 1847, and since that time have finished and sold TWENTY-SEVEN THOUSAND. These instruments are now in use not only in the United States and Canada, but also in Europe, Asia, African, South America and the West Indies, and from all these quarters we have the most flattering testimonials of the high estimation in which they are held.

AT ALL INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITIONS THEY HAVE INVARIABLY BEEN AWARDED THE HIGHEST PREMIUM WHEN-EVER EXHIBITED IN COMPETITION WITH OTHERS.

We shall take pleasure in forwarding by mail (at our own expense) our Illustrated Catalogue, in which every instrument we manufacture is fully described and illustrated by elegant engravings.

All Melodeons of our manufacture, either sold by us or dealers in any part of the United States or Canada, are warranted to be perfect in every respect, and should any repairs be necessary before the expiration of five years from date of sale, we hold ourselves ready and willing to make the same free of charge, provided the injury is not caused by accident or design.

Agents for the sale of our Melodeons may be found in all the principal towns of the United States and Canada.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

The rebel iron clad gunboats, or rams, built at Richmond, of which we have heard so often lately, made their appearance on Thursday, at Turkey Bend, a few miles above McClellan's army The Monitor and other vessels of our James river fleet prepared to receive them, but up to latest account there had been no engagement.

An important interview between certain Ohio State officials and Gen. Halleck, discloses the gratifying fact that on the negro question Gen. Halleck stands where nine-tenths of the loyal people stand, in favor of confiscating the property and slaves of rebels and using negroes against the enemy. Such have always, he declares, been his views.

Pennsylvania and Illinois have ordered an enrollment of all able bodied men between 18 and 45 years, so as to be ready for any emergency. This action is the certain precursor of drafting in those States. God speed the work everywhere until we have a million men under arms and before the enemy.

SERMON OF CHAPLAIN FISK.

We publish this morning a sermon of Chaplain Fisk, of the Fourth Regiment, preached in camp, which will well repay the reader. It is a masterly handling of the question which it discusses. We have neither heard nor seen anything more forcible in all that has been spoken or written showing the supreme folly of conducting the war on political or peace principles, and the urgent necessity of a speedy change to stern, relentless war. The vivid experience of Chaplain Fisk and of his hearers, the place and circumstances of the utterance of his burning words, lent an inspiration, and a life and death earnestness to the effort that would not else have been given it.

We have only to regret that the picture drawn in so masterly a manner, should have been marred by any distortion. The acknowledged limitations of warfare among civilized nations are not properly defined or recognized by Chaplain Fisk, and it requires a very charitable interpretation of his language to understand that he would be bound by any such limitations.

All civilized warfare recognizes women and children as non-combattants, and therefore, and in obedience to every dictate of right feeling exempt, as much as possible from the horrors of war. Private property too, should be taken or destroyed only so far as needed, or as it will directly weaken the armed opposing force of the enemy.

To advocate the universal and sweeping destruction of everything of the enemy—burning dwellings and engulping women and children in one merciless destruction—is only mad fanaticism, and a return to barbarism. We are sorry to see such evidence as is afforded, in this otherwise just—and certainly most able discourse—of the strong fanatical tendency of a mind of so much brilliancy and power.

We fear that the eloquent preacher, in studying the Institutes of Calvin, has imbibed something of the spirit of the great Reformer (?) which rejoiced in the burning of the heretical Servetus.

PAY OF SOLDIERS IN HOSPITALS OR ON FURLOUGH.—Letters of inquiry relating to the pay of soldiers in hospitals or on furlough, should be addressed to the Paymaster-General; relating to the back pay and the $100 bounty of deceased soldiers, to the Second Auditor; relating to the pay of deceased teamsters, or other employees of the Quartermaster's Department, or for the pay for horses killed or lost in service, to the Fourth Auditor; about soldiers in the army, to the Adjutant-General.

—There is no confirmation of the statement that yellow fever has appeared in Norkfolk, though officers and others now there express, in letters just received here, some apprehensions that it will prevail.

WAR MEETINGS.

At St. Peter, on the 26th, an enthusiastic war meeting was held. Patriotic resolutions were adopted, liberal subscriptions made, and $25 bounty offered to each recruit for the quota of Nicollet county.

We have already noticed similar action in Hennepin, Washington, Scott, Shurburne, Dacota and other counties.

Throughout the State, counties and cities are nobly coming up to the good work.

THANKS FOR PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

Our thanks are due Senators Rice and Wilkinson, and Representatives Aldrich and Windom for many favors in the way of public documents.

If we have not from time to time made acknowledgment, we have been none the less grateful for attentions of this nature.

ANOTHER GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION.

It will be seen by a notice in another column, that Mr. C. W. Woolley has made a liberal offer to the first fifteen who will enlist in the Minnesota First. This is proper, and we are glad to see that while all are endeavoring to fill up the ranks of the Sixth Regiment in the shortest possible time, the absolute necessity of filling up the glorious First is not to be lost sight of.

THE MURFREESBORO SURRENDER.

The New York Tribune of the 28th of July, has an account of the Murfreesboro surrender, written by M. P. Hathaway, correspondent of the PRESS.

After narrating the incidents of the fight and surrender, he writes as follows to the Tribune, in regard to where the blame should rest and gives some particulars of the march to McMinnville and the kind treatment recieved from the rebels:

Col. Lester having been in command of the brigade for several weeks previous, it was through his orders that the force was divided; but whether, in this he was going on his own responsibility, or according to orders, no one knows. Neither can I say whether it would have been proper, in absence of orders from Gen. Crittenden, for him to join his regiment and the battery to the Michigan regiment. So, whether it was Col. Lester who made the blunder, or not, is a matter which nothing but himself and the immutable principles of "red tape" can settle.

After the surrender, we were allowed to get any personal property we wished from camp. Then we fell in and marched off. There was no parade. Everything was done quietly, as if with a view to save our feelings. The necessary guards came in one by one, and we marched along in silence.

The first night we marched ten miles, the first day thirty further, the second were paroled, the fifth we marched to Nashville, and eat the first we had eaten since the surrender, except through the gratuity of citizens.

The force of the enemy consisted of the celebrated Texan Rangers, two regiments of Georgia Cavalry, and a battalion of Kentucky troops: in all, about 2,000 strong. Nothing could exceed the consideration shown us by these Rangers. They endeavored to "sink the shop," and succeeded very well. They habitually divided all eadibles and drinkables with us, and I knew of frequent cases where they walked and allowed tired prisoners to ride. Having one disagreeable error thus corrected, formed the sole agreeable feature of our capture. It seemed at once strange and pleasant to see these "far-down South-Westerns" jagging along by the wagons—which were appropriated to our use on the second day—and talking pleasantly about crops, "and all that," as if they were old friends and neighbors, instead of inveterate enemies.

Major-General Sumner Compliments the Minnesota First.

HEADQUARTERS 1ST MINNESOTA REGIMENT, HARRISON'S LANDING, VA., July 23, 1861.

Editor St. Paul Press:

I enclose you for publication a copy of a general order issued by Major-General Sumner, on yesterday, immediately after a review of the entire corps.

Very respectfully yours,

STEPHEN MILLER,
Lieut. Col. Commanding.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND ARMY CORPS, July 22d, 1862.

[General Order No. 21.]

The General Commanding, would hereby announce to this Corps d'Armee the fine appearance, on the review to-day, of the 19th Massachusetts and the 1st Minnesota regiments. The condition of these regiments is an honor to their States, and reflects great credit upon their commanders.

By Command of MAJ. GEN. SUMNER.

Guerrilla Fight in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, July 30.—Further particulars of the Mount Sterling affair are as follows: Yesterday at sunrise one hundred and seventy-five mounted guerrillas, mostly armed, principally from Boone county, Kentucky, arrived at North Middleton. A Union man sent from there notified the inhabitants of Mount Sterling of the design of these guerrillas to attack the latter place. In the afternoon seven of these guerrillas went into Mount Sterling to demand its surrender. The Mount Sterling home guards, 30 strong, under Captain Evans, Provost Marshal, killed the whole seven.

The remainder of the rebels, coming up, were fired at from houses on the road. Six more were killed, and some twenty mortally wounded. The rebels, retreating some miles, came upon Major Brocht of the 18th Kentucky, and the Provost Marshal of Lexington, advancing with 100 of his regiment and 30 home guards from the neighborhood of North Middleton, when they broke in confusion, scattering in every direction. Brocht pursuing, firing upon them, killing and wounding several, capturing their horses, arms, &c., and taking some fifty prisoners. Between twenty and thirty more were subsequently reported captured. Our loss was three home guards wounded, one fatally, and one of Brocht's regiment wounded severely.

SOUND VIEWS FROM THE BORDER STATES.

Gov. Pierpont of Virginia, in a letter declining to attend the Union mass meeting in New York, says:

The question is: Shall Slavery or Freedom be universal? There is no concealing it. This is the issue. The rebels have presented and forced it upon the nation. We have accepted, and it is to be tried at the point of the bayonet and the muzzle of the cannon; and were it not for the traitors in our midst, the verdict of Freedom would be rendered in three months. Every device that the devil can invent and put into the heads of traitors seems to be brought forward to keep men out of the field, and to paralyze the arms of those already there. These traitors are tolerated in high and low places. It is the grasp of their hands now upon the body politic that partially paralyzes our strength.

Gen. Viele on Slavery.

We take the following from a Norfolk letter, published in the New York Express:

"Slavery is abolishing itself. The negroes are coming in—sometimes fifty a day—leaving the crops ungathered.

Gen. Viele is run down with women pleading for their runaway negroes. One delicate lady showed him her hands, burnt with work, to which they were unaccustomed, as all the negroes had left her, with no other resource. He kindly and courteously tells them that the South has abrogated the civil law, and military law knows no difference of color. This settles the question. It is the simplest solution I have yet seen. Jeff. Davis is responsible for the consequences to them, as individuals."

Rebel Batteries on the Lower Mississippi.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

ABOVE GREENSVILLE, July 20.—The Queen of the West has just passed the rebel batteries, receiving about a dozen shots and having one man killed, J. W. Spencer, carpenter of the Cincinnati. Several effective shots were fired from the Queen of the West, but it is impossible to know anything of the damage done, as the rebel guns and sharpshooters are completely concealed by the thick underbrush, the smoke betraying their locality. A few miles below we met the ram Lioness and the transport Lady Pike, both of which had been badly cut up by the batteries, and one man killed on the Lioness. The Lady Pike had waited above the bayou five days for some kind of a convoy. As we passed the island we saw the blackened remains of the Sallie Wood. All on board, including the ladies and children, with the exception of Lieutenant Wing, of the Fourth Wisconsin, pilot Lucas and a negro woman, have been sent to Jackson, Mississippi. One officer escaped.

Commodore Davis' fleet had moved up to the month of the Yazoo river.

The Samter and Essex were below the batteries.

GRAND NAVAL FIGHT AT VICKSBURG.

Attempt to Destroy the Arkansas Under the Rebel Batteries.

Special dispatch to the Chicago Tribune.

VICKSBURG, July 24, via CAIRO, July 30.—By arrangement between Commodores Davis and Farragut, the attempt to take the rebel ram Arkansas was set for yesterday morning. Com. Farragut did not like to leave the Arkansas loose, and hence concocted the attempt to take her. At daylight the Benton, Cincinnati, Louisville, Bragg and Essex weighed anchor and dropped down the river. Just above the point, the Essex passed the rest of the fleet and steamed down the river, while the guns and other boats behind engaged the land batteries. The cannonading was terrific. Every guard in town seemed to have its gun.

The Essex closed its ports and casemates and steamed on amid a shower of balls, intending to run directly into the Arkansas and grapple her. As she neared the Arkansas she discharged her heavy 11-inch baw guns and rushed on, but in the smoke the cable of the Arkansas had been cut, so that she swung round, and the Essex ran into the shore. For ten minutes, then, the Essex and Arkansas were at close quarters, and the shots were incessant. The Essex evidently did much damage to her formidable opponent, but finding herself unsupported, she was forced to drop down the river. The Essex lost one man killed and three wounded.

She received ten shots, three of which went through her. Capt. Porter of the Essex feels considerably chagrined that he was not more nobly supported. The Benton, Cincinnati and Louisville certainly indulged in the fight at decidly long time. No damage was done in the Essex beyond shooting off the escape pipe of the Cincinnati. Although the Queen of the West could not accomplish much, she nevertheless went in for her share of the blows, and got ten or a dozen shots through her. She hit the Arkansas two heavy buts. The efforts, to all intents, is a failure. The Arkansas lies still under the frowning guns of Vicksburg.

The Rebel Steamer Merrimac No. 2.

WASHINGTON, July 30, 1862.—The Mount Washington arrived at the navy yard at an early hour this morning. Captain Germaine says there is a rumor in Norfolk, which is believed by some, that the Merrimac No. 2, and a new ram which the rebels have at Richmond, intend to run through our fleet in the James river and attack the Minnesota and other vessels at Norfolk, and take the city.

—HENRY P. BLOW, of St. Louis, the extensive white lead manufacturer, one of the wealthiest men in Missouri, said in a speech last week "if the country could be satisfied that from this day forward the policy of the President, his Cabinet and his Generals, was to crush out slavery and the rebellion, where the former was found sustaining the latter, there would be no use for bounties. But instead of three hundred thousand men, a million would rush to the defense of their country."

This sentiment, says the St. Louis Democrat, was enthusiastically applauded, and it shows how much the people are in advance of the Administration on this all absorbing subject.

THE CITY.

THE Board of County Commissioners will meet on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, for the transaction of regular business.

PUTNAM P. BISHOP, who will be remembered by all the old citizens of this city as a brilliant young lawyer, is now pastor of the First Baptist Church, in Auburn, New York.

REV. J. C. PERSHING, President of the Pittsburg Female College, will preach at the Market Street M. E. Church this A. M., at half-past ten o'clock.

CHRIST CHURCH.—Services this morning at half-past ten o'clock; Rev. D. D. Chapin will officiate. Sunday School at nine o'clock; the children will be catechised by the officiating clergyman.

C. D. GILFILLAN, Esq., returned from the East day before yesterday, where he has been rusticating for the last three weeks.

HOLCOMBE'S WRITING CLASS.—The present course of Professor Holcombe's Writing Class will close on Tuesday next. Prizes will be awarded on Thursday at the opening of the third and last dollar class.

RELEASED MINNESOTA PRISONERS.—At City Point, on the 25th of July, a federal steamer received the following released prisoners:

H. S. Semmer, Co. B, First Minnesota.
H. J. W. Brown, Co. C. do
J. McInster, Co. G. do

THE funeral of Capt. Curtis, of Stillwater, will take place to-day, under the direction of the military company and Masonic Society of that place. The Great Western Band will be in attendance.

HON. M. S. WILKINSON is making war speeches in the interior of New York. He is expected home about the 10th. Gov. Ramsey will be home about the same time. Hon. Wm. Windom arrived at Winona on Thursday last.

MERRILL has received a supply of Edwin Brothertoft, the last of that remarkable series of novels which the lamented Theodore Winthrop left behind him. The two novels already published have taken a permanent place in the literature of our country.

YESTERDAY was a regular old breezer. It blowed up dust, dirt, sand, gravel and small rock, filling eyes, ears, beard, hair and lungs. Awnings and windows were shaken, doors and shutters slammed, hats went kiting, and crinoline——well, we don't know.

POLICE.—There were two cases of disorderly conduct tried on yesterday morning. In both instances the party was fined five dollars and costs, which was paid.

Two Frenchman were arrested at the instance of another Frenchman, for stealings. There was no case made out, and the parties were discharged.

THE board of managers of the State and Ramsey County Agricultural Fair were in session at the Capitol yesterday arranging the preliminaries of the gran fair that will take place on the 17th, 18th and 19th of next month. Pennock Pusey was elected Secretary. The premium list will be published in three or four days.

NEW WHEAT.—A gentleman informs us that over on Vermillion Prairie, in Dakota county, on Friday last, he saw one of those large threshing machines in full blast, threshing out the new crop of wheat. This is hurrying up matters pretty fast, considering the fact that the old crop has'nt all passed away yet.

THE DRY GOODS TRADE.—It will be seen by the following, which are late quotations from the wholesale dry goods market in New York, that staples retail in St. Paul at less rates than the wholesale price in New York city:

Heavy brown sheetings, however, were firmer and held at an advance of 1@2c ℔ yard. We quote heavy sheetings at 21@23c ℔ yard, light do. at 20@22c, heavy shirtings at 19@21c, and light do. at 16@17c. Bleached goods were dull and prices unchanged. Brown drills were at 23@25c. Ticks and stripes were firm. Duck was held at higher rates. We quote printing cloths at 10½ 10¾c for 64x64, with pretty free sales. Prints were steady at 11@15c, according to marks.

CHARLES T. COTTON, Esq., late of this city, but who resided in Mississippi at the time she seceshed, where he was tried and came near being hung by a drunken mob called a vigilance committee, for his outspoken Union sentiments—has been appointed to a clerkship in Washington. His brother George, who formerly lived near Carver, in this State, and who was subsequently forced into the rebel army, died not long since.

RIVER ITEMS.—The arrivals since our last, are Key City from Dunleith, Wenona from Hastings, and Antelope and Clara Hine from Carver.

The McLellan is the down river packet from Hastings for LaCrosse this morniug, and the War Eagle is the down river packet for Dunleith.

The Favorite is the down river packet from Hastings on Monday morning, and the Northern Light on Monday evening, or Dunleith.

The Ariel went up the river for Mankato last evening.

We had a copious rain last evening, which will have a tendency to keep the sandbars from rising any further.

FROM MISSOURI.

The Fight in Calloway County.

MEXICO, MO., July 30.—From an officer just from the field we get the following reliable account of the fight at Moore's Mills, twelve miles east of Fulton, on Monday afternoon:

Our force, under Colonel Guetar, was about 700; the rebel force was between 800 and 900. Our loss was ten killed and thirty wounded. The fight lasted three hours, when the rebels fled in great confusion. Porter went east and Cobb went west.

Rear Admirals in the Navy.

GOLDSBOROUGH, FARRAGUT, DUPONT AND FOOTE.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The President to-day commissioned the following named captains to be rear admirals on the retired list, under the recent act to establish and equalize the grade of line-officers of the navy: Charles Stewart, George C. Read, Wm. B. Shubrick, Jas. Sweet, Geo. W. Slow, Francis A. Gregory, Eli A. Socalette, Silas H. Stringham, Hiram Paulding.

The following captains are to be rear admirals on the active list: L. M. Goldsboro, David G. Farragut, Samuel F. Dupont, A. H. Foote.

The law provides that rear admirals shall be selected by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, from those captains who have given the most faithful service to their country.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, July 31.

The market continued active and buoyant during the forenoon, but after the receipt of the New York report a tamer feeling prevailed. At the opening of the board 92¾c for No 2 and 96¾c for No. 1 were offered by a number of buyers without getting any. Subsequently the market receded to 92@93c, and sales were quite liberal. About 65,000 bushels altogether changed hands.

The Flour market was active, but not quotably higher. Sales of about 2,000 barrels were reported at $4.15@4.25 for fair to choice country extra.

Course Grains were firm at our quotations and scarce.

Highwines declined to 28½c.

Whiskey was also easier.

Our Fleet in Line of Battle.

No Engagement at Latest Dates.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.

The Times' Potomac army correspondence, dated July 31st, states that two suspicious looking crafts, probably the Merrimac and Young America, cast anchor yesterday noon off Turkey Bend.

Several of our gunboats were immediately sent to that vicinity—the Monitor making a reconnoissance—after which the gunboat fleet, including the Galena, Monitor and others, were ordered in line of battle off Lighthouse Point.

A balloon and gunboat reconnoissance above and near Fort Powhattan discovered no rebels or earthworks in that vicinity.

A branch railroad has been discovered from the banks of the James river opposite Berkley's Landing, to Petersburg.

9 P. M.—The position of the fleet is unchanged. The rebel rams are still off Turkey Bend. How near we are to a naval battle every one can judge for themselves.

SOLDIERS IN GOOD SPIRITS.

WASHINGTON, August 2.

An official, writing from Harrison's Landing to a gentleman in Washington, says "all is quiet on the James river. One corps after another is being reviewed by General McClellan, and the troops make a very fine appearance. The soldiers are in good spirits, and will be ready to deal the blows when called upon to strike. If New England, the Middle States and the great West will do their duty, this wicked rebellion will be crushed forever. God grant that the call for more men will not be in vain.

No Enemy this side of Gordonsville.

Troops Eager and Confident.

WATERLOO, Va., August 2.

Intelligence from Culpepper says scouting parties go daily, and occasionally bring in rebel scouts. No enemy in force has been seen this side of Gordonsville. It is supposed that strong entrenchments are being constructed at that place by rebels. Our troops are in such spirits and so confident of complete success that they say they can defeat whatever rebel forces may be there collected.

Gen. Pope on his way hither, was received with enthusiastic cheers by our troops, whom he reviewed, complimenting them on their splendid appearance and the perfection of their drill.

Desertion has been much checked within the last few days by the stringent orders of Gen. Pope. Several have been found guilty, and sentenced to be hanged and drummed out of the army. At present all is quiet in front of us.

Gen. Halleck's Views on the Negro Question.

HE IS ALL RIGHT.

Important Interview Between Ohio Officials, the President and Gen. Halleck.

WASHINGTON, August 1.

Worald's dispatch—Ex. Gov. Dennison and Gen. Bates, of Ohio, arrived this morning at the request of Gov. Todd, and had a long interview with the Secretary of War, the President, and Gen. Halleck regarding military interests in southern Ohio, together with those of Kentucky, which ended most satisfactorily. It is probable all they came after will be accomplished.

To-night they had an important interview with Gen. Halleck, during which he alluded to the negro question, and said that he was now and always had been in favor of using negroes within the military lines, and of confiscating all slaves and other property of rebels in arms. In addition he said Gen. McClellan had been instructed to use all negroes coming within his lines, and to compensate those who were free but to employ all without reference to their status. The order on employing negroes will probably be soon passed by Gen. Halleck.

Reconnoissance and Skirmish.

NEW YORK, August 2.

The Newbern correspondent of the Herald, states that two expeditions had been sent out, the first to Trenton, under Col. Lee, comprising the 27th and 25th Massachusetts regiments, Belger's Rhode Island battery and four companies of the 2d New York cavalry; the second expedition to Pollocksville, under Col. Fellows, comprising the 17th Massachusetts and a portion of the 3d New York cavalry. The few rebels at Trenton skedaddled, and at Pollocksville a slight skirmish with rebel cavalry, which resulted in killing and wounding two, and taking two prisoners. The object of the reconnoissances being to ascertain the forces in the vicinity, which was accomplished. The expedition returned.

Michael J. Galvin, of the the 23rd Massachusetts regiment, was shot at in the street in Newbern. After being wounded he shot and captured his assailant and another. Col. Kurtz had the house pulled to the ground on Saturday. Several arrests were made. The assassin will be hung.

A Discourse on the Conduct of the War.

DELIVERED IN MISSISSIPPI, AT THE CAMP OF THE FOURTH MINNESOTA, ON SABBATH MORNING, JULY 29, 1862.

BY REV. A. S. FISKE, CHAPLAIN.

For months past I have been amazed confused, at my wit's end. Here is my trouble: we are at war, evidently: and then, by just as good evidence, we are not at war, at all, but at play.

We—peaceful citizens, neighbors, friends of old—are now gathered, forsaking accustomed callings, home, comforts and all the best beloved, amid the beats of a Southern summer, with arms in our hands; with these, in a double sense deadly, "hundred rounds" of cartridges. We are not at play, and not meant for that. See yonder graves of our olden-time acquaintances who sickened and died here, with no household, tender, home voices and cares to smooth their dark way to glory. Grim reality! No sport this! See, in yonder hospital, many more in all the pains, weariness, agony of sickness, some of them likely close to death; suffering much from lack of things convenient for them; from hard boards to stretch their sore and wasted frames on: from food which a well man can live on, but a sick one cannot: from the noise of drum-beat, the discharge of musketry, and all the discordant sound of camp: suffering most of all that they are laid aside from duty here, among men, while wife, mother, sisters—gentle, heaven-appointed ministers of all the sick—are far away. See these others: though pale, weak, tottering about like old men, with canes, yet they are young: were active, robust, sturdy, fit to wrestle with labor and overcome it: to bear hardships and thrive under it. To this have hard marching, hard fare, digging and sleeping in the trenches, in rain and mud, reduced them. These, with the sick, disabled and dead, are full half of our once long, beautiful line of stalwart men! This is no play war? To us, at least, it is grim and earnest.

War has been counted a scourge and desolation, as it is to us. But there is an old notion in the world that war is especially a scourge and curse to the sections of an enemy's country in which it is waged. We are here in a hostile, traitorous section. Malignant enemies do not fear to wag malignant tongues at our faces at every turn: do not hesitate to speak approvingly of fathers, brothers, husbands, sons in arms against us: to wish us utter annihilation: to taunt us with reverses and decry our victories, with undisguised satisfaction. They move all the powers of domestic labor and economy, all the energies of agriculture and a necessity-born manfacture, to the sustenance of the treason we are here to crush. The wheat that is to feed their armies, grows, ripens, and is gathered into rebel garners. The corn waves and nods its rebel plumes and tassels in the sunlight as we march past. Hospitable trees stretch out their arms full of golden fruit to our tired and fainting troops—fruit forbidden as was that of the tree of life to Adam—fruit saved to be poured in refreshing, healthful abundance into hostile camps, to invigorate the arms of traitorous fratricides.

Nothing may be molested, lest it may be our troops are detailed to stand guard at their wells and poultry yards, over their sheep and cattle, horses and negroes, their orchards, fields, estates and persons: detailed to stand at their gates like servants, and hear the treason talked which deserved the halter: to smother patriotic wrath and protect—not hang—but protect in every particular the traitors: to eat their hard bread within sight of luxurious traitors' fare. The land blooms behind as before us. Treason is as safe, as rampant, save in a few violent tokens, on one side of us as on the other. Crush out treason! Great God! It thrives unrampled beneath the very feet of our loyal armies. It is spoken to civilly, courteously, cared for, protected, petted, guarded from a stray pennyworth of harm, as if it were some rare and costly exotic it would be a loss and a pity to breathe rudely on—as if it were not the damnable sin which has murdered a hundred thousand of our sons already—as if it were not the miasma, the lepas, which has pitched our hospital tents in this burning clime and filled them with suffering ones; which has sown all over this soil the bodies of our dead—seed for the harvest of the Resurrection; which has changed every third man in all our hosts to a cane-bearing skeleton—a ghostly mockery of the manliness that was his. We spat it fair, as if there were no rails in the air, no sackcloth and ashes or widows and orphans; as if a nation was not perishing by its daggers; as if it were not accursed, plotting, theiving, lying, robbing, perjured, murderous treason!

Crush it out? O, it is a wondrous process! Why, this same people, in whose midst we are, had forgotten the ring of silver and gold. He have made ourselves merry at the five, ten, twenty-five cent notes of banks and railroad corporations, towns and pot-houses, taverns and faro banks, with which they have been making change; have bought them and sent them forth to our friends as curious tokens of the ruin of a bankrupt people. Our armies are pouring rivers of gold and silver into the veins and arteries of this monstrous treason which we are here to crush out. And we get almost no equivalent. Fifty cents a quart for milk, forty cents a pound for butter, and twenty-five cents for chickens, either very young or very old, and this in hard money always, for these favored genry will not receive our honest United States paper. Such markets were never is these rebel traitors find in us. They ave drained this whole army of its silver and gold, till our five dollar notes are useless, except in exchange for goods to their full amount. Through its army they are draining the whole North. Such a God-send never came before with a victorious army into a hostile country. Nay, in our human fear lest there should be suffering in these nests of traitors, we call on the patriotic, burdened, weeping North to send food to feed the rebel States. We open our commissary stores for sale to them at contractors' prices, adding nothing for transportation, and that too at times when our army was on short rations and could not be supplied. Every dime of silver, every pound of salt, or flour, or tea, or coffee; every sheet of paper, or box of clothing, which gets from us into their hands, is so much of aid and comfort rendered the rebellion, by Crushing out treason! Strange process! The traitors within all our lines of occupation are treated like loyal men. When we withdrew from any town or section, every man tempted by our presence to show loyalty is afflicted, persecuted tormented: his property confiscated and his life in peril. Who in these quarters would be a loyalist must suffer all things, who is a traitor, suffer nothing, from any man. Crush out treason? Oh, we pay wages to treason, render security for himself and property, when all men beside him are in peril. We make every traitor bold, and put every loyal man in fear. We treason crushers.

The able bodied men of these sections are all in treason's armies for our slaughter. It is an easy thing for men to leave their families, estates, when they will be secure and well provided for. It is hard, tough work to leave families who may suffer, and estates which from your absence may be imperilled and lost. How easy a thing we make it for these able bodied men to leave home and serve in traitor cause! We place guards by the fields when their slaves are toiling to keep rebel masters' houses in comfort and affluence, and so send tidings as if by letters missive to the hostile camp to all these traitor fathers, brothers, sons. "O stay and fight. Your women do not need you. All there are well and safe. Your plantations are well tilled. Your crops are looking finely. Your estates are all safe. Your laborers are kept hard at work. Fight on! Never you mind about leaving the army and coming home to make peace with the Government and keep your family out of trouble! Fight away then where you are! We will take care of all of your interests, and see to it that you get no harm from being absent in rebel arms. Nay, if by your neglect and treason any of your households should seem likely to suffer, we will take good care of, and feed them, even from supplies provided for our own armies: will send down from the North abundance of all things needful for distribution. Not unlikely some little rills of this, the wondrous river of our beneficence will ever reach your camp and nerve your arm for harder blows and greater endurance!" Treason crushing! It seems, upon my soul, it seems as if there were a dream somwhere that these armed rebels would be in the Union again by and by with votes and power and gifts for those who had treated them most tenderly.

War in its very nature, purpose, soul, is a desolating curse. It is undertaken with the purpose to make an enemy suffer—to cripple and hurt him, to make him suffer intolerably, to inflict such punishment on him that he cannot endure it, and so compel him to lay down his arms. Tenderness in time of war to an enemy and his territory and wealth is maudlin folly. Why the war at all? Every sign of such tenderness is so much weakness to the party exhibiting it, and so much advantage to the enemy. By so much is it the more safe and easy for him to wage his war against you. By so much the less cogent is his reason for giving it up.

But the severities of war will involve the distress of the innocent wives and households of traitors. Innocent! In whose lips have you heard the most virulent treason? Who most have everywhere insulted our troops and our flag? Who, by taunts, datteries, and all cajolements, have driven and drawn friends, lovers, fathers, brothers, husbands and sons into bloody and hideous treason? These women rebels. Let them suffer the inevitable fruits of their fiendish, wanton crime. In General Butler's office this homely notice is written up—"There is no difference between a he and she adder." A little wholesome tribulation will tame the tigress and her whelps. Let the legitimate terrors of war be visited upon every rebel community, and rebel women, involved in the common calamity, will cease their rampant treason, and their potent influence in behalf of the rebellion be converted into a mighty power to end it. If our war is just, we are right, and it is our sacred duty to carry its sharp severities wherever our armies go. If we are in the wrong, then step gingerly, wear silken gloves, feed, clothe, protect the rebellion and all the interests of rebels, and fail, as we ought and surely shall! With our head busy protecting a stalwart foe, we must be strong indeed to slay him. His own protection is his business. His destruction by every means in our power is ours. He risked his all when he drew the traitor sword. It is not our work to save him his stakes, but to make him lose them.

I am not hard and cruel-hearted, but it would rejoice me to hear the cry of want and hungar coming up from all the South. I would give no ounce of corn meal to allay it till the South gave up her rebellion. Then I will leap to feed a suffering people even to my own hungar—to the half of all my goods, to the stinting of my wife and child. It is no mercy or kindness now to try to allay any Southern rebel distress. It is only "comforting" treason. God forbid it.

The theory of all the policy of this war has been—"this rebellion after all is not mere sheer, horrible wickedness. These traitors are deceived. A cursed press has represented all the loyal North as Abolitionists, and then painted an Abolitionist to be a devil. Our 'Southern brethren' were deceived thus into a frantic hate and fear. They only need to be undeceived. Now let our hosts appear to undeceive them. Show them we are neither Abolitionists or devil. They will be placated—will see their mistake—their sad, ruinous mistake, and relinquish what the President calls, 'this unnecessary and injurious war.' It is all that."

Well, this has been the theory of it all. A theory very magnanimous, honorable, becoming, to the great free heart of the Northern people—far less flattering to their head however. Yet let us not blame those who have insisted on faithfully trying the theory. Let us not hold that they have done it from lack of loyalty or from sympathy with treason. The authorities, no doubt, held it the wisest, best and quickest way of quenching the flames of this rebellion. But they can hold it so no longer. It has been tried; it has failed, miserably, utterly, disastrously. Our magnanimity is understood as fear, weakness, conscious wrong. They have driven on the war by warlike means, and not as the conservatives have it by "war measures of clemency." They have been delighted to have us save their estates, keep their negroes hard at work to furnish supplies for the rebellion, treat their households and communities with chivalrous politeness; feed the hungry and the full among them, and in all things save their anxiety about home matters. They have laughed at us as fools beside hating us as foes. They have gained long respite and many successes for their accursed cause.

Our own eyes have seen these "war measures of clemency." At our approach to his plantation, on a recent march, a rich old man made haste to meet us and claim a guard for his estate. He confessed that his six sons were all in the rebel army and did not hide his own treason. He and his household were living in luxury, sustained as they had always been by the labor of their slaves—able to furnish subsistence to the rebels as ever. But he got his guard and was left as much a rebel, with as full ability to aid the rebel cause as before our coming. We marched back past his residence and in less than a week the town was occupied by rebel troops—subsisting on the produce of this region through which we had passed. On one of our marches, the first day of our occupancy of the town, I dined with a man—a good Union man. I called next day. Meanwhile a General had called and politely assured him that we troubled nobody for his opinions,—that all quiet persons were perfectly safe, no matter what their political views might be,—and that day he was rampant secession with all his house. The first day he eagerly invited me to dine and would take no compensation.

The second day he invited me even more eagerly, pressed me so to stay to dinner, that I waited an hour and a half rather than refuse his urgency, and then before I was up from the table told me he should charge me fifty cents for my dinner. That was sharp practice for one of the chivalry. I was greener then than now and paid it. My country forgive me! Hard crackers and raw pork are better for me than dinners on which thine enemies fatten. I henceforth will knowingly eat no secesion bread paid for in loyal silver.

We are hearing every day what proves the fallacy of this theory of tenderness of warlike "clemency." We have made three tough campaigns through Missouri, costing more than the value of the whole property of the counties through which our armies passed. To-day the State is in as bad, unsettled, rebellious a condition as at the first. Fremont's fortifications and the loyal garrisons are not useless yet about St. Louis herself. One rebel in a county hanged, the estates of rebels confiscated or destroyed on that first campaign would have saved millions of treasure and tens of thousands of loyal lives, besides giving the Government the moral power of one stable, loyal, reliable State wrested from the clutch of treason.

We have campaigned it with hard work, terrible suffering, desperate fighting and heavy loss of life through Kentucky and Tennessee, on this same principle of clemency, leaving to every rebel his liberty, his estate unimpaired, his laborers still bound to unrequited service, his family in comfort. We have not crushed treason out of a single county nor town, or heart of either State. These rebels have nursed their hatred under the heel of this "clement" war and learned to despise us. They conveyed all manner of intelligence to lurking enemies; have deceived our forces scattered here and there in the country; have fallen as minute men upon any isolated parties and cut them off. It was that kind of work that took us to Paris. The work of aiding and nourishing treason has been their one business in spite of loyal oaths. What are oaths with which to bind this treason which was born in wholesale perjury? I say we have not with all our hardships and expenditures of time, money, life, crushed treason in a single precinct of either of these States. It it just as universal, as malignant, as when our armies first set foot on their soil. So just now we learn of a grand plan for a simultaneous and general uprising of the rebels in our rear, perfected, the signal for it success at Richmond. Had complete disaster overtaken us there, instantly our lines of communication and supply would have been assailed, our scattered garrisons cut off, their towns and cities retaken, and our whole western line flanked by the victorious army of Virginia, and we compelled to campaign it backward to the Ohio, or meet with worse disaster. Even as it is, see Lexington and Frankfort in peril, the archives of the Stat eheing hastily withdrawn for fear of Morgan's force: Murfreesboro retaken with its regiments of defenders—our own gallant Third for one. Thank God they fought against odds of two to one, and only gave up their arms when ready to be swept away like dry grass before the leaping flame. Let these gallant unfortunates of our own State, our neighbors, acquaintances and friends, stand to us a thrilling token of the failure of "war measures of clemency." These measures had been tried upon the rebels among whom they were garrisoned, and by whom they were sacrificed. Whence, as out of the ground, have these armies sprung up within and in the rear of our strong close lines—in these lines where treason has been already crushed out by most bloody campaigns? Folly! Treason is not crushed by merely marching a loyal army through a State, when these armies are bound to act as its protectors and foster-mothers. Turbulent Missouri, Kentucky and Tennessee will prove it. These troops in our rear are sustained and guided by—are composed of, these traitors whose estates ought long ago to have been destroyed or owned by the Government, and whose persons ought to have been shut up in Northern prisons. It seems as if all that arms, campaigns, battles, slaughters have won, this false policy of clemency has lost, and we must now begin afresh the work of reducing rebel States.

A black time has come upon us, blackest of all since the Bull Run disaster. Our whole theory of the war exploded, and the results of great sacrifices lost by it. Disasters, more or less complete, have overtaken our arms in the valley of the Shenandoah: before Charleston—oh! the stinging disgrace of abandoning the attempt to reduce this cocatrice's nest, whence all the venomous reptiles of this rebellion were hatched! It makes our cheeks tingle with shame. Disasters before Richmond, where we trusted our war ere this should have closed in glorious victory instead of almost distruction. Baton Rouge and Murfreesboro retaken. This disastrous insecurity of States fought over and thought on only as safe and loyal. Serpents at the North—only scotched not killed by the indignation of a patriotic people—rousing to coil together into noxious, slimy, venimous reptile parties in scarcely covert aid of treason. An army everywhere greatly reduced by disease, wounds, deaths on the field and the debility occasioned by fatigue in an inhospitable climate. An army—it needs to be said in order to a full understanding of our peril—an army sick, disgusted, out of all heart, and wanting to go home, because they are made patrols over negroes. They think they are capable of more dignified business—herdsmen of rebel flocks and cattle, they would rather tend their own—guards of rebel property, they would prefer to take care of their own wasting fortunes—protectors of rebel resources, abettors, aiders, most direct and substantial comforters of treason. They came here willing to endure all hardships to crush treason. They are not willing to endure the same hardships in nursing it—in furnishing to traitors security and sustenance. No wonder patriotic and thinking men get sick of such work and long to get away from it. Of almost all the complaints and dissatisfaction heard in this or any camp, here is the pestilent root. It will not take long for it to grow up into a demoralized and worthless army.

There, friends, I hope you are satisfied now! I have growled with the worst growler of you all. Haven't I?

I said this seemed a black time. Well, "darkness is thickest just before dawn." Didn't a ray of light stream in upon you the other night on dress parade, when our commander's good order was published? "Protection henceforth only to such as claim citizenship under our laws, abjuring every other allegiance—freedom to come and go through our lines to the slave of a rebel—consideration, at least greater than that due his rebel master!" Growlers began to stop growling then, I think! What now with a law for the confiscation of rebel property and the emancipation of rebel slaves and the imprisonment of rebel persons? What now that the enslaved laborers on the plantations of rebel soldiers may leave their toil and come to dig trenches and bear burdens for men in loyal armies, to act as guides, bearers of information, witnesses concerning loyalty or treason—to take even a stray gun and shoot a foe? What now that the enemy's country is really to suffer, and troubled homes to call for absent traitors to return from the ranks, give up their treason, and receive the offered amnesty for their heinous crime?

Stop grumbling now, I say—stop it short and quick. Get on your cheerful face, and be ready for this new war, whose victories will be stable and significant, whose advances will leave behind no treason or traitors, or sustenance for them. I do not think I am premature in this charge. A week ago there ought not to have been spoken as free speech as that I have used to-day concerning the falseness of our policy, our discouragements, and reasons for chagrin. I speak of them now as things of the past, dead and gone, out of which we leap to another war with a new cheerfulness, determination and vigor.

Do you hear from Memphis! Exile or loyalty, is the alternative for rich and poor, high and low, men, women and children. Have you heard from Jackson, Tennessee? Here is the order for substance: "All citizens over eighteen years of age inside the picket lines of the United States forces here are required to appear before the Provost Marshal by Saturday, at twelve o'clock M., the 12th inst., to take the prescribed oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States of America. All persons who fail to comply with this order within the prescribed time will be arrested and disposed of as prisoners." The oath is stringent, and the accepted penalty for its violation is death.

These recent disasters, these fresh outbreakings of the hidden fires of rebellion in States supposed secure, have filled the very air with the thrill of a new purpose. As by instinct we catch it. Under the influence of it, our new army of three hundred thousand men will spring from the ground armed, like the harvest from the dragon's teeth. Congress has sanctioned the instinct, and now it is a law. The President, it is said, is just ready to proclaim the old policy dead, the new universal and supreme. The sense and judgment of all loyal men are solid in its support. So disaster turns to triumph. God has to grind men and nations like apples before he gets the virtue of them. He has been grinding and pressing us till we are ready for the great crisis in which we stand. Under the old plan of clemency and play war, new armies could not have been raised except by levies. Under the new law of war, real war, the heart of the nation will beat high and strong. These 300,000 men will hasten to the lines with a tramp that shall be glorious in the ears of all true men, which shall be the tramp of doom to treason!

Now I charge you be strong and of good courage. Put away every complaint. If you are sick make haste to be well. There's great work to do—and you will have your hand in it. These States behind us must be reconquered and treason once for all crushed out. Traitor States are yet before us. Treason everywhere—not rooted out of a single community in which it ever throve.

But now with a principle of war, which means war, every advance will signify so much of loyal ground. Treason dead in it forever and ever. Let them give us as they seem ready to do, this law. See to it, that behind you is no traitor—no subsistence, but for staunch loyal men—no estate belonging to any traitor—no covering for the head of any traitor! In thirty days there need be no rebel State of Mississippi. She can be made to sue for peace and re-admission. When we get in earnest and carry with us amnesty for the quickly penitent, ruin swift, dire, without remedy for all others, this dreadful strife will end—till then, never, never! We must grasp now the dire, sweeping, desolating brand. The slaves of rebels must be freed! The crops of rebels destroyed—the houses of rebels wrapped in flames. Everything which can be appropriated to the sustenance and comfort of our troops so used. Everything destructible destroyed—all real estate possession, fee-simple by the United States Government—all able bodied male rebels sent to Northern military prisons or set at work on loyal labor—no vestige of any rebel thing ought to be left in our track. The agony will be sharp but short. We have waited and borne and hoped long. Merciful war is always cruelest. Do we shrink from the wail of suffering infancy and age and womanhood? Woman here has unsexed herself and deserves sorrow. Age here has sired and lifted hands of benediction on perjured treason; has forsaken the traditions of its youth—trampled with tottering feet on the symbols of the National glory which crowned its manhood, and with sacriligious hands girded strong youth for the murder of its country and loyal sons. Innocence we find, but in babes. Alas, we cannot shelter them! On guilty fathers, and mothers, leads be the curse of every infant's cry in this stern war!

We are thinking of sorrows. Listen for the north wind. Hear ye aught on the breezes that float hitherward from our homes? There is the noise and crash of the ruin of estates and fortunes, and there are wails in the air! Weeping Rachels who will not be comforted for their children are not. Fathers lamenting with David "My son! my son! would God I had died for thee, O my son!" There are widows, woes thronging these northern airs, and orphans cries, and the voices of youth and maidens lifted up in weeping for brothers and lovers who shall return no more. Every State, county, city town, village, hamlet, swells the doleful lament, the requiem of our slain! Oh! it comes to us in solemn, awful tones! An agony from every household and every heart of our northern land is in it. Shall we in pity for these tears a just war shall wring from the South, multiply the sacrifices, sighs and tears of the loyal North? Shall we spare the guilty and multiply the woes of the innocent?

Another cry burdens the air. Treason's dagger has well nigh reached the heart of liberty and popular government—the heart of a great nation. This majestic wrathful shout sweeps down on the north wind like the voice of the seven thunders. "Let the assassin perish, perish, PERISH, root and branch, utterly and forever!" It is the unanimous voice of eighteen millions of loyal people against treason. The breezes of God bear it. The will of God is in it. All lesser cries and wailings shall be drowned in these.

Through whatever may come of suffering, and hardships, and perils, even to the sacrifice of life itself, we will swear together comrades, by all the gallent captives, by all the glorious dead, by all the sorrows of the bereaved of our own and other States, by all the glory, beauty, benignity of our imperilled government to crush out treason with an iron heel and relentless hand.

May God shield and speed the right!

This Society was organized in the year 1859, with a cash capital of $100,000 deposited irrevocably with the insurance Department of the State of New York, in United States bonds, on which it allows but seven per cent. per annum to the stockholders, and the entire profits of the business is shared by the policy holders. The nett profits in two years amounts to $129,000, which shows an unparalleled success in the history of Life Insurance. Its operations are managed by a Board of Directors composed of the the ablest business men of the country, and its business is conducted entirely on the cash plan. Dividends to the policy holders will be made every five years, and no Company in the country offers equal advantages to its dealers.

HOME

INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Extract from Third Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York. WM. BARNES,
Superintendent.

There are now ninety-five joint stock fire insurance companies incorporated by the State of New York, engaged in the transaction of business; of these companies, fourteen only received premiums during the last year, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars; four only received premiums above the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and the premium income of one only exceeded three hundred thousand dollars. The premium receipts of this Company, the HOME, with a capital of $1,000,000, were $829,963.35. The premium income of thirty of the smaller companies was $851,578.65 only, with capitals, however, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,950,000.

The state of things should be improved; the premium income of the mass of our fire insurance companies is by far too small for their capitals, and inadequate to the proper support of a separate and independent corporation. The experience of the HOME, PHOENIX, (of Brooklyn) and some other companies, has demonstrated that, with proper skill, tact and sagacity, business can be increased and managed to an indefinite extent, with entire safety, and even additional security to the company. We have now the machinery and organization in working order for nearly one hundred joint stock fire insurance companies. In the course of a few years their business can be safely doubled, and even quadrupled, without doubling or quadrupling the yearly expenses. Any considerable expansion of business must of course be mainly effected through the instrumentality of reliable, safe, and well managed agencies. The premium income of the HOME amounts to nearly one-eighth part that of the ninety-five companies combined, so that eight corporations like the HOME could conduct the entire business of all these companies. If each company transacted the same amount of business as the HOME the aggregate premium income would reach the enormous amount of over seventy-eight millions of dollars per year. Our companies are not too numerous for the great future of this country, if managed on the progressive scale demanded by the spirit of the American people.

The annual statement of this our foremost local fire and inland company, made up to the first of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, President, A. F. Wilmarth, Vice President, and John McGee, Secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of over half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our State, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the first of January last summed up to $1,521,286.08, against an actual liability of only $55,980.43; and, moreover, it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $424,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company; bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,630. Any one not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution, must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148, taking $829,993 premium, and paid losses $335,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of ten per cent. was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund, the company shows a "nett surplus" of $160,644 clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

MILLS,

SITUATED ON PHALON'S CREEK, WHERE THE STILLWATER ROAD CROSSES.

This Mill is just completed, and is in good running order. Our machinery embraces all the latest improvements, and was got up in the East, without regard to expense. It has two run of Burrs, which will be kept running night and day, so that farmers coming from a distance can be accommodated without much delay.

The need of a first class Mill of this kind has long been felt by the citizens of St. Paul and vicinity. We have secured the services of James Craigie, who has made milling the business of his life, and in whom we can place entire confidence.

All kinds of grain will be weighed when brought to the Mill, and also when taken away, if desired. We feel confident in saying to the public that we can make as good Flour and as great a yield to the bushel as any Mill in Minnesota, and respectfully solicit a fair trial.

Also a new Mill for grinding corn in the ear.

☞All work done at this Mill is warranted. sep30d&wly.

1862. 1862.

LA CROSSE AND ST. PAUL

PACKET COMPANY.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

During the summer of 1862, till the close of navigation, the LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company, having completely equipped their Line and made large additions to their business facilities, will offer to shippers and passengers on the river greater inducements and conveniences, and QUICKER TIME, than was ever offered by any company on the river.

All the boats on the Chippewa, Minnesota, St. Croix and the upper Mississippi rivers, and the different lines of stages north of LaCrosse, will, the coming season run to connect with the Davidson boats and the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company will run a

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE.

The former will number two first class boats—the nicest and fastest on the river. They will be the McCLELLAN and NORTHERN BELLE.—The first will be the Lightning Line, making the run from La Crosse to St. Paul in EIGHTEEN HOURS, and returning will leave here in the morning, and arrive at La Crosse in twelve hours time to connect with the evening train, by which our passengers will make close connection and reach Milwaukee in time for cars, or boats on the Lake in TWENTY HOURS FROM ST. PAUL, and reach Chicago next morning, by Minnesota Junction or Milwaukee, in just TWENTY-FOUR HOURS FROM LEAVING ST. PAUL, and in time for close connection East! This will be the twelve hours the quickest time between these three cities ever made! Nothing but passengers, the mails, express matter, and express goods will be carried on these boats, which will be furnished in the best of style. Passengers will then have daylight to view the grand beauties of the river, and good sleeping cars from La Crosse to Chicago—a great item. Arrangements have also been perfected so that all the boats on the upper rivers and all the stage lines will run in close connection.

The other line will number three regular boats; the Keokuk, G. H. Wilson and Wenona, one of which will leave La Crosse daily on the arrival of the morning train from the East, connecting at all points North, and will also make close connections. The favorite will run a tri-weekly packet between St. Paul and Mankato, on the Minnesota river.

A daily line will run between St. Anthony and St. Cloud on the Upper Mississippi, for passenger and freight business. All News Items.

—The official report of the battle of Pittsburg Landing, just issued at the government printing office, make a volume of 274 pages. Gen. Grant makes no report at all beyond the two or three paragraphs telegraphed from St. Louis a few days after the fight. Secretary Stanton and Gen. Halleck gives the official name of the battle as the "Battle of Pittsburg Landing or Shiloh."

—Tuesday's N. Y. Tribune calls for a meeting of loyal governors at Washington, and says that twenty-two loyal governors could be assembled within a week who would certainly impart to the administration much precious intelligence, regarding the state and the demands of public sentiment, progress of recruiting, best means of promoting success, and the general anxiety of the masses for quick and heavy blows.

—The order of Gov. Gamble calling on all the State militia to fall into line creates intense excitement, and the stampede of the Missouri secesh continues, all being anxious to escape from the effects of the order. Those who cannot get away will undoubtedly go to bushwhacking.

—The New York Independent publishes a list, three columns in length, of the names of clergymen and clergymen's sons who are performing active service in the army as chaplains or officers. The list, says the Independent, grows long and grows glorious.

—The New York Express says: "It is stated that Senator Simmons intends to present the sum of $50,000 to the families of the Rhode Island volunteers., We will believe this when we see it, not before.

—Proposals for furnishing complete rations at ten new camps in Ohio, were opened on Friday in Columbus. The bids ranged from twelve to twenty dollars per hundred rations. The average of the lowest bids for the ten camps is $14.65. Contracts will be made at $13.28. to $13.50 for all camps.

—B. S. Moulton, Inspector of government arms, informs the N. Y. Tribune that in his judgment there are not less than 300,000 stand of arms in the warehouse in Franklin, Worth, White and Warren street, New York.

—The sum of $1,000 has been raised in Lawrence, Mass., for the starving poor of Ireland, and it will probably be increased to $1,400.

—Rebel sympathizers are called "copperheads" in Main: the state of public feeling is not very pleasant to them, and a large number of them recently left for Canada on the midnight train.

FROM KENTUCKY.

Reported Capture of Russellville by Guerrillas.

GOV. MAGOFFIN CONVENES THE LEGISLATURE.

LOUISVILLE, July 29.—It is reported that guerrillas under Colonel Gano, of Morgan notoriety, took Russellville this afternoon, killing one or two of our Lieutenants, and badly wounding Capt. Morrow of the Kentucky volunteers. Other reports say that a collision between the home guards at Russellville took place, either from mistake or otherwise, a few hours after the rebel capture of Russellville. A portion of a federal regiment was due there and has probably arrived and reinstated matters The line is working south to Nashville, but we can get nothing further from Russellville, which is on a branch line, to-night. The theory here is that the rebels took away the operator before the arrival of our forces.

Governor Magoffin's proclamation of yesterday calling together the Kentucky Legislature August 14th, after remarking that the military board still claims to be the paramount military authority of the commonwealth, and an unwillingness to resign the powers heretofore exercised by them, or to permit their exercise by me, continues:

"Civil conflict is impending over us. I am without a soldier or a dollar to protect the lives, property and liberties of the people, or to enforce the laws. Daily appeals are being made to me as Governor of the State to protect our citizens from marauding bands, and in the peaceable enjoyment of their property and rights under the constitution. I am without the means and power to afford relief, and I am left no alternative but to appeal to you, their representatives, in the hope that it will not be in vain. Any attempt upon my part to organize a force for that purpose will certainly but precipitate the evil, and I therefore not unwillingly convene the general assembly that they may themselves determine the extent of the authority granted by them, and, looking to the policy adopted in the State, and the late action of Congress and the President touching the question of slavery, provide for the safety of our institutions and the peace and tranquility of the commonwealth."

—Mr. H. P. Tuttle, of the Harvard College Observatory, discovered another telescopic comet on the evening of the 18th instant. Its motion is toward the north. The one discovered by Mr. Tuttle on the 3d instant is still visible.

ST. PAUL, August 1st, 1862.

MR. EDITOR:—Having been an attentive listener at the late meetings held at the capitol, I beg leave to make the following proposition: It is known to many of our citizens that I have been engaged in recruiting for a company, and it may not be out of place to say that I have spent both time and money. Many of us some months since said, that when Government actually needed us we would go. In my humble opinion, that time has now arrived. I propose to be one of twenty (to sign papers) to meet at the City Hall, on Wednesday, August 6th, and march to Fort Snelling and swear in as high privates. The city bounty money (four hundred dollars) to be left in the hands of the Mayor and City Council, for the relief of the families of any volunteer in the Sixth Regiment.

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 26.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO,
IN CAMP, NEAR FLORENCE, ALA.,
June 24, 1862.

There are 13,000 officers and soldiers absent from their duty with the various Divisions of this army. Some of them have gone off without any authority; others with the permission of officers not authorized to grant it. In general, sickness is given as the cause of absence, but in very many cases the cause has notoriously ceased to exist, and men remain away, drawing the same pay as the comrades who are faithfully performing their duty. To correct this abuse it is ordered—

1. All officers and soldiers who are absent without direct authority from these Headquarters, the period for which has not transpired, will, on or before the 10th of July, proximo, join their companies or regiments wherever they may be. If ignorant of their locality, they will report to the commanding officer at Louisville or Nashville, by whom they will be directed to their regiments, or put on such light duty as they may be able to perform, if they are not entirely fit for active service; and these will be promptly reported to their regimental commanders by the officer so assigning them.

The cases of those who fail to join as above required, will be disposed of as follows:

2. If any absent officer or soldier, in consequence of sickness or wounds, is absolutely unable to report for duty as above required, he will forward by mail to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville, Tennessee" a Certificate of Disability, according to the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY.

I declare on oath that I have carefully examined.....of Captain.....Company, Colonel.....Regiment of .....Volunteers, now at this place and under treatment by me, and find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier for the following reasons: [Here state all the facts known concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the the injury occurred or disease originated; the duty or situation of the officer or soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted; and whatever facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.]

Place: (Signed)
Date: Surgeon [or Physician.]
Sworn and subscribed to before

This certificate must be subscribed and sworn to by a Surgeon or private Physician in good standing, and known as such by the magistrate or other officer by whom the oath is administered; and on it a discharge will be ordered from these Headquarters, or the case otherwise disposed of according to the circumstances.

3. The death of any officer or soldier which has occurred since the 1st of January last, while he was absent from his regiment or company, and which has been reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital in which the death occurred, or by the friends of the deceased if not in Hospital, will be immediately reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital, or by the affidavit of friends, to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville," setting forth the date of decease and other material circumstances.

4. All absent officers and soldiers who do not join their companies and regiments, or are not satisfactorily accounted for as above by the 10th of July next, will be reported on their muster-roll as deserters, dating from the time they may have been absent without authority.

By Act of Congress every deserter forfeits all claim on the Government for pay and allowances, besides being liable to arrest and trial by Court Martial. Any person who apprehends and returns a deserter to the commanding officer of a military post is entitled to five dollars.

MORTGAGE SALE.—WHEREAS, default has been made in the condition of the mortgage executed by Eugenia L. Ingraham and George H. Ingraham, Jr., her husband, the mortgagors, to Orlo Bartholomew, the mortgagee, dated the twelfth day of April, 1861, recorded in the office of Register of Deeds of Ramsey County, in the State of Minnesota, on the thirteenth day of April, 1861, at 10½ o'clock in the forenoon, in Book R of Mortgages, pages 500, 501, 502, 503, to secure the payment of the sum of six hundred dollars, and interest according to the condition of the note of said mortgagors of even date therewith, held by the said mortgagee, payable one year after the date thereof, with interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum, of and upon certain real estate, in said Ramsey County, described in said mortgage, as follows, to wit: "Lot number twelve (12) in block number four (4) of Dayton's Addition to the city of Saint Paul, according to the recorded plat thereof, together with the improvements thereon erected, being the same parcel of land conveyed by Lyman Dayton and wife to William Spencer, and by William Spencer and wife to William Burk, and by William Burk and wife to George H. Ingraham, Jr.;" (to which said mortgage there is attached a writing, of even date with said mortgage and therewith recorded, executed by the said mortgagors, whereby the said mortgagors waive and surrender to the said mortgagee, their right and benefit of redemption in the premises, as by reference to the same will more fully appear;)

And, whereas, the said mortgage debt has not been paid, or any part thereof, and no proceedings have been instituted at law to recover the said debt, or any part thereof, and there is claimed to be due, and is due, at the date of this notice, upon the said note and mortgage, the sum of six hundred and eighty-four 58-100 dollars:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgaged premises will be sold at public auction or vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Saint Paul, in said Ramsey County, on the seventeenth day of September, A. D. 1862, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to satisfy the said mortgage debt and expenses and costs allowed by law.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

The only important item by telegraph is the rumor of McClellan's army embarking, to take up a new line of approach to Richmond. If there is truth in the rumor, it means that he will cross over James River, and take Fort Darling in the way, thus removing the obstruction to the co-operation of the gunboats, and indeed, by this route he would be taking Richmond in the rear, where it is to be presume there are no fortifications.

Violent storms below prevented our getting full dispatches.

Chaplain Fisk's Sermon.

Editor Press:

After a careful reading of Mr. Fisk's sermon on the conduct of the war, published in your paper of Sunday last, I cannot resist the conclusion that your editorial comments thereon do him very great injustice.

I do not see that he advocates the taking or destroying of private property in this war except, so far as needed, or as it will directly weaken the armed opposing force of the enemy." His complaint is only that this has not been done. That we have guarded for rebels the grain, fruit, the flocks and herds and divers necessaries, for want of which our soldiers have suffered,—yes, died; and so those very supplies so kept from our soldiers have gone to feed and support the rebel armies, who come and seize them as soon as our armies withdraw. Is he not right in complaining of this, and in urging that we should take from rebels whatever our loyal soldiers need?

It is very true as you say, that "to advocate the universal and sweeping destruction of everything of the enemy—burning dwellings and engulphing women and children in one merciless destruction—is only mad fanaticism and a return to barbarism."

But I look in vain through the whole sermon for any suggestion which justifies such a criticism. I can find no such course advocated therein or even suggested. Can you? If so please state it in terms.

Mr. Fiske does advocate the appropriation of all rebel property that is needed to supply our own wants. Is not that right?

He further says substantially, in answer to the objection that such a course should "involve the distress of the innocent wives and households of traitors."

First. That their wives and households are the nurses and nurseries of the very treason that we fight.

Secondly, That it is far better that the households of traitors should suffer, than that the loyal North should be filled with the cries and tears and lamentations of widows and orphans of those brave men who are perishing daily for want of this wholesome severity towards traitors.

The destruction of the crops of traitors which he advocates is a measure necessary to prevent their being used to support the rebel army. The burning of the rebels home is needed to prevent its being used as a rendevous for traitors, and a shelter from which rebel sharpshooters (as at Winchester and a host of other places) can pick off our own soldiers. If this sharp, but wholesome and needed severity comes upon the families of traitors, who but the traitors are responsible for it?

The only objectionable phrase I see in the sermon on this point consists of the words "everything destructible destroyed." And yet, taken in this connection, it would seem that no one could understand these words as applying, or meant to apply to the property of any but these who give aid and comfort to the public enemy.

For myself, I am free to say that I would rather see the family of every rebel suffer in this terrible war, than that one loyal soldier's wife should be widowed, and his children made orphans. But I would not, nor would the preacher I am sure, for one moment countenance the infliction of any wanton suffering upon the innocent wife or child of the most wicked and wanton rebel.

If a woman, however, chooses to unsex herself and to actively participate in this rebellion, playing the spy as many have done, can she claim the privileges of her sex? Can she put off her sex to murder our men, and again clothe herself with her womanhood to avoid the punishment due her crime? * * *

That our readers may judge whether or not our criticism of Mr. Fiske's sermon was justified, we reproduce the following expressions in this discourse, which are there without any qualification.

Our readers, we trust, will not be misled into the belief that we do not heartily endorse all that Chaplain Fiske said about making the war one in earnest. This we do most decidedly endorse. We have only expressed regret that zeal in the advocacy of a right cause should have carried the preacher into the commendation of that which the acknowledged rules of the sternest warfare of civilized nations does not sanction. We leave it to fair inference from what we quote if this be not so:

We must grasp now the dire, sweeping, desolating brand. * * * * * * * * The crops of rebels destroyed—the houses of rebels wrapped in flames. * * * Everything destructible destroyed. * * No vestige of any rebel thing ought to be left in our track. The agony will be sharp but short. * * * * * Do we shrink from the wail of suffering infancy and age and womanhood? Woman here has unsexed herself, and deserves sorrow. * * * * Innocence we find, but in babes. Alas! we cannot shelter them. On guilty fathers' and mothers' heads be the curse of every infant's cry in this stern war! * * * * * "Let the assassin perish, perish, PERISH, root and branch, utterly and forever!" It is the unanimous voice of eighteen millions of loyal people against treason. The breezes of God bear it. The will of God is in it. All lesser cries and wailings shall be drowned in these.

Bounty to Volunteers.

Editor Press:

An article appeared in the Pioneer and Democrat, a day or two since, under the above caption. While endorsing the main features of the article, I, who purpose to go with the Sixth regiment, cannot consent to stand in the position of a beggar for my family's support. I look upon the proposition to raise a fund by subscription or otherwise, for the support of those patriotic men, prompted by duty and an ardent love of the Union, as asking only a right, asking only wages.

We go to swell the Grand Army of the Union; to put down the rebellion. We risk life and health. We leave, many of us, lucrative positions, pleasant, happy homes, and the society of wife and children. We leave a healthy climate, and what do we brave? The exposures of camp life, the forced march, the unhealthy, nay, pestilential, climate of the South, the inhuman warfare of hell-begotten demons, a separation from friends, and risk of life at every moment.

The glorious Union, the honor and even the existence of the State is in our hands. Where would go the credit of Minnesota, or of our proud city, should this rebellion prevail? and if no one goes, how will the rebellion be crushed? and if none go but single men, how long will it take to fill up the ranks? and if the pay and bounty already offered is not sufficient to support a family, do you think patriotism is strong enough to take me away, knowing that my family must suffer for food or beg for it? and do not all feel as I do? and now do you wonder that enlistments are so slow?

I speak the truth when I say, if you want the Sixth Regiment filled speedily without disgrace to the State, and to each individual inhabitant of the State who is able to give a dollar, you must open your purses. You must go to work in earnest and raise a fund which shall not be looked upon or considered as charity or gift, but as paying wages to men who work for you—men who do work that you ought to do. You can do it yourself or employ others to do it for you. This is the case, properly stated. I may or may not participate in the wages. I may be able to work for you for nothing and board myself, but this is not the question, all cannot do it, and will not do it, if they can.

You will read these appeals when you are at the breakfast table, or sitting in your pleasant parlor or office enjoying the pleasures of home and society, while your neighbors are away suffering privations and sickness; yet your well filled purse has no heart, has no sympathy has no humanity. Out upon base ingratitude like this: by no other name can it be called.

Saint Paul, the great capital of a great State, gives less bounty, or in other words, offers fewer inducements to her citizens to fill the quota of the last call (seventy-five men) than the smallest county in the outskirts of the State. Sherburne county offers sixty dollars to each volunteer, to fill up her quota, and your neighboring county, over the river, gives $35 to each volunteer, and her company numbers more men than any company organizing in Saint Paul, which has the largest population.

I tell you, gentlemen of wealth and leisure, you want the Union saved, your homes protected—you want us to do it, and you must pay us, in part, for it. That is the point

There are many ways in which this can be done, but in no way more certainly and satisfactorily than that suggested by the correspondent of the Pioneer. There is probably not a business man in St. Paul who would not be willing to pledge and deposit a certain amount monthly: many citizens of wealth would give larger sums.

Who will move in this matter, and let the State and the nation know that we are not behind our neighboring cities or States in aiding to preserve our great and good Union? SIGELGUARD.

First Minnesota Regiment in the late Battles.

LETTER OF LIEUT.-COL. MILLER.

A copy of the following letter to the New York Herald, has been on our table for several days, but been overlooked until we are reminded of it, by its republication in our city cotemporary:

Editors New York Herald.

DEAR SIR: Owing to the fact that the Sunday Herald, but rarely reaches the army, my attention was not called to the following extracts from the correspondence in yon journal of the 6th inst., until this morning.

"The First Minnesota were thrown out as skirmishers at Peach Orchard on the 29th. * * * * * The force of the enemy was so large however, that the Minnesota boys were soon obliged to fall back, which they did finely under Colonel Sully."

"At Savage's Station, Baxter's Zouaves, and the First Minnesota, were then thrown out to skirmish. Smith's Division protected us from the flanking columns of the rebels upon our left. The skirmishers were soon hurled back in confusion, by the terrific front and flanking fire of the enemy."

Your correspondent must have been strangely misinformed, Col. Sully having been placed in charge of the Brigade, owing to the illness of Gen. Gorman, I was with and in command of the regiment during the entire march, and know the following to be the facts in the case.

1st. The First Minnesota was not thrown out at all as skirmishers, either at Peach Orchard or Savage's Station.

2nd. At Peach Orchard, it gallantly and coolly supported the Rhode Island Battery, no man attempted to "fall back."

3d. At Savage's Station, when the regiment lost eighty men, we were for more than three hours under fire of the enemy, and for the first half hour had no protection to our left flank, but not a man was "hurled back in confusion," nor did our our line waver for a moment. We held our ground until dark, and until we resumed the march by order of Gen. Gorman. Our's was the last regiment to leave the position, and that gallant officer Gen. Burns, from whom I took my instructions, said to me on the next day "your regiment did nobly sir."

During the two battles at Fair Oakes, and the four severe engagements upon the recent march, this regiment stood like a wall of brass under the severest tests: and at Bull Run, and Edward's Ferry, it received the most flattering notice of able and experienced Generals.

And as we are the oldest three year Volunteer Regiment in the service, and come from a young and distant State, and have no city correspondents or journals to guard our fame; you will not blame us for being jealous of a reputation so dearly and honorably established, and for respectfully asking the publication of this note.

Yours truly.

STEPHEN MILLER,
Lieut.-Colonel Commanding.

NEAR HARRISON'S LANDING, Va., July 14th, 1862.

From Lake Superior.

SUPERIOR CITY, July 28, 1862.

Editor Press:

The steamer Water Witch arrived early Sunday morning from Cleveland and Detroit. She has been thoroughly repaired, and will be hereafter at Superior on time. She remained about three hours, then started from Quebec pier, and thence out of the harbor, in fine style, on her return trip. The clerk informed me that the freight on light cattle from Superior to Ontonagon was two dollars, and four dollars per head for heavy; they charge at least eight dollars per head from Detroit and Chicago to Ontonagon. Minnesota drovers have in freight alone a great advantage over Detroit shippers. Now is the time to visit Superior with cattle. See card of sailing days in the PRESS, and calculate certain on the arrival of the Water Witch, at Superior about 4 days from Detroit. They charge about seventy-five cents per sheep from Detroit, Cleveland or Chicago to Superior, and for a large number probably less. The distance from Superior to Sunrise is one hundred miles, road in first-rate order, plenty of pasturage along the way-side. Who will import via Superior a drove of sheep into Northern Minnesota?

The schooner Neptune, of Superior, says the Ontonagon Minor, of July 19th, arrived on Monday evening, with 70,000 feet of lumber, being her fourth trip this season. She also brought sixteen head of beef cattle, a quantity of potatoes and eighteen passengers. The Neptune has brought to Ontonagon 300,000 feet of lumber this spring. She left Superior recently with a full load of lumber for Eagle River.

Four passengers left via stage this morning for St. Paul.

The mail stage arrived this afternoon with the St. Paul PRESS, three days from date.

The schooner Ford cleared this evening with a full cargo of lumber for Ontonagon. Thus, St. Paul telegraphs will reach Ontonagon via Superior in four days from date. Two teams will arrive here from St. Cloud to-morrow. R.

Resolutions of Respect for Lieutenant Harley.

CAMP NEAR HARRISON'S LANDING, JAMES RIVER, July 20th, 1862.

Editor Press.

At a meeting of the members of Company I, First Minnesota Volunteers, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted, with the request that they be published in the St. Paul DAILY PRESS:

1st. Resolved, That the resignation of Lieutenant Joseph Darley has caused deep regret among the members of the company to which he belonged. He was brave, generous, and kind, obliging to every one he came in contact with.

2d. Resolved, That we shall ever cherish that love and respect for him that has ever been felt towards him during the period of fourteen months he has been with us.

3d. Resolved, That we deeply regret that while maintaining the stars and Stripes at the battle of Bull Run he should have received wounds that have caused him to suffer so much and finally to separate him from us: that he may rest assured the best wishes of both officers and men will follow him wherever he may go.

The Murfreesboro Surrender.

OFFICIAL NOTICE BY GENERAL BUELL.

HE CHARACTERIZES IT AS MOST DISGRACEFUL.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO, IN CAMP, HUNTSVILLE, Ala., July 21.

GENERAL ORDER NO 32.

On the 13th inst. the force at Murfreesboro, under command of Brigadier General T. T. Crittenden, late Colonel of the 6th Indiana regiment, and consisting of six companies of the 9th Michigan, nine companies of the 3d Minnesota, two sections of Hewitt's Kentucky battery, four companies of the 4th Kentucky cavalry, and three companies of the 7th Kentucky cavalry, was captured at that place by a force of the enemy's cavalry variously estimated at from 1,800 to 3,500.

It appears from the best information that can be obtained that Brigadier General Crittenden and Colonel Duffield, of the 9th Michigan, with the six companies of that regiment and all of the cavalry, were surprised and captured early in the morning, in the houses and streets of the town, or in their camp near by, with but slight resistance, and without any timely warning of the presence of an enemy. The rest of the force, consisting of the 3d Minnesota and the artillery, left its camp and took another position, which it maintained with but few casualties against the feeble attacks of the enemy until about three o'clock, when it was surrendered and marched into captivity.

Take it in all its features, few more disgraceful examples of neglect of duty and lack of good conduct can be found in the history of wars. It fully merits the extreme penalty which the law provides for such misconduct. The force was more than sufficient to repel the enemy effectually. The mortification which the army will feel at the result is poorly compensated by the exertion made by some, perhaps many, of the officers to retrieve the disgrace of the surprise. The action fit to be adopted with reference to those who are blamable, especially the officers highest in command, cannot be determined without further investigation.

In contrast to this shameful affair, the general commanding takes pleasure in making honorable mention of the conduct of a detachment of twenty-two men of companies I and H, 19th Wisconsin regiment, under the command of Sergeants W. Nelson and A. H. Mankinson. The detachment was on duty guarding a bridge east of Huntsville, when it was attacked, on the 28th of April, by a force of 200 or 300 cavalry, which it fought for two hours and repulsed in the most signal manner.

Such is the conduct that duty and honor demand of every soldier; and this example is worthy of imitation by higher officers and larger commands.

By command of Major General BUELL.

J. B. FRY.
Colonel and Chief of Staff.

MANUFACTURE ON GOVERNMET ARMS.—The armory in springfield, Mass., makes 14,000 stand of arms a month. In a short time it will be able, with the privates shops in operation there, to manufacture 35,000 guns per month. The other armories in New England, will each be able to furnish the government with 200 guns per day. Our firearms are better than the best Europe can afford, and we shall soon be making them at the rate of 600,000 per annum.

They have not perished,—No!
Kind words, remembered voices, once so sweet,
Smiles radiant, long ago—
And features, the great soul's apparent seat:
All shall come back;—each the
Of pure affection shall be knit again;—
Alone shall evil die,
And sorrow dwell a prisoner in thy reign.

The Rebel Merrimacs Below Fort Darling.

The Rebels Across James River.

Open Fire on McClellan's Center.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 1.

It is rumored and believed here that the new Merrimac has come down as far as Fort Darling.

One thing is authentic, that the Federal gunboats have passed up the river beyond Harrison's Landing.

A detachment of infantry and cavalry from McClellan's army made a reconnoissance down the Chickahominy, and came towards Williamsburg till they met our pickets. They then returned, and reported not having seen the enemy.

Last night between 12 and 1 o'clock the rebels opened fire on McClellan's centre for about an hour and a half, with four batteries of flying artillery opposite the landing, some above and some below. Not one-third of their shells exploded. Several vessels were struck by fragments of shells, but no one on the fleet was injured. Nine soldiers were killed and wounded. After half an hour's delay, our sesge guns opened fire, and in less than 40 minutes the rebels were silenced. If the motive of the rebels was to draw our gunboats down the river they were disappointed, as none have made their appearance.

Nothing further has been heard of the rebel Merrimac, No. 2.

From Fortress Monroe.

Arrival of 3,000 Rebel Prisoners for Exchange.

Rebel Barbarities at Newbern.

FORTRESS MONROE, August 2.

The steamers Baltic and Atlantic have arrived with 3,000 rebel prisoners from Fort Delaware, to be exchanged—General Pettigrew among them.

Nothing new has been heard from the gunboats above.

Newbern advices of the 30th state that M. J. Galvin, of company C, 23d Massachusetts regiment, was shot in the street while doing guard duty at night. The shot was fired from a house, and is the fourth attempt to murder guards. All the inhabitants in the neighborhood have been secured, and all suspicious characters jailed. Six or seven adjacent buildings have been demolished.

Rumors of McClellan's Army Embarking for a new Line of Operations.

An Expedition Across James River

Trouble Continues in Missouri from Enrollment Order.

WASHINGTON, August 3.

[Special to Post.]—There was a report in Washington on Saturday that General McClellan's army were embarking on transports for the purpose of changing the place of advance upon Richmond. The rumor was startling to the general public, but gratifying to the more thoughtful, who think the successful performance of such change would greatly improve the situation. The rumor had its origin, no doubt, in the expedition that has just effected an important movement across the James river.

The order of the Governor of Missouri for the enrollment of all the militia of that State, is still causing considerable trouble in St. Louis. Hundreds of mechanics who were at work on the gunboats and in the iron plate mills threatened to leave the State to avoid the conscription and mill owners are here to procure a modification of the Governor's proclamation.

The Rebel Army in Great Destitution.

SPERRYVILLE, August 2.

[Special to N. Y. Tribune.]—Colonel Robinson, provost marshal, has arrested between 60 and 70 citizens of Rappahannock county, who will not take the oath of allegiance. Three days grace has been granted, at the expirntion of which time if they do not they will be sent away beyond the lines.

Two intelligent German deserters from the rebel army came within our lines last evening. They left Richmond two weeks ago, and state that great distress prevailed in the rebel camp; that all the soldiers are living upon nothing but fresh beef and flour, with no salt, sugar nor coffee; that regiments would not average more than 300 men. They also pretend that their condition was more desperate than it had been at any time during the war.

Arrival from the Isthmus.

NEW YORK, August 4.

Arrived, the steamer Northern Light from Aspinwall, with $957,500 specie. News from the Isthmus and South America, unimportant. Panama still excited. The bishop had removed all the church ornaments to safe places to prevent falling into the hands of Mosquera. The military had seized all the muskets and ammunition belonging to the Police force. Panama probably will soon be under military government.

MORTGAGE SALE!!—DEFAULT having been made in the conditions of a certain indenture of mortgage executed and delivered June 3rd, 1857, by Frank Welzel and Margaret Welzel, his wife, of the county of Ramsey, then Territory, now State, of Minnesota, to Ira Bidwell, of the city of Adrian, in the State of Michigan, and duly recorded in the Registry of Deeds of said county of Ramsey, June 4th, A. D. 1857, at 2½ o'clock P. M. in Book "K" of Mortgages, on page 402, &c., and also duly recorded in said Registry of Deeds of said county of Ramsey, May 13th, A. D. 1858, at 3½ o'clock P. M. in Book "N" of Mortgages, on pages 90 and 91, conveying to said Ira Bidwell, the west half of section twenty-one (21), the west half of the northeast quarter and the north half of the southeast quarter of said section twenty-one (21), and the north half of the southwest quarter of section number twenty-two (22), in township number thirty (30) north of range number twenty-three (23) west of the fourth principal meridian, containing according to government survey, five hundred and sixty acres, more or less, situated in said county of Ramsey, and State of Minnesota, and upon which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice, the sum of $5,571.63, as per note signed by F. Welzel & Co., to said Bidwell of the same date of, and secured by said mortgage, and no suit or proceedings at law or otherwise have been had to recover any part thereof:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and pursuant to statute, the said mortgage will be foreclosed and the premises therein described sold at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Saint Paul, in said county of Ramsey, and State of Minnesota, on the 18th day of September, 1862, at 10 o'clock A. M. to satisfy the amount then due on said note and mortgage, so far as the proceeds of said sale will pay the same, with the costs of sale.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE.—Whereas, William C. Gray, of the city of Saint Paul, in the county of Ramsey, and State of Minnesota, now deceased, on the 23d day of May, A. D. 1860, executed and delivered to David Sanford, of the same place, a certain indenture of mortgage of that date, which was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of the said county of Ramsey, Minnesota, on the 25th day of May, 1860, at 11 o'clock A. M., in Book "Q" of Mortgages, on pages 420, 421, 422 and 423, whereby the said William C. Gray did grant, bargain, sell and convey (in mortgage) to said David Sanford, his heirs and assigns, the following described piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in said county of Ramsey, Minnesota, viz:

The north half [½] of the northeast quarter [¼] of section number twenty-two [22] of township number twenty-eight [28] of range number twenty-three [23] west, containing eighty [80] acres of land, according to the United States survey thereof, together with all and singular the hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto in any wise appertaining, to secure the payment of the sum of $818, and interest thereon, according to the condition of two promissory notes, dated said 23d day of May, 1860, executed by said William C. Gray, payable and delivered as follows: One to said David sanford for $48, and one to M. M. Sanford for $80, both due one year from the date thereof, and both now in the possession of and controlled by said David Sanford.

And, whereas, said William C. Gray did, on said 23d day of May, A. D. 1860, for a valuable consideration, also duly execute and deliver to said David sanford an instrument in writing, which was also duly recorded at the same time with said mortgage in the office of the Register of Deeds of said county, in the Book and on the pages aforesaid, with said indenture of mortgage, whereby said William C. Gray did, for himself, his heirs and assigns, duly waive and surrender to said David Sanford, his heirs and assigns, by virtue of and pursuant to "an act to regulate the foreclosure of real estate," approved March 10th, 1860,) all his and their rights of redemption of, in and to said premises so mortgaged and every part thereof:

And, whereas, there is now, at the date of this notice, claimed to be due and is due on said promissory notes and mortgage, the sum of $1,020.64:

And, whereas, said David Sanford hereforore gave notice, according to law, of the sale of said premises, and the foreclosure of said mortgage, which sale and foreclosure was, on the 16th day of July, 1861, enjoined in an action commenced in the District Court of said county of Ramsey, wherein one George W. Armstrong was plaintiff, and said David Sanford defendant, and which said action, on the 9th day of October last, was dismissed on motion of said defendant:

And, whereas, said David sanford also gave further notice, according to law, of the sale of said premises and the foreclosure of said mortgage, which sale and foreclosure was, on the 27th day of November, 1861, also enjoined in an action commenced in said District Court, wherein said Armstrong is plaintiff, and said David Sanford defendant, and the injunction issued therein has since been dissolved and vacated, on motion of said defendant, and judgment in said action rendered and entered up for costs in favor of said defendant and against said plaintiff:

And no suit or proceeding at law except as aforesaid, has been had or instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage, or any part thereof, and no part thereof has been paid:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that default has been made in the payment of the said sum of $1,020.64, due as aforesaid, and that said mortgaged premises will be sold by the Sheriff of said county of Ramsey, at public auction, under and by virtue of a power of sale contained in said mortgage, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of St. Paul, in the county of Ramsey, and State of Minnesota, on the 18th day of September, A. D. 1862, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to satisfy and pay the amount due on said promissory notes and mortgage, at that date, and costs of foreclosure.

—It is stated that Henry J. Raymond, editor of the New York Daily Times, is about to retire from that establishment. No reason is given for this change, except that Mr. Raymond is at present too sick to attend to business.

—Ex-Governor Campbell has accepted, unconditionally, the command of the Tennessee Brigade, and not, as reported, on the proviso that it should remain within the State.

—Rev. O. H. Tiffany, of Chicago, who spoke in St. Paul, Thursday evening, is making eloquent war speeches elsewhere in the Mississippi river cities. He is doing much to arouse the patriotism of the people of the Northwest.

—The reports from Pope's department that the rebels are moving out of Richmond southward, causes great discussion in Washington, but are not generally believed, though it is suspected that the rebels must be engaged in carrying out some aggressive plan. The prevalent belief is that they are in some way going to make a desperate attempt at capturing McClellan's army before Halleck can make any use of it in his new combinations. Many insist that but a small force would be found opposing Pope, while the rebels have been massing heavy forces in Richmond. If the rebels are moving from Richmond they must have begun within the last three days. Released prisoners only three days from there say they were accumulating their forces near Richmond then.

—Thalberg has made an American engagement for forty nights, commencing in December. He will appear in New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington.

—The Dubuque Herald, of a recent date, announces that Mrs. E. A. Gross, of that city, gave birth to a plump little citizen of twenty-four pounds weight. This may be called gross weight.

—The Paris correspondent of the London Times, writing on the 16th of July, says: "A genealogist has found out, and cites, in support of his discovery, volume 2 of a work published in 1858 by M. Brasseur de Bourbourg, entitled 'L'Histoire des Nations Civilisees du Mexique,' that the Empress Eugenie is the true heiress of the throne of Mexico through her ancestors, the Spanish Counts de Guzman, who were descendants of Montezuma."

—Laura Bridgman, the celebrated deaf, dumb and blind girl, was baptized by immersion at Hanover, New Hampshire, a few days ago.

—We are glad to see that the Chicago Post—the organ of the Douglas Democracy of the Northwest—takes high ground in opposition to the sentiments and policy approved by the "Fire-in-the-Rear Democracy" at Indianapolis on Wednesday last. The Post does well.

—A more keen than honest Vermonter, named Thomas, slipped down to Boston and pocketed a sixty dollar bounty, then slipped back to try the same game in his own State. The authorities have hold of him now.

—Prentice says: "Jeff. Davis is gathering a million of 'butternuts' for us to crack this fall and winter. All that should be forthcoming now is the nutcrackers."

Call for Patriotic Printers.

CHICAGO, July 30, 1862.

To the Printers of the Northwest:

The undersigned, proprietors and editors of papers in the city, in order to advance enlistments, and at the same time aid the craft in giving the typos of the West a favorable position in the Grand Union Army, agree to give all aid within our power for the formation of a Union Typo Battalion, to rendezvous in the city of Chicago, and to receive a share in the extraordinary bounty offered by this county. To secure efficiency and a pledge of good faith in furtherance of this object, we agree to the appointment of John M. Farquhar, President of the National Typographical Union, and now a private in the ranks of the army from Illinois, as chief of the recruiting service of the said service.

C. H. RAY, for the Tribune.
JAMES W. SHERMAN, for Chicago Post.
STORY & WORDEN, of the Times.
S. P. ROUNDS, } For the JERRY S. THOMPSON, } Job Printers.

I cheerfully accept, for the cause of an united America, the position in which my friends, by the foregoing, have placed me, and would announce to the printer boys of the Northwest and their immediate friends, that any letters addressed to me at box No. 2,733, Chicago postoffice, will be attended to, or personal application at any of the offices represented by the above named gentlemen will be immediately attended to.

JOHN M. FARQUHAR.

Loyalty of the Germans.

We are informed, that among all the German denizens of St. Louis, none have sought certificates of protection from consulates. They have declined to renounce their citizenship, actual or prospective, in the hour of peril. Having sought residence here, they accept its duties with its privileges—the burden with the benefit. A very few applications have been made, we are told, but in every instance by persons properly non-American, and staying here, bona fide, for a temporary purpose. In no case, we are assured, has a German who has fixed his domicile here, sought a refuge under any other flag. There is an admirable incongruity in the German character that is worthy of all men's respect.—Missouri Democrat.

ANOTHER GREAT WAR MEETING IN CHICAGO.

Speeches by Gov. Yates, Hon. John Sherman and Owen Lovejoy.

Last Friday evening there was another enthusiastic war meeting in Chicago, at which Gov. Yates, Senator Sherman, of Ohio, and Owen Lovejoy spoke. We make the following extracts from the speeches:

FROM GOV. YATES' SPEECH.

The policy of reconciliation is fatal, utterly fatal. Our only chance now is to depend upon ourselves, and each man upon himself—to do all that you can, to give all that you possess, if you love your country as you ought to love it—the greatest country that God ever gave to man. Your duty is to pour out everything, treasure and blood, and die, if need be, to save this glorious cause of ours. [Loud applause.] Fellow citizens, my opinions with regard to this cause are well known. From the first, from the day of my inaugural down to the present time, I have been in favor of employing all the means within our reach for the vigorous prosecution of this war. [Cheers and cries of "good, good."] And I stand up here to-night to say as I did the other night, "my voice is still for war," [applause.] for, stern, relentless, resistless, stupendous, and exterminating war. [Great enthusiasm] and I am proud to-night to stand up before you, fellow citizens of Chicago, and in the face of the world, if need be, to proclaim that I am for this Government, for suppressing this infernal rebellion. [Renewed applause.] Fellow citizens, the South, as you all remember, asserted long ago that the slaves were an element of their strength, and in this they have been entirely correct, because while their slaves were digging their ditches and building fortifications, the white men were fresh and vigorous for the battle. While the slaves in their fields were providing sustenance for the rebel enemy, and support their families, their wives and their children, the rebel himself was in the army shooting down your brave and gallant men, from behind pickets, and fences, and fortifications built by negroes. Now, my fellow citizens, can this policy be pursued and this country saved? [Cries, "No, no, no."] And let me tell you here that this very night, as for the last ten months, England and France are intervening as they have been intervening all that time to favor the Southern Confederacy. We need not debate the question whether England and France will intervene. They slip their guns and munitions of war into our ports by every conceivable trick of fraud and force, and what they cannot accomplish in that way, they endeavor to attain through their commercial houses in New Orleans, New York, or other cities in the United States. They are intervening as much to-day as though they had declared by public proclamation, recognizing the independence of the Southern Confederacy.

Morover, fellow citizens, to show you the importance of the contest in which we are engaged, I beseech you and beg you, do not flatter yourselves into the idea that the power of the South is exhausted. She has 800,000 valiant warriors in the field now, and I tell you fellow citizens she can have 800,000 more. I ask if in view of these facts it is not our duty to employ all the means within our reach to crush this infernal rebellion. We necessarily are compelled to have two or three men to their one, because ours is an invading army, and we have to protect the territory which we have conquered. In this view of the case, I am free to declare to you here as my honest conviction, and not as a partizan, for I know no party now, no party except my country—I am free to declare that I believe that it the slaves are set free the rebellion dies. [Applause.] While I would provide a compensation for every loyal slave owner, I would let the millions of the earth hail with gladdening shouts the intended banner of universal emancipation. [Great enthusiasm and three cheers for Governor Yates] and as this nation in the years of future marches down through time in glory, grandeur and power, it should never have it said that the clank of one slave's chain was to be heard upon the broad and beautiful domain. [Renewed cheering.

You ask me what I will do with the negroes. I will answer that with a familiar text of Scripture. When Moses was pursued by Pharaoh, his horsemen and chariots, and encamped by the Red Sea, the children of Israel, seeing no escape, murmured. What then did Moses say to them? "Fear ye not: stand still and see the salvation of the Lord." Loud applause.]

Fellow citizens, there is one thing that I do know—if there is emancipation there will not be one single negro more than there is now. [Laughter and applause.] I verily believe, as God is my judge and I am a Southern man too, that there is more of amalgamation, more of negro equality and association, more of ignorance, inhumanity, barbarism and disgrace to our national character in the negro slave than there ever would be in the negro if not subjected to the dictation, the caprices and the lusts of slave owners. [Applause, and cries of "that's true."] I cannot help but believe, my religion or inward suggestion teaches me that a man, be he white or black, who can stand upright in the image of his God as a free man, can make just as much cotton, is just as good a member of society, and will add just as much respectability to the nation, as if he were a slave. [Renewed applause.] What designs a kind Providence may have in regard to the slave, I know not. Whether driven by cruel legislation out of the States, they will seek a more congenial clime in the tropics, or whether they will be employed raising cotton, at remunerative prices, in the cotton States, or whether, as they become a little more independent, they will go to Africa, where the distinction of color is not against them, there to light up the flames of civilization, Christianity and Freedom in that benighted continent—whether either of these destinies may be reserved for them I do not know, but there is one thing that I do know, and that is that slavery is not only in the course of ultimate but immediate extinction. [Great applause.] If written in fire upon yonder sky, it could not more plainly to mortal sight appear that with the vigorous policy which this Government will be required to adopt in consequence of Southern madness, the freedom of the slave is no distant event, and that this policy will be adopted I have no doubt—I know it will be adopted: I know that the President will go for this policy and save the Union. I know the people will go for this policy, and then I know the politicians will sneak in.

GOV. JOHN SHERMAN'S SPEECH—DEFENDING THE FREE POLICY.

How then can we infuse into the Government the earnest, eager, determined spirit that now animates the people of the great Northwest? It is only by uniting the moral power of the people in a demand that our agents should prosecute, not play war—fierce, determined war. But you may ask what measures will satisfy me. Are the authorities not doing all they can? You may think so. I will tell you what I think they could do. Let us have a draft upon the loyal people for enough men to whip the rebels. This ought to have been resorted to long ago. It is the fairest, quickest and cheapest way to raise an army. It will look like work. It is work. Those who are drafted can hire substitutes. I say it is the cheapest way—a matter we cannot longer overlook. In this way we can fill up the old regiments—putting soldiers where they will be most useful and be best cared for. The rebels draft—every civilized nation has drafted. We did in the Revolution and the war of 1812. We should do so now.

Owen Lovejoy makes a characteristic speech, from which we take the following:

I don't want an anti-slavery war, but I do want to use everything that will put down this rebellion—niggers, mules, and all. Suppose some of our generals had a charm—you know there was an old general—Gideon I think his name was, but I am not sure—no, it was Joshua—who blew on the rams' horns, and blew down the walls of Jericho—now suppose some general could blow a blast that would liberate all the slaves in the South, and bring them over on our side, wouldn't he be doing a great thing for us, or should we stop to look for the constitutionality of the thing? We want to take away everything that will weaken th rebels and strengthen our side. These negroes know all the roads, all the swamps, all the country, and they are about all the loyal people in the South that have helped us, and I would proclaim freedom to them all, not for the sake of the negroe, but for the sake of the Government! [Applause.] I know that God is on the side of the right and liberty, and if you want Jehovah to come down on his flaming chariot and help you, in the name of God do right and proclaim liberty! That's what our fathers fought for at Bunker Hill! [Applause.] I believe God is leading us through this affliction to educate us up to the proper standard of liberty. The question is—shall slavery or your national life perish?

What God wants is that we should proclaim liberty throughout the land and to the inhabitants thereof. [Cheers.] When we get into trouble we are very apt to be religious. One high in official station at Washington said to me last winter, "Lovejoy, we must have more prayer. The people must pray vigorously for there's got to be some damned heavy fighting before we finish this war."

It was the saying of Peter the Great, sometimes attributed to Napoleon, that "Providence is on the side of the largest battalions." I say that Providence is on the side of right. [Applause.]

There are some who cry out, why you are going to expel slavery—yes, as the devil was expelled from Heaven.

Slavery had a resting place at one time, but when it plots the destruction of the Government, we have as much right to cast it out as did God to cast out Satan.

Now, then, fellow-citizens, what will you do. I want to know how many of you will take a musket up in your hands? Oh, you don't know how proud we Western men at Washington were of the Western troops—who fought so well and who laid down and died at Pittsburg Landing. How our hearts swelled as we saw them coming down from the Northwest. And now I am here, and I feel my heart expand again, as I look over this field here and see the array of loyal men coming up in their might to support their Government. You know every man is called on to go. We must raise the men. We must cease calling the rebels who won't repent, our Southern brethren.

If every armed rebel should be slain to-night, so long as slavery remains, the rebellion would still remain unerushed. Slavery is the traitor and it must be crushed out of sight. Slavery is your ghost, your rebel and your destroyer. If I had my way I would free every slave, and if you choose to make compensation to loyal slaveholders, I have no objection. I will agree to pay out of my own pocket the value of the slaves if you'll find a Union man among them. You'll not find such. Every slaveholder is a secessionists or an abolitionist, although they may not know it.

I have great confidence in the honesty and patriotism of Abraham Lincoln: I have confidence in the honesty of his anti-slavery principles [cheers]: he is merely unfortunate in some of his surroundings. I believe in using the negro. A loyal black man is none too good to shoot a disloyal rebel. The only means to put a stop to this infernal rebellion is to pronounce the freedom of every black man on the continent. Strike off his shackles, and let the oppressed go free. [Cheers.]

The Beautiful in Death.

BY WILLIAM FULLER HOLT.

[We find the following beautiful lines in the Red Wing Volunteer. They contain rare poetic beauty:]

Hush! step softly! the death dew hath fallen:
The frail earth flower lies damp in its bed;—
An angel stands ready its perfume to gather;—
The rose from her cheek already hath fled;—

Her heart throbs are warning the soul of its journey;
Her pale lips are parted for breath;
The waves of white that gleam on her forehead
Are flowers from the garden of death:

She lies as white as frost flowers in caverns
Whose beauties are wrapped in decay;
She passed in a smile when the sunlight was fading,
And death left the smile where it lay.

Her spirit has shaken its beautiful dust,
From its wings as they spread in their flight:
A shadow falls—but passeth away,
As a dream with the going of night.

Review of Sumner's Corps.

Special Correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune.
With the Army of the Potomac.
NEAR HARRISON'S LANDING, July 2, 1862.

The event of yesterday was a review of Sumner's corps, in order of battle, by its chief.

In the early morning I was awakened by the blare of trumpet and blast of bugle and roll of drum. Rising on my elbow a hundred bayonets flung bright sunlight into my dilating eyes, which soon, not at a glance, but at forty glances, comprehended long lines of soldiery moving somewhere. It dawned upon me at last that a review was on the tapis. I had nearly slept away my over-night's knowledge of the fact. I awoke to hear my boy Horace (per perenthesis, a graduate of the culinary department of Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore; he asked me a day or two since what "part of Philadelfy Jarsey am in,") mutter to himself, while his eyes were as two peeled onions, "Dars heaps oh um yet."

An hour later I was reviewing the troops on my on hook, a little in advance of the General and staff.

A corps d'armee is a complete army—infantry, cavalry and artillery—and in numbers greater than Scott required to conquer a peace in Mexico.

The army of the Potomac comprises five such armies, the chief of each a Major-General.

This is Sumner's corps. These are the men who won Fair Oaks when it had been lost, who had the battle of Savage's Station all to themselves and made it a clean victory; these are they who stand "in battle array" before you. The order reads "review of this corps in order of battle, by its chief."

But you and I were having our review of these men. This division at the right is "Fighting Dick's." I presume army orders still say "Gen. Richardson," but his soldiers know no such personage. At present this man with the best sobriquet in the army, is sick at Fortress Monroe—sickness long postponed in hopes of Richmond. Gen. French is in command today. Meagher's Irish Brigade is a part of the division. For five centuries there have been few battle fields not rich with Irish blood. This brigade has enriched several, and Meagher has gone North for more such gallant blood. In the center is Sedgwick's division. Generals Burns and Dana are at the North. The former was wounded at Savage's. Dana had three horses killed under him at Fair Oaks, himself bore a charmed life. In the thickest, at Savage's, another horse fell, he escaped. The retreat over, he was prostrated by fever. A limb paralyzed by Mexican lead grew worse. Reluctantly, for his "conscience is in the war," he permitted Gen. Sumner to force upon him a leave of absence.

At the left is Gen. Kimball, with a portion of the force that was lately Shield's—heroes of Winchester.

In the rear is the artillery, as much as fifty years ago would have sufficed to conquer the world. Near the center of the line, Capt. Tompkins' Rhode Island Battery is ready to give a Major General's salute—thirteen guns, The "maiden effort" of those guns was at Bull Run.

Now, mark the bearing of the men. There is a gunpowdery grimness about it not seen in onlought men. It is the touch which, added to the soldier, makes the veteran. And the regimental colors have undergone the same change. They are not so nice as when, receiving them from some fair hands, the Colonel made a speech pledging himself and his men that they should not be dishonored: not so nice, but far more beautiful, for the test has come and they are not dishonored.

There is the flag of the 19th Massachusetts—the State flag—which they bear close to Old Glory. Was it a special spite against the Bay State banner? You notice the color-sergeant bears the remaining shreds and patches—humbly? No, but "full high advanced." He grasps the staff a little lower down, that he may place his hand in the scar cut by the bullet that killed his predecessor. Besides, a piece has been shot off the upper end, so that it needs to go a little higher.

Gen. Sumner and staff ride upon the field. Major Lawrence Kip, his Adjutant General, has placed every brigade, and now signals for the salute to be fired. After that is given, the cavalcade ride along all the lines. Meanwhile, Gen. McClellan, with a few officers, appears—"merely on a visit," he tells Gen. Sumner, and refuses to accept the proffered salute. By and by, the whole corps marches in review past the Generals, and the review is over. The troops marched to their camps impressed with the idea expressed by my "Horace" in the morning—that their numbers are still formidable.

This Society was organized in the year 1859, with a cash capital of $100,000 deposited irrevocably with the Insurance Department of the state of New York, in United States bonds, on which it allows but seven per cent. per annum to the stockholders, and the entire profits of the business is shared by the policy holders. The nett profits in two years amounts to $120,000, which shows an unparalleled success in the history of Life Insurance. Its operations are managed by a Board of Directors composed of the oldest business men of the country, and its business is business men of the country, and its business is conducted entirely on the cash plan. Dividends to the policy holders will be made every five years, and no Company in the country offers equal advantages to its dealers.

HOME
INSURANCE COMPANY,
NEW YORK.

Extract from Third Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York. WM. BARNES,
Superintendent.

There are now ninety-five joint stock fire insurance companies incorporated by the state of New York, engaged in the transaction of business of these companies, fourteen only have received premiums during the last year, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars; four only received premiums above the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, and the premium income of one only exceeded three hundred thousand dollars. The preceding minimum receipts of the Company, the HOME, with a capital of $1,000,000, were $580,621. The next minimum income of any of the smaller companies was $351,585.65 only, while capitals, however, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,250,000.

The state of things should be improved; the premium tax one of the mass of our fire insurance companies is by far too small for their capitals, and inadequate to the proper support of a separate and independent corporation. The experience of the HOME, PHOENIX, (of Brooklyn) and some other companies, has demonstrated that, with proper skill, tact and sagacity, business can be increased and managed to an immense extent, with entire safety, and even additional security to the company. We have now the machinery and organization in working order for nearly any and all of the fourteen joint stock fire insurance companies, one hundred joint stock fire insurance companies can be transacted in a few years their business with safety doubled, and even quadrupled, without doubling or quadrupling the yearly expenses. Any considerable expansion of business must of course be mainly effected through the instrumentality of reliable, safe, and well managed agencies. The premium income of the HOME amounts to nearly one-eighth part that of the ninety-five companies combined, so that eight corporations like the HOME could conduct the entire business of all these companies. If each company transacted the same amount of business as the HOME the aggregate premium income would reach the enormous amount of over seventy-eight millions of dollars per year. Our companies are not too numerous for the great future of this country, if managed on the progressive scale demanded by the spirit of the American people.

The annual statement of this our foremost local fire and inland company, made up to the first of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, President, A. F. Wilmarth, Vice President, and John Mc[illegible], Secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of over half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the cash company of our State, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the first of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43; and, moreover, it is worth mentioning that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company; bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,775,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,635. Any one not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution, must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $105,75[illegible], taking in $89,993 premium, and paid losses $35,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of ten per cent. was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund, the company shows a "nett surplus" of $109,644 clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

MILLS,

SITUATED ON [illegible]'S CREEK, WHERE THE STILLWATER ROAD CROSSES.

The Mill is just completed, and is in good running order. Our machinery embraces all the latest improvements, and was got up in the East without regard to expense. It has two run of Burrs, which will be kept running night and day, so that farmers coming from a distance can be accommodated without much delay.

The need of a first class Mill of this kind has long been felt by the citizens of St. Paul and vicinity. We have secured the services of James Craigie, who has made milling the business of his life, and in whom we can place entire confidence, and in whom we can place entire confidence.

All kinds of grain will be weighed when brought to the Mill, and also when taken away, if desired. We feel confident in saying to the public that we can make as good Flour and as great a yield to the bushel as any Mill in Minnesota, and respectfully solicit a fair trial.

Also a new Mill for grinding corn in the car. All work done at this Mill is warranted.

LA CROSSE AND ST. PAUL
PACKET COMPANY.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

During the summer of 1862, till the close of navigation, the LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company, having completely equipped their Line and made large additions to their business facilities, will offer to shippers and passengers on the river greater inducements and conveniences, and QUICKER TIME, than was ever offered by any company on the river.

All the boats on the Chippewa, Minnesota, St. Croix and the upper Mississippi rivers, and the different lines of stages north of LaCrosse, will, the coming season run to connect with the Davidson boats and the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company will run a

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE.

The former will number two first class boats—the nicest and fastest on the river. They will be the McCLELLAN and NORTHERN BELLE.—The first will be the Lightning Line, making the run from La Crosse to St. Paul in EIGHTEEN HOURS, and returning will leave here in the morning, and arrive at La Crosse in twelve hours time to connect with the evening train, by which our passengers will make close connection and reach Milwaukee in time for cars, or boats on the Lake in TWENTY HOURS FROM ST. PAUL, and reach Chicago next morning, by Minnesota Junction or Milwaukee. In just TWENTY-FOUR HOURS FROM LEAVING ST. PAUL, and in time for close connection East! This will be [illegible] twelve hours the quickest time between these three cities ever made! Nothing but passengers, the mails, express matter, and express goods will be carried on these boats, which will be furnished in the best of style. Passengers will then have [illegible] of

THE CITY.

THIRD AND LAST.—Holcombe's third and last Dollar Writing Class will commence next Thursday afternoon, at three o'clock, in Concert Hall. The several prizes for best improvement will be awarded then and there. The friends and parents of the pupils, and all who are interested in good writing, are invited to be present.

THE regular meeting of the City Council of St. Paul takes place this afternoon.

REV. E. D. NEILL has been appointed Chaplain to one of the hospitals in Philadelphia.

CAPT. SAM. MCLARTY of Chatfield, Fillmore County, is getting up a company for the Sixth Regiment. So is Judge Marsh of Preston, in the same county.

DANA WHITE has received a commission as First Lieutenant in the McLellan Guards. This is the first commission that has been given as First Lieutenant in the Sixth Regiment.

OUR new City Scrip is having a pretty good circulation over the country. Travellers say they find it all along the way up the river, and the Minneapolis Advertiser complains that it is driving all the silver change out of circulation up there.

THE number of votes polled at Minneapolis is greater than the vote polled at Saint Anthony, and the vote of the two towns combined exceeds that of the rest of the county by about one hundred.

CARRIAGE AT AUCTION.—A two-horse carriage will be sold at auction this morning, at the warehouse of Messrs. J. C. & H. C. Burbank & Co., to pay freight and charges. Here is a chance for a good bargain.

MORE BOUNTY.—It will be seen by notice in another column, that R. Marshall, of the City Mills, offers the families of the first ten married men who will join the Union Guards, Sixth Regiment, one barrel of flour each.

THE allotment money for the months of March and April, for the First Minnesota Regiment, has been received by the State Treasurer.

COL. CHARLES L. STEPHENSON, of Galena, Supervising Inspector of Steamboats for this district, is in town on business connected with his office. He may be found at Borup & Champlin's.

FOUR of the colored population were convicted of disorderly conduct at the Police Court yesterday morning. Three of them were females, who were drunk and fighting on the streets on Sunday. All were sent up for a week.

THE County Commissioners were in session nearly all day yesterday, engaged mostly in the consideration of the financial affairs of the county, but without taking definite action, they adjourned till Monday next.

ORDERED AT LAST.—Surgeons Stewart and LeBoutiller, originally commissioned in the Minnesota First, who were taken prisoners at the battle of Bull Run, and who were subsequently released and came home on parole, have received orders to go to Jefferson Barracks. They will go on Wednesday next.

MAYOR MERRIMAN, of Saint Anthony, has enlisted in the Hennepin County company for the Sixth Regiment, as a high private—an example worthy of being imitated by Mayors of other cities.

Capt. E. H. McConkey has enlisted as a private in the Minnesota Grenadiers. He says he don't propose to be one of twenty to go in on conditions, as some have advertised to do.

ENROLLING THE MILITIA OF THE STATE.—The State Auditor has directed the Auditors of the several counties to return immediately to the Adjutant General of the State, the rolls prepared by the several town Assessors "of all persons subject to be enrolled for military duty."

THE "UNION VOCALISTS," whose coming, we announced last week, will sing in this city on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of this week. As will be seen by their advertisement, they propose to give one-half of the proceeds of each concert for the benefit of the war fund of this city, hoping thereby to encourage enlistments in the army for the preservation of our glorious Union. We cannot but admire their generosity and patriotism, and trust our citizens will give to them that support they so richly deserve.

CAPT. CURTIS' FUNERAL.—The funeral of Capt. Curtis took place at Stillwater, on Sunday, and was attended by a large concourse of friends, neighbors and spectators. The ceremonies were conducted by the Masonic lodge of that city, of which the deceased was a member—L. E. Thompson, Esq., officiating. The sermon was preached at the Presbyterian Church by Rev. Mr. Bull. Over the grave, at the conclusion of the other ceremonies, three volleys of musketry were fired by the Stillwater Guards.

FERRIAGE AT THE FORT.—Ed. Press: It is said that the ferry at the Fort is owned and controlled by the Hon. Franklin Steele: that the charge for ferriage is ten cents each person either way; that the soldiers work for thirteen dollars per month; that many of these soldiers have families in St. Paul, and often obtain furloughs to visit their families, and that coming and returning costs 20 cents.

Now Mr. Editor is this right? That is the question. I do not think it is. I think the money made by Mr. Steele ferrying visitors and persons who have business at the Fort is quite sufficient to justify him in ferrying soldiers free of charge.

Mr. Steele, as shown by the appropriations of the last Legislature of this State, has been the recipient of a good deal of the State's money, in the way of lumber, hay, &c., &c., besides the State has fixed up his old dilapidated buildings considerably. I think he has lost nothing so far by the war. I think further that Mr. Steele is a good and true patriot, and it is only necessary to call his attention to this good cause of complaint on the part of soldiers, to correct the evil complained of. We will see. SIXTH REGIMENT.

GORMAN'S BRIGADE.—The report of Col. Sully, commanding this brigade, makes the loss in the late series of actions as follows: Killed—officers none, men 12. Wounded—officers 7, men 87. Missing—officers 2, men 138. Aggregate, 246—of this number the First Minnesota alone lost 90. Honorable mention is made of Lieut. Col. Miller for his "great coolness and bravery;" also of Lieutenants Ragnet and Gorman and aid-de-camp Sproat, for their "great service on the field." The report concludes by saying that not a regiment of this brigade "yielded an inch of ground to the enemy."

MR. MCELHINNY'S juvenile singing class of Sabbath School children, will give a Musical Concert, at Ingersoll's Hall, on Thursday evening next, the 7th instant, instead of this evening, as was announced in some of the Sabbath Schools on Sunday last. Doors open at half past seven o'clock. Admittance, 15 cents. Go and hear the children sing.

FRED. FOERSTER, formerly captain of police in this city, where his family now resides, who went down to New Orleans about two years ago, and was subsequently impressed into the rebel army, from which he deserted and was arrested and confined in the jail at New Orleans till Gen. Butler took the city and set him at liberty—has joined a Massachusetts regiment in that city. He writes to his family that he wants to stay in the Federal army till he has killed ten secesh ers.

THE BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS.—Merrill has the new United States Infantry Tactics, authorized by the Secretary of War. Also the army regulations.

"Agnes of Sorrento," Pearl of Orr's Island," "Spare Hours," "Leisure Hours about Town," "John Bosut," "Cecil Dreeme," Elwin Brotherstoft," and many other readable books. A good assortment of photograph albums, "cartes de visite" and views of Minnehaha scenery can all be found at Merrills. Visitors in the city will do well to call and examine.

INTERESTING FROM THE FIFTH REGIMENT.—We have been permitted to examine a private letter received from the Fifth Regiment, from which we gather the following items:

"Col. Borgesrode has resigned. As soon as this became known, the officers all went into an election, and elected Lieut. Col. Hubbard, Colonel, and Major Geer, Lieut. Colonel, Capt. Becht, the senior captain here Major, Lieut. Ingram of Company H, has resigned on account of ill health. On the 22d, a spy was arrested in the disguise of a Federal officer. He had a complete and accurate map of all the camps and pickets, but after his arrest our whole picket line was changed. On the 28th, a secesh Captain of guerrillas was taken just outside of our picket line by cavalry, and on the 26th, another guerrilla officer and two artillery men were taken. At the same time Capt. Becht while on picket, arrested two secesh. At night there is an incessant firing kept up by rebels in the woods. The secesh are beginning to talk more bold and defying. Our boys say that while on picket duty, they could hear the rebel farmers pounding with sticks on boards, which would be answered in the same manner. Our campguards are getting very strict, and nobody can pass without the countersign from the Colonel, and any officer that passes has to have his shoulder straps on, and his description is taken, rank, business, &c., all in writing."

RIVER ITEMS.—The arrivals since our last report, are the War Eagle and Northern Light from Dunleith, Denmark from St. Louis, Wenona from Hastings, and Antelope and Clara Hine from Carver.

The Denmark left for St. Louis yesterday morning.

The Jeannette Roberts went below on Saturday last, and is carrying DeHaven's Circus from town to town down the Mississippi and up the Illinois river.

The McLellan is the down boat this morning for LaCrosse, in connection with the Wenona, and the Itasca is the down boat for Dunleith this evening.

ST. PAUL, August 1st, 1862.

MR. EDITOR:—Having been an attentive listener at the late meetings held at the capitol, I beg leave to make the following proposition: It is known to many of our citizens that I have been engaged in recruiting for a company, and it may not be out of place to say that I have spent both time and money. Many of us somewhat since said, that when Government actually needed us we would go. In my humble opinion, that time has now arrived. I propose to be one of twenty (to sign papers), to meet at the City Hall, on Wednesday, August 6th, and march to Fort Snelling and swear in as high privates. The city bounty money (four hundred dollars) to be left in the hands of the Mayor and City Council, for the relief of the families of any volunteer in the Sixth Regiment. BENJAMIN M. CARR.

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 26.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO, IN CAMP, NEAR FLORENCE, Ala., June 24, 1862.

There are 11,000 officers and soldiers absent from their stations in the various Divisions of this army. Some of them have gone off without any authority; others with the permission of officers not authorized to grant it. In general, sickness is given as the cause of absence, but in very many cases the cause has notoriously ceased to exist, and men remain away, drawing the same pay as their comrades who are faithfully performing their duty. To correct this abuse it is ordered—

1. All officers and soldiers who are absent without direct authority from these Headquarters, the period for which has not transpired, will, on or before the 10th of July, proxime, join their companies or regiments wherever they may be. If ignorant of their locality, they will report to the commanding officer at Louisville or Nashville, by whom they will be directed to their regiments, or put on such light duty as they may be able to perform, if they are not entirely fit for active service; and these will be promptly reported to their regimental commanders by the officer so assigning them.

The cases of those who fail to join as above required, will be disposed of as follows:

2. If any absent officer or soldier, in consequence of sickness or wounds, is absolutely unable to report for duty as above required he will forward by mail to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville, Tennessee" a Certificate of Disability, according to the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY.

I declare on oath that I have carefully examined.....of Capt.....'s Company, Colonel.....Regiment of .....Volunteers, now at this place and under treatment by me, and find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier for the following reasons: [Here state all the facts known concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the the injury occurred or disease originated; the duty or situation of the officer or soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted; and whatever facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstance attending it.]

(Signed).....
Date: Surgeon [or Physician.]

Sworn and subscribed to before

This certificate must be subscribed and sworn to by a Surgeon or private Physician in good standing, and known as such by the magistrate or other officer by whom the oath is administered; and on the discharge will be ordered from these Headquarters, or the case otherwise disposed of according to the circumstances.

3. The death of any officer or soldier which has occurred since the 1st of January last, while he was absent from his regiment or company, and which has been reported by the surgeon of the Hospital in which the death occurred, or by the friends of the deceased if no, in Hospital, will be immediately reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital, or by the affidavit of friends, to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville," stating both the date of decease and other material circumstances.

4. All absent officers and soldiers who do not join their companies and regiments, or are not satisfactorily accounted for as above by the 10th of July next, will be reported on their muster-roll as deserters, dating from the time they may have been absent without authority.

By Act of Congress every deserter forfeits all claim on the Government for pay and allowances, besides being liable to arrest and trial by Court Martial. Any person who apprehends and returns a deserter to the commanding officer of a military post is entitled to five dollars.

By command of MAJOR GEN. BUELL.

MORTGAGE SALE.—WHEREAS, default has been made in the condition of the mortgage executed by Eugenia L. Ingraham and George H. Ingraham, Jr., her husband, the mortgagors, to Orlo Bartholomew, the mortgagee, dated the twelfth day of April, 1861, recorded in the office of Register of Deeds of Ramsey County, in the State of Minnesota, on the thirteenth day of April, 1861, at 10½ o'clock in the forenoon, in Book R of Mortgages, pages 500, 501, 502, 503, to secure the payment of the sum of six hundred dollars, and interest according to the condition of the note of said mortgagors of even date therewith, held by the said mortgagee, payable one year after the date thereof, with interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum, of and upon certain real estate, in said Ramsey County, described in said mortgage, as follows, to wit: "Lot number twelve (12) in block number four (4) of Dayton's Addition to the city of Saint Paul, according to the recorded plat thereof, together with the improvements thereon erected, being the same parcel of land conveyed by Lyman Dayton and wife to William Spencer, and by William Spencer and wife to William Bark, and by William Bark and wife to George H. Ingraham, Jr.;" (to which said mortgage there is attached a writing, of even date with said mortgage and therewith recorded, executed by the said mortgagors, whereby the said mortgagors waive and surrender to the said mortgagee, their right and benefit of redemption in the premises, as by reference to the same will more fully appear:)

And, whereas, the said mortgage debt has not been paid, or any part thereof, and no proceedings have been instituted at law to recover the said debt, or any part thereof, and there is claimed to be due, and is due, at the date of this notice, upon the said note and mortgage, the sum of six hundred and eighty-four 83-100 dollars:

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that by virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgaged premises will be sold at public auction or vendue, to the highest bidder, for cash, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Saint Paul, in said Ramsey County, on the seventeenth day of September, A. D. 1862, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, to satisfy the said mortgage debt and expenses and costs allowed by law.

NOTICE OF GUARDIAN'S SALE.—Notice is hereby given, that pursuant to the order or license of the Probate Court in and for the county of Ramsey, in the State of Minnesota, duly made the 4th day of September, A. D. 1861, I, the undersigned Guardian of Anthony Frenier and Francis Chardon, minors, will offer for sale and will sell at auction to the highest bidder for cash, at the front door of the Post Office at Forest City, in the county of Meeker, and State of Minnesota, on the 30th day of August, 1862, at the hour of nine o'clock A. M. of that day, all of the following described real estate, situated and being in said county of Meeker, and particularly described as follows: The northwest quarter of section eight (8) and the southeast quarter of section six (6), in town one hundred and twenty (120) north, of range twenty-nine west; also the east half of the northeast quarter of section ten (10) in township one hundred and twenty (120) north of range thirty (30) west; the foregoing being the property of said minor, Anthony Frenier; also the northeast quarter of section twenty (20), the northwest quarter of section thirty, and east half of the southwest quarter of section thirty, all in town one hundred and twenty-one (121) north of range twenty-nine (29) west, the same being the property of said minor, Francis Chardon. Said parcels of land will be sold separately, and in the order above designated.

ANTOINE FRENIER,
Guardian of said minors, Anthony Frenier and Francis Chardon.

IN PROBATE COURT STATE OF MINNESOTA, Ramsey County, Special Term, June 23, 1862.

In the matter of the estate of Joseph Charles, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition of Edward Webb, Administrator of said estate, setting forth the amount of personal estate, the amount of debts, and a description of the real estate which said deceased died seized, and the condition and value thereof, and praying that license be to him granted to sell the whole of said real estate; and it appearing by said petition that there is not sufficient personal estate in the hands of said Administrator to pay said debts, and that it is necessary, in order to pay the same, to sell the whole of said real estate. It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before the Judge of this Court on the 5th day of August, 1862, at ten o'clock A. M., at the office of the Judge of Probate, then and there to show cause, if any there be, why license should not be granted to said Administrator to sell said real estate.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published for four successive weeks prior to said day of hearing, in the Saint Paul PRESS, a newspaper published at Saint Paul, Ramsey county.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

Aside from the stirring and gratifying news of an order for a draft of "THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MORE," we have news that Gen. McClellan has crossed fifteen thousand men of Gen. Porter's famous fighting corps to the south side of James river.

Gen. Burnside has embarked, and sent to an unrevealed destination one division of his corps, and is embarking the rest.

There appears to be evidence confirmatory of the reports that the enemy has evacuated Richmond and taken up position for the defense of the city where they expect the attack.

Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, and Rhode Island—gallant Little Rhody—are nobly responding to the nation's call.

GLORIOUS NEWS.!!

BETTER THAN A VICTORY ! ! !

The Beginning of the End.

The news which we publish this morning of an order for a draft of "THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MORE" is the best news we have had since the series of brilliant victories with which the spring campaign opened. It is more than any single victory. It is a sure guarantee of the speedy termination of the war.

At last the light begins to break. With the issue of the order of the War Department, published in another column, we see the dawn of a new era. This order will place in the field, with the force already raised, over one million men. We shall meet the enemy hereafter, wherever he presents himself, in overwhelming numbers, and this rebellion must be, in less time than the period of service for which this force is called, utterly and entirely crushed.

Let us have the men. Better a prompt, vigorous, energetic war of less than a year with one million of men, than ten years of protracted misery with four hundred thousand. Better a double outlay for a short period, than years of expense terminating in national and individual bankruptcy.

Give us one million men and the days of this rebellion are numbered. With such a force we can conquer, and hold what we conquer; we can fairly swarm over the face of the South, and overwhelm it with the weight of numbers.

What citizen but will rejoice to see the gloom which has so long rested upon the nation dispelled? We have wealth, arms, courage, all we have needed has been men. Unless this rebellion is speedily s ppressed we can see nothing but debt, taxation and poverty for every man in the land. There is no hope in such a prospect. A prompt, decided war with overwhelming numbers can alone save us from ruin.

A draft will place all citizens on an equality. Each man must take his chance. Rich and poor are reduced to the same level. There are thousands who while they do not feel called upon to volunteer will willingly go if drafted. There can be now no question as between Democrats or Republicans—all stand on the same level—neither can reproach the other with doing too much or too little. The question is now one of the entire population furnishing equally to the defence of the nation in its extremity.

It would be well for our people to bear in mind that this order follows close upon the heels of the significant declaration of Secretary Seward, that he had promised the European powers to end this war in a very short period of time, and that if it was not ended within that time, he, Seward, feared there would be foreign intervention.

One million armed men will crush this rebellion, and, at the same time, awe into silence the insolence of foreign powers. Let the nation have the men!

What American citizen will say, No? What American citizen will set his paltry interest against the great issues at stake? Let the response to the draft be hearty, earnest, and as becomes a great people, resolved to sacrifice everything in defense of national unity and national life.

A DRAFT FOR 300,000 ADDITIONAL TROOPS CALLED FOR.

The 300,000 Volunteers Previously Called for, If not Ready by the 18th of August, to be Raised by Draft Also.

ST. PAUL, August 5.

To Governor Ramsey:

By TELEGRAPH FROM WASHINGTON, 10.45 A. M., 5th.

SIR,—The following order has this day been issued:

Ordered, first, That a draft of three hundred thousand (300,000) men be immediately called into the service of the United States, to serve for nine (9) months, unless sooner discharged. The Secretary of War will assign the quotas to the States, and establish regulations for the draft.

Second—If any State shall not by the eighteenth (18th) of August furnish its quota of the additional three hundred thousand (300,000) volunteers authorized by law, the deficiency of volunteers in that State will be made up by special draft from the militia. The Secretary of War will establish regulations for that purpose. Instructions will be sent in a few days. The whole number of troops sent by the several States will be estimated and apportioned, and any surplus furnished by a State above its proportion will be credited to the draft.

By order of the Secretary of War.

Dispatch in Relation to Taking Men from Old Regiments to Officer New.

ST. PAUL, August 5, 1862.

To Alex. Ramsey;

By TELEGRAPH FROM WASHINGTON, 1.40 P. M.

Applications for men in the field to officer new regiments are so numerous that great inconvenience and injury to the service must ensue if all are granted. Some general rule will be adopted soon and made known.

By order of the Secretary of War.

(Signed.) C. P. BUCKINGHAM

CALL FOR THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.

General Headquarters, State of Minnesota.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, ST. PAUL, Min., Aug. 5, 1862.

[GENERAL ORDERS NO. TWENTY.]

The Commander-in-Chief hereby directs the immediate organization of a new Regiment of Infantry, to be designated as the Seventh Regiment Minnesota Volunteers, to consist of ten companies, to be organized as follows:

MINIMUM.	MAXIMUM.
1 Captain.	1 Captain.
1 1st Lieutenant.	1 1st Lieutenant.
1 2d Lieutenant.	1 2d Lieutenant.
1 1st Sergeant.	1 1st Sergeant.
4 Sergeants.	4 Sergeants.
8 Corporals.	8 Corporals.
1 Wagoner.	1 Wagoner.
2 Musicians.	2 Musicians.
64 Privates.	82 Privates.
83 Aggregate.	101 Aggregate.

The following ten persons have been appointed as Second Lieutenants, one for each company, of the Seventh Regiment, with authority to muster in recruits for their respective companies, as they are enlisted, viz:

James Gilfillan, Ramsey County.
Michael Cook, Rice County.
Thomas S. Slaughter, Blue Earth County.
John Kennedy, Dakota County.
Adam Buck, jr., Sibley County.
William H. Burt, Washington County.
Nicholas Ohlstrom, Goodhue County.
G. V. Mayhew, Benton County.
Isaiah F. Marsh, Fillmore County.
H. W. Driver, Winona County.

It is also announced that John R. Arnold, of Wabashaw county, has been appointed Adjutant of the Regiment.

The above named Adjutant and Second Lieutenants will immediately report to Captain A. D. Nelson, U. S. mustering officer, at St. Paul, to be mustered into the service of the United States.

It is directed by the Secretary of War, that if the Sixth and Seventh Regiments of Minnesota Volunteers to be organized in this State are not full by the 18th inst., that the deficiencies in said regiments shall be made up by special draft from the militia of the State.

Active and efficient mustering officers for the Sixth and Seventh Regiments, who may be unable to fill up their companies within the time above specified, will receive appointments on the final organization of the several companies.

All persons, besides the mustering officers, who are recruiting for the Sixth Regiment, must continue their efforts to fill up our quota of volunteers, but are at liberty to have their recruits mustered into such company in the Sixth or Seventh Regiments as they may select.

To facilitate recruiting, furloughs will be granted to recruits to the 17th of August if necessary.

The recruiting service under this order will be conducted as far as applicable according to the principles laid down in General Orders No. 16 from these Headquarters.

All inducements heretofore offered by the Government to volunteers, will be extended to volunteer recruits of the Seventh Regiment.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief.

OSCAR MALMROS,
a6 Adjutant-General.

THE QUOTA OF MINNESOTA.

The following statement shows the quota of Minnesota, under the new call for troops:

Suppose the inhabitants of the loyal States to be	20,000,000
The population of Minnesota by the census of 1860, is	172,000
Under the first call for 600,000 men, Minnesota had to furnish as her quota	5,160
TROOPS FURNISHED BY THE STATE:
Three months men,	930
Three years men,	5,631
Total	6,561
Deduct quota	5,160
Excess to be credited	1,401
Under the new call for 300,000 drafted men, Minnesota will have to furnish	2,580
Less the excess to be credited from the first call	1,401
Balance to be drafted	1,179
Also under the new call for 300,000 volunteers, Minnesota will have to furnish	2,580
Total to be furnished by our State	3,759
If the three months men should not be credited, of which some doubt is entertained, our quota would be	4,589

—A gentleman from Colorado, of perfect reliability and excellent judgment estimates the weekly product of gold in Colorado at $200,000, per week, equal to about ten million per annum.

THE SEVENTH REGIMENT.

A Seventh Regiment is called for from Minnesota.

Minnesota is required to furnish at once her entire quota by volunteering, or by draft if necessary.

In view of the urgency of the call, and the short period of time allowed in which to fill the Regiment, viz., to the 18th of August, the Acting Governor has appointed ten gentlemen as Second Lieutenants to act, in accordance with a late order from the War Department, as recruiting officers.

We think the selections all good ones. They are distributed with a due regard to the different sections of the State.

The gentlemen appointed will have until the 18th inst. to fill the companies they represent by volunteering. At the expiration of that time, should no longer delay be given them, their companies will be filled up by drafting.

Ramsey county is represented by one of its ablest lawyers;—a gentleman universally respected and esteemed. He will inspire confidence in the minds of the people. He has, we learn, devoted considerable attention to military studies for some time past, and those who know the thorough character of his mind know that he will master any pursuit to which he devotes himself. Let our young men follow him with confidence.

Hennepin is not represented in the Seventh Regiment, because already two companies are being raised there for the Sixth, by Lieutenants Grant and Whitney.

Dakota is represented by John Kennedy, Esq., for several years Register of Deeds of that county, and one of its most prominent citizens. He has already fifteen or twenty men recruiting, and will rapidly fill up his company.

Goodhue is represented by Rev. Nicholas Ohlstrom, of Red Wing, who has already commenced to raise a company exclusively of Scandinavians. He will be assisted by Mr. Petersen, of Stearns county, and there is little doubt that they will get large numbers of their countrymen to join them.

Rice county is represented by Hon. Michael Cook, for several years State Senator. A better selection could not be made. Mr. Cook will inspire confidence wherever he is known. He has all the qualities necessary for an officer. Mr. Cook will recruit probably in the counties of Rice, Steele, Dodge, &c.

Carver county is represented by Adam Buck. Mr. Buck is now recruiting a German company, and has no doubt but that he will fill it. He is an excellent man, and esteemed among his countrymen. He represented his District in the Legislature last winter. He will probably recruit in the counties of Carver, Sibley, &c.

Thomas S. Slaughter, of Blue Earth county, is well known in this State as an active, energetic man. He has already recruited forty men under the late call, besides having assisted materially heretofore in raising the 3d and 4th regiments.

The Valley of the St. Croix is represented by Hon. Wm. H. Burt, an eminent lawyer of Stillwater, and a representative of Washington county in the Legislature of last winter. He is, like Mr. Gilfillan, one of those men who will rally volunteers around them by the mere force of personal character. He will make, without doubt, an excellent officer. He is already at work recruiting.

The Valley of the Upper Mississippi is represented by Hon. G. V. Mayhew, of Sauk Rapids, Benton county. Few men are better known or more highly esteemed for energy and force of character in "the upper country" than Mr. Mayhew. He is, we learn, in recruiting, acting in conjunction with Mr. Barrett, of Stearns county, and without doubt will raise a company for that section of the State.

With the officers appointed for Fillmore and Winona counties, Judge Marsh and Mr. Driver, we are not so well acquainted. They are, however, we learn, already at work recruiting, and are worthy of the appointments given them. The latter gentleman has seen service in the Mexican war, and is now, we believe, captain of the artillery company in Winona city.

The office of Adjutant is to be filled, until the organization of the Regiment, by John K. Arnold, of Wabashaw, a private of Company G of the Third Regiment. Mr. Arnold has been since last fall engaged in the office of General Buell, at Nashville, and has acquired great familiarity with staff duties. He returns to the State endorsed by the warmest commendations of his superior officers. The fact that Mr. Arnold was employed at Nashville in the office of the Department of the Ohio at the time of the surrender of the Third, saved him from the fate of his comrades.

These officers have the right to act as United States recruiting officers. They will proceed at once to fill up their companies.

Let every assistance be given them by the people. The honor of Minnesota requires that our quota of the 300,000 volunteers should be raised, if possible, by volunteering. It is the interest of the recruit that he should enter as a volunteer rather than by drafting,

We have no doubt that the mere fact of an impending draft will increase the disposition to volunteer among the people.

The order given by the Adjutant General directing the Lieutenants appointed to give furloughs until the 17th inst., will enable many who are disposed to go to enter the ranks, take the oath, and return to complete their harvesting.

VOLUNTEER! VOLUNTEER!

The pecuniary advantages of volunteering over being drafted, aside from the greater honor attached to the former, should at once fill up the Sixth and Seventh regiments without a draft. Every city and county in the State is offering special bounties to volunteers; many public spirited citizens are offering private bounties, and the government itself pays a bounty of one hundred dollars. Altogether a volunteer soldier would get nearly two hundred dollars of bounty, besides a monthly allowance for his family in St. Paul and some other places.

If drafted, nothing of all this is obtained.

Do not delay until you are drafted and thus lose these liberal bounties, and provision for your families.

We call the attention of counties and towns that have offered bounties for their quotas of the Sixth Regiment, to extend the offer for volunteers for the Seventh Regiment also, in order that equal advantages may be enjoyed by both. It will undoubtedly be done by all, so that no one need delay volunteering.

GOV. SPRAGUE AND COLORED VOLUNTEERS.

Governor Sprague calls upon the colored citizens of gallant Little Rhody to rally to the support of the stars and stripes, and that he will himself lead them to the field. Prejudice is melting away before the fervent heat of patriotism. All honor to the Democratic Governor.

DEFINITION OF AN ABOLITIONIST.

For the benefit of those pro-slavery presses that, Paganini like, play upon the one string of "Abolitionist," "Abolitionist," we reproduce the following definition of what their "misguided Southern brethren" regard as an Abolitionist. According to the Southern Literary Messenger, published at Richmond, an abolitionist is thus defined:

"AN ABOLITIONIST.

Is any man who does not love slavery for its own sake, as a divine institution; who does not worship it as the corner-stone of civil liberty; who does not adore it as the only possible social condition on which a permanent republican government can be erected; and does not in his inmost soul desire to see it extended and perpetuated over the whole North, as the means of human reformation second in dignity, importance and sacredness alone to the christian religion. He who does not love African slavery with this love, is an 'Abolitionist.'"

Skirmish at Culpeper Court House

Federals Victorious.

WASHINGTON, August 4.

(Special to Tribune.)—Three hundred of the 1st Vermont regiment went on a reconnoissance from Culpepper Court House, seventeen miles; they left at 3 o'clock in the afternoon of Saturday last, and camped at night near Raccoon Ford. Early the next morning the march was resumed, driving in the enemy's pickets about one o'clock. While marching into the town they were attacked by the enemy about 500 strong, surrounding our men on all sides. After half an hour's severe fighting our forces drove them from the town, killing between 30 and 40—21 of their dead lying in one street—wounding between 50 and 60, and taking 43 prisoners, among them one Major, two Captains, one two Lieutenants.

The Union party were commanded by Brigadier-General Crawford in person; the enemy were Ashby's cavalry.

Col. Robinson with companies G and H of the 5th New York cavalry captured nearly the whole of them; the Major would not surrender, when he was struck a terrible sabre blow on the top of his head.

The enemy had every advantage over us in position.

The following advices were received tonight from Sperryville: Quite a Union sentiment is being manifested by many citizens. The wives of several wealthy planters visit our sick soldiers in the hospitals, and almost daily send them luxuries About 400 citizens residing within the lines of Gen. Sigel's corps, have taken the oath of allegiance. Seventy have been arrested and are in charge of the Provost Marshal.

Twenty rebel prisoners have been taken by scouting parties within the past two weeks, and were to-day paroled.

A brisk skirmish took place yesterday a short distance beyond Madison Court House. Several of the enemy were wounded and but one of our own. Reports are current in town among rebel sympathizers that the enemy is evacuating Richmond.

Riot in Brooklyn Tobacco Factory

NEW YORK, August 5.

Yesterday P. M. a serious disturbance occurred at the tobacco factory of Watson & Lorillard, Brooklyn, caused by the efforts of some Irishmen to drive out the colored employees of the factory, of whom there are a large number. A number of both parties were arrested.

Another account gives the following statement of the origin of the desturbance. For several days past the negro population in the vicinity above alluded to, were charged with having used insulting language to white females on several occasions. This conduct, of course, had the natural effect of exciting the indignation of the Irish laborers in the neighborhood, some of whose wives and daughters had, it is said, been thus insulted, and vengeance was accordingly vowed against the colored people.

Same other troubles between the whites and negroes of a minor nature had also taken place previously to yesterday.

HOMESTEADS! HOMESTEADS!

SECURE A GOOD ONE, AND THEREWITH BE CONTENT.

In selecting a Home, it should be the object of the settler to combine good soil, good water, and good meadow, with a pleasant location, accessible to markets, mills, and lumber.

The undersigned, residents for years of Morrison County, Minnesota, are convinced that there are at least one thousand vacant claims within the limits of said county, combining in a fair degree the above requisites, and now inviting occupants under the beneficent provisions of the Homestead Law.

Look at the facts! The area now settled is mainly a narrow strip lying along the Mississippi, leaving not only the bulk of the county, but its richest lands, unoccupied. Emigration hitherto has mainly sought the west side of the Mississippi River, and hence thousands of acres of equally valuable lands now lie unclaimed on the east side, in the vicinity of towns, of markets, and pine lumber, thus insuring better returns for the surplus products of the farm, and a cheaper outlay in purchased articles whether for permanent improvements or home consumption.

Grazing and Stock Raising Facilities.—We claim for Morrison County as great a capacity and as enviable a reputation in the future in these respects (if her lands are occupied) as will be enjoyed by any county of equal area in the State. Her streams, meadows and grazing lands are alike abundant, and challenge competition with those of any other section.

We confess to an ambition that the rich herbage may be cropped by flocks and herds of a superior quality, as herein we think lies a great source of the wealth of Northern Minnesota.

Manufacturing and Commercial Privileges.—In water power this county has rare advantages. The Mississippi at Little Falls (the county seat) alone furnishing power enough to drive the machinery of a Lowell, while the Platte and its branches, together with other streams, afford numerous smaller and easily-improved powers. In this connection it must be noted that we not only have the best kind of power for manufacturing, but the material to manufacture with. Pine lumber is a positive necessity everywhere, and a great source of opulence.

In the tall majestic pine, nature has been storing up for ages elements of wealth and utility, drawn from the soil and atmosphere, on a scale of grandeur such as is only found in her own gigantic nurseries.

These "kings of the forest" have a voice for appreciative men, and a chink for appreciative pockets, and a place in appreciative homes—that makes them ennoble the first, enrich the second, and adorn and render comfortable the third.

Do you want to be within reaching distance of this source of wealth and comfort? Then come to Morrison County.

Come where the tall pine sighs!
Come where the tall grass thrives!
Come where the rich soil lies!
Come where the brisk water runs!

Morrison County is so situated, that without a great perversion of "manifest destiny" she must ere long have not only the approaching railroad connection with St. Paul, but also one with Superior—its rich mining country, and the great chain of lakes—connecting by water with the east.

We as citizens abide these coming events, and invite other thousands to share with us our present and prospective advantages.

This sentiment is unanimous that the order will probably be rescinded. The enrollment in the interior progressed favorably before this. Shelby county has enrolled 1,000 names, and others in proportion.

NEGRO AGITATORS.

An Article for the Particular Attention of the Conservative Press.

From the Nashville, Tenn., Union.

The Conservatives are the most pertinacious persons in the world in forcing people to discuss the everlasting negro question. They refuse the nation any rest whatever from the eternal monotony of the song of slavery. They raise the cry of negro! negro! negro! continually. It's tax be proposed they fear that it will be unjustly burdening rebel property. If an expedition is to be made, they fear that somebody's slave will be run off. If a rebel is arrested they fear that his negroes will become demoralized and dangerous without their master. If a black pilot should run off a rebel vessel, they dread receiving him, least it should encourage runaway negroes. If a free school be opened the negroes should learn mischief. If a rebel's negroes be found raising corn for the rebel army they are opposed to taking them for fear of disturbing the "guarantees of the Constitution." If a loyal man says that he would see slavery perish to save the Union, they tell you that such sentiments will incite the negroes to insurrection. If a solitary measure of peace or war can be proposed which your conservatism will not connect in some way or other with the negro question, we do not know what it can be.

The most absurd thing in the whole matter is that these same Radical Conservatives, whose very "breath is agitation," and who would become extinct if Slavery were destroyed, are forever complaining that other people will talk of Slavery. These men, who agitate from morning till night, reproach others for agitating. We tell these gentlemen very positively that we cannot and will not allow them to enjoy a monopoly of this agitation. If you are for the Union and against the discussion of Slavery, then help us save the Union, and let Slavery take care of itself amid the furnaces of war. If its violence and vicissitudes destroy it, let it be destroyed: if otherwise, then very well; but we cannot stop the work of crushing out the rebellion to read Dred Scott decisions, or Missouri compromises, or Crittenden resolutions. We mean to kill out the rebellion. We mean to destroy all the agencies used to promote and sustain the rebellion, and we don't intend to stop one moment to consider whether anybody's negro runs off on account of what we do. It is useless for conservatives to keep up this cry of Slavery. Everybody now understands it, as a stale trick which means anything or nothing. Our firm belief is that loyal men have something more important to attend to at present, than to bother themselves about the security of rebels' negroes.

THE CASE OF GEN. MARCY.—The report that Gen. Marcy, Gen. McClellan's father-in-law and Chief of Staff, whom the Senate refused to confirm, has been re-appointed, is incorrect. The President has no authority to make another general, the Senate having filled up the number (two hundred) authorized by law; nor would he be likely to re-appoint an officer who had not been confirmed after his name had been eight months before the Senate.

Slavery Practically Abolished in the Cotton States by the Confiscaton Law.

HOW FAR THE PRESIDENT MEANS TO GO IN ENFORCING THE LAW.

HOW HE LIKES "TO PUT OFF THINGS."

Why the Border States are Exempted.

Special Correspondence of the Cincinnati Gazette.
WASHINGTON, July 25.

HOW SLAVERY IS ALREADY ABOLISHED BY LAW.

Perhaps the country hardly realizes yet that the practical effect of the Confiscation bill, if honestly executed according to its spirit, is to annihilate the system of slavery in the Gulf States. "All slaves," the bill provides, "of persons engaged in rebellion against the Government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid and comfort thereto, * * * * taking refuge within the lines of the army * * * shall be deemed captives of war, and shall be forever freed of their servitude and not again held as slaves."

That, with such a promise held out to them, all the slaves in the States occupied by our armies would speedily find their way inside our lines, all experience hitherto has conclusively shown. Let it not be seen that the rule is fairly inaugurated, and there is no remote corner, no isolated plantation, to which the "mysterious lines of natural telegraph," as Mr. Conway calls them, would not penetrate with the inspiring news, and summon the slaves to a new exodus from the land of bondage. "All slaves of persons engaged in the rebellion or giving aid and comfort thereto"—hardly a plantation in the cotton States can escape this sweeping edict of emancipation.

HOW FAR THE PRESIDENT MEANS TO GO IN EXECUTING THIS LAW.

Everything depends now on the President's disposition to enforce the act in its fullest application: but he could, even if so disposed, only retard the result—its complete prevention is no longer within his power. Whether we will or whether we forbear, the day for saving the Union and saving Slavery has gone by; and the truest representatives of the true Union men of the slave States were the readiest here during the late session to acknowledge the fact. Congress has accepted the issue, and at one blow has decreed the extinction of Slavery in the cotton States. Is the Administration manly enough to face the inevitable result now, or must we spend a few more scores of millions, and sacrifice a few more thousands of lives, only then to start in at the point at which we now stand?

We all know how Mr. Lincoln waits for the popular demands to push him forward. The theory of the Administration is that they should follow, not lead the spirit of the people. For the present I believe the President has pretty fairly indicated in his Executive Order for the seizure of rebel property, and the employment as laborers of negroes in the Gulf States, all that he means to do openly and authoritatively in the way of executing the Confiscation Law. He orders that such property as may be necessary or convenient for military purposes, shall be seized—a concession to the popular demand that our armies should subsist off the enemy's country, and that the rebels should thus be made to bear the burdens of the war; and instructs military or naval commanders to employ negroes as laborers, wherever they can be made useful—a concession to the popular demand for enlisting the slaves of the rebels in some way as our allies in putting down the rebellion.

Beyond this I do not think Mr. Lincoln wants to go yet. Never was a man more cat-like in stealthily feeling his way before him. Doubtless Mr. Lincoln fully recognizes the fact that pretty soon he will be forced into declaring what the law already provides, that negroes, so employed, shall be free; but he wants to postpone it just as long as he can. He is afraid it will stir up a commotion among the Border State men: commotions among the Border State men are disagreeable: and his theory is to put off disagreeable things as long as possible.

Still Mr. Lincoln is willing enough that others should take the responsibility. He has scrupulously avoided ordering the slaves to be enlisted and armed, but General Hunter is now said to have increased his regiment of them to a whole brigade, while the President complacently looks on.

WHY THE BORDER STATES ARE EXEMPTED FOR THE PRESENT.

The reason for the exemption of Maryland, Delaware, Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri from the operation of the late Executive order would indicate that Mr. Lincoln expects his Generals to make a like liberal interpretation of the powers it gives them in the other State. Some days before it was issued a prominent Border State member told me it would not apply to the Border States. In answer to my inquiry as to the reason, he said that the President meant to give them a fair chance to accept his plan for gradual emancipation, and to let them see, meantime, that slave property was doomed any way, and that this was their best chance, as well as a sort of reward for their fidelity to the Union. The fair inference from this would be that the President expects his Executive order to be so executed as to result in the destruction of Slavery in all the States to which it applies.

From the Upper Missouri and Salmon River Mines.

RETURN OF THE STEAMER SHREVEPORT.

From the Yankton Dakotian of July 22d.

The Shreveport, Captain John Largee, on the upper Missouri, arrived at the port of Yankton last evening, and lay at our levee all night. She brought encouraging news from the gold mines, and also some splendid specimens of the precious ore. In conversation with Captain Labarge, he informed us that the gold discoveries in Bitter Root Valley were a glorious success. Previous to the arrival of the Shreveport at Benton, the miners were compelled to prosecute their work with such implements as they could fashion from the "native" material; notwithstanding which they were getting a rich harvest.

Mr. Terry, a passenger by the Shreveport, and a resident of Walla Walla, Washington Territory, had in his possession some fine specimens—about $600—which he procured of miners on Deer Lodge Creek, a tributary of the Bitter Root, and about 180 miles southwest of Fort Benton. Mr. T. is an old resident of that country, formerly sutler of Lieut. Mullen's Wagon Road expedition, and has visited nearly every section where gold has been discovered. His accounts are of the most encouraging character. Miners were coming in from California, Oregon and Colorado. Salmon River was teeming with prospectors. The wagon road from Fort Benton to Fort Walla Walla, which has been under construction for three or four years, under the supervision of Lieut. Mullen, was nearly completed. Mr. T. met the expedition at Deer Lodge Creek, which lies immediately on this road. It numbered 100 civilians and 75 soldiers, and was returning to Walla Walla.

Father De Smith, a missionary and a twenty years' resident of that country, fully corroborates these glowing reports, and says the richest mines are yet to be discovered. The whole country adjacent to Salmon river and Bitter Root abounds with the precious metal.

Capt. La Barge has established a trading house at Fort La Barge, and had nearly exhausted the large stock of goods taken up in the spring by the Shreveport and Emilie. He was returning for supplies, and expected to meet the Emilie at Sioux City, and transfer the freight of that boat to the Shreveport and return immediately to Fort La Barge, two miles above Fort Benton. The demand for provisions of every kind, and mining implements, was excessive. The prices were not exorbitant. Flour was selling at $250 per barrel, bacon 25 cents per pound, and other articles in proportion.

The health of the country was first rate. No difficulty was experienced in navigating the upper Missouri, and the Captain is sanguine of meeting with no obstacles on his return. He expects to reach Fort La Barge by the 1st September, and will return as soon thereafter as practicable.

Important War Order.

STRINGENT MEASURES TO PREVENT ABSENTEES FROM THE ARMY.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, July 31, 1862.

The absence of officers and privates from their duty under various pretexts, while receiving pay at great expense and burden to the government, makes it necessary that efficient measures should be taken to enforce their return to duty, or that their places be supplied by those who will not take pay while rendering service. This evil moreover, tends greatly to discourage the patriotic impulse of those who would contribute to support the faithful soldiers. It is therefore Ordered by the President, that on Monday, the 11th day of August, all leaves of absence and furloughs by whomsoever given, unless by the war department, are revoked, and absolutely annulled; and all officers capable of service are required forthwith to join their regiments under penalty of dismissal from the service, or such penalty as a court martial may award, unless the absence be caused by lawful cause.

Second—The only excuse allowed for the absence of officers or privates from duty after the 11th day of August, are: First, the order or leave of the war department; second, disabilities from wounds received in the service; and third, disability from disease that renders the party unfit for military duty; but any officer or private whose health permits him to visit watering places or places of amusement, or make social visits, or to walk about the town, city or neighborhood in which he may be, will be considered fit for military duty, and as evading his duty by absence from his command or the ranks.

Third—On Monday, the 18th day of August, at 10 o'clock A. M., each regiment and crops shall be mustered. The absentees will be marked, three lists of the same made out, and within forty-eight hours after the musters, one copy shall be sent to the commander of the crops. The third is to be retained, and all officers and privates fit for duty absent at that time shall be regarded as absent without cause, their pay will be stopped and they will be dismissed from the service, or treated as deserters unless restored, and no officer shall be restored to his rank unless by the judgment of a court of inquiry, to be approved by the president. He shall establish that his absence was without cause.

Fourth.—Commanders of corps, divisions, brigades, regiments and detached posts, are strictly enjoined to force the muster and return as aforesaid. Any officer failing in his duty herein will be deemed guilty of gross neglect of duty and dismissed from the service.

Fifth.—Commissioners shall be appointed by the Secretary of war to superintend the execution of this order in the respective States. United States marshals in the respective districts, the mayor and chief of police of any town or city, the sheriff of the respective counties of each State, and all postmasters and justices of the peace are authorized to act as special provost marshals to arrest any officer or private soldier fit for duty, who may be absent from his command without just cause, and convey him to the nearest military post or department. The transportation and reasonable expenses of this duty, and five dollars will be paid for each officer and private arrested and delivered.

By order of the President.

EDWIN M. STANTON, sec'y of War.

From Cairo.

Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

CAIRO, August 1.—The ram Queen of the West arrived here to-day. She is badly cut up, and goes to St. Louis for repairs.

From Henderson we have news of considerable skirmishing back of that place. Our troops are hanging guerillas, who in several instances have retaliated on Unionists.

From Jackson we have a rumor that Price and Bragg are known to be marching on Chattanooga. It needs confirmation.

A company of cavalry under Major Merrill, started from here yesterday on a scouting expedition down the Missouri side of the river. They have not yet returned.

The skirmish at Bolivar did not amount to much, and it is asserted by officer from there that Bragg has not been in the vicinity.

The war claim commission closed its business to-day. In the short time it has been in session a great deal of work has been done. The whole number of claims filed is 1,698, amounting to $509,319.36. Of these, claims to amount of $451,105.81 were allowed. All of Quartermaster Hatch's claims were allowed, the investigation not having established anything of fraud or carruption in them.

John Bird of Bird's Point filed claims amounting to upwards of $33,000, all of which were dismissed on account of his disloyalty.

Gen. Strong has returned from Corinth. He reports great activity among the troops in that quarter. Our force on the line of the Mobile and Ohio railroad has been largely increased, and there is no danger of any more interruption from guerillas.

—Advices from Gen. Pope's Department indicates that the rebels are fortifying Gordonsville. Their strength is estimated at any figures from 20,000 up. Pope's forces are no longer at Warrenton, and Pope himself is energetically on the move. News from Pope begins to excite hope, and even enthusiasm, over the fact of our having made a forward movement once more.

Halleck on Confiscation.

Our special Washington dispatch brings the intelligence that Gen. Halleck has announced himself very decidedly in favor of confiscation and emancipation. Congress have enacted that policy into a law, it is to be expected that all loyal generals will proceed to enforce it at once, yet it is especially gratifying to hear that General Halleck has been in favor of it all the time. A new era is beginning—an era of downright earnest war, such as the rebels have been dealing in all the time. When we abandon the spirit of peace, and commence aiming our blows straight at the heart of the rebellion, we shall be surprised to find how easily our soldiers can put to flight the armies of the aliens.—Chicago Tribune.

MR. EDITOR:—Having been an attentive listener at the late meetings held at the capitol, I beg leave to make the following proposition: It is known to many of our citizens that I have been engaged in recruiting for a company, and it may not be out of place to say that I have spent both time and money. Many of us some months since said, that when Government actually needed us we would go. In my humble opinion, that time has now arrived. I propose to be one of twenty (to sign papers) to meet at the City Hall, on Wednesday, August 6th, and march to Fort Snelling and swear in as high privates. The city bounty money (four hundred dollars) to be left in the hands of the Mayor and City Council, for the relief of the families of any volunteer in the sixth Regiment. BENJAMIN M. CARR.

GENERAL ORDERS—NO. 26.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE OHIO,
IN CAMP, NEAR FLORENCE, ALA.,
June 21, 1862.

There are 14,000 officers and soldiers absent from their duty with the various Divisions of this army. Some of them have gone off without any authority; others with the permission of officers not authorized to grant it. In general, sickness is given as the cause of absence, but in very many cases the cause has notoriously ceased to exist, and men remain away, drawing the same pay as their comrades who are faithfully performing their duty. To correct this abuse it is ordered—

1. All officers and soldiers who are absent without direct authority from these Headquarters, the period for which has not transpired, will, on or before the 10th of July, proximo, join their companies or regiments wherever they may be. If ignorant of their locality, they will report to the commanding officer at Louisville or Nashville, by whom they will be directed to their regiments, or put on such light duty as they may be able to perform, if they are not entirely fit for active service; and the same will be promptly reported to their regimental commanders by the officer so assigning them.

The cases of those who fail to join as above required, will be disposed of as follows:

2. If any absent officer or soldier, in consequence of sickness or wounds, is absolutely unable to report for duty as above required, he will forward by mail to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville, Tennessee" a Certificate of Disability, according to the following form:

CERTIFICATE OF DISABILITY.

I declare on oath that I have carefully examined.....of Captain.....Company, Colonel.....Regiment of .....Volunteers, now at this place and under treatment by me, and find him incapable of performing the duties of a soldier for the following reasons: [Here state all the facts known concerning the disease or wound, or cause of disability; the time, place, manner, and all the circumstances under which the the injury occurred or disease originated; the duty or situation of the officer or soldier at the time the injury was received or disease contracted; and whatever facts may aid a judgment as to the cause, immediate or remote, of the disability, and the circumstances attending it.)

Place: (Signed).
Date: Surgeon (or Physician.)

Sworn and subscribed to before

This certificate must be subscribed and sworn to by a Surgeon or private Physician in good standing, and known as such by the magistrate or other officer by whom the oath is administered; and on it a discharge will be ordered from these Headquarters, or the case otherwise disposed of according to the circumstances.

3. The death of any officer or soldier which has occurred since the 1st of January last, while he was absent from his regiment or company, and which has been reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital in which the death occurred, or by the friends of the deceased if not in Hospital, will be immediately reported by the Surgeon of the Hospital, or by the adjutant of friends, to "The Assistant Adjutant General, District of the Ohio, Nashville," setting forth the date of decease and other material circumstances.

4. All absent officers and soldiers who do not join their companies and regiments, or are not satisfactorily accounted for as above by the 10th of July next, will be reported on their muster-roll as deserters, dating from the time they may have been absent without authority.

By Act of Congress every deserter forfeits all claim on the Government for pay and allowances, besides being liable to arrest and trial by Court Martial. Any person who apprehends and returns a deserter to the commanding officer of a military post is entitled to five dollars.

By command of MAJOR GEN. BUELL.

EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

OF NEW YORK.

CASH CAPITAL.....$100,000
NETT SURPLUS.....138,000

DIVIDENDS ON CAPITAL LIMITED BY ITS CHARTER TO SEVEN PER CENT. PER ANNUM—THE ENTIRE PROFITS GO TO THE POLICY HOLDERS.

This Society was organized in the year 1859, with a cash capital of $100,000 deposited irrevocably with the Insurance Department of the State of New York, in United States bonds, on which it allows but seven per cent. per annum to the stockholders, and the entire profits of the business is shared by the policy holders. The nett profits in two years amounts to $230,000, which shows an unparalleled success in the history of Life Insurance. Its operations are managed by a Board of Directors composed of the the ablest business men of the country, and its business is conducted entirely on the cash plan. Dividends to the policy holders will be made every five years, and no company in the country offers equal advantages to its dealers.

HOME

NEW YORK.

Extract from Third Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York. WM. BARNES,
Superintendent.

There are now ninety-five joint stock fire insurance companies incorporated by the State of New York, engaged in the transaction of business; of these companies, fourteen only received premiums during the last year, amounting to over one hundred thousand dollars; four only received premiums above the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, and the premium income of one only exceeded three hundred thousand dollars. The premium receipts of this Company, the HOME, with a capital of $1,000,000, were $870,963.25. The premium income of thirty of the smaller companies was $851,578.85 only, with capitals, however, amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $4,880,-679.

The state of things should be improved; the premium income of the mass of our fire insurance companies is by far too small for their capitals, and inadequate to the proper support of a separate and independent corporation. The experience of the HOME, PHOENIX, (of Brooklyn) and some other companies, has demonstrated that, with proper skill, tact and sagacity, business can be increased and managed to an indefinite extent, with entire safety, and even additional security to the company. We have now the machinery and organization in working order for nearly one hundred joint stock fire insurance companies. In the course of a few years their business can be safely doubled, and even quadrupled, without doubling or quadrupling the yearly expenses. Any considerable expansion of business must of course be mainly effected through the instrumentality of reliable, safe, and well managed agencies. The premium income of the HOME amounts to nearly one-eighth part that of the ninety-five companies combined, so that eight corporations like the HOME could conduct the entire business of all these companies. If each company transacted the same amount of business as does the HOME the aggregate premium income would reach the enormous amount of over seventy-eight millions of dollars per year. Our companies are not too numerous for the great future of this country, if managed on the progressive scale demanded by the spirit of the American people.

The annual statement of this our foremost local fire and inland company, made up to the first of January last, shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, President, A. F. Wilmarth, Vice President, and John Meiers, Secretary, those well-versed officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of one million dollars, and surplus of over half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of Insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our State, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the first of January last summed up to $1,521,268 08, against an actual liability of only $57,866 67; and, moreover, it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company; bonds and mortgages $916,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $329,635. Any one not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution, must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $985,745,548, taking $829,993 premium, and paid losses $555,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of ten per cent. was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund, the company shows a "nett surplus" of $160,641 clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

MILLS,

SITUATED ON PHALON'S CREEK, WHERE THE STILLWATER ROAD CROSSES.

This Mill is just completed, and is in good running order. Our machinery embraces all the latest improvements, and was got up in the East, without regard to expense. It has two run of Burrs, which will be kept running night and day, so that farmers coming from a distance can be accommodated without much delay.

The need of a first class Mill of this kind has long been felt by the citizens of St. Paul and vicinity. We have secured the services of James Craigie, who has made milling the business of his life, and in whom we can place entire confidence.

All kinds of grain will be weighed when brought to the Mill, and also when taken away, if desired. We feel confident in saying to the public that we can make as good Flour and as great a yield to the bushel as any Mill in Minnesota, and respectfully solicit a fair trial.

Also a new Mill for grinding corn in the ear.

☞All work done at this Mill is warranted.

1862. 1862.

LA CROSSE AND ST. PAUL

PACKET COMPANY.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENT

During the summer of 1862, till the close of navigation, the LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company, having completely equipped their Line and made large additions to their business facilities, will offer to shippers and passengers on the river greater inducements and conveniences, and QUICKER TIME, than was ever offered by any company on the river.

All the boats on the Chippewa, Minnesota, St. Croix and the upper Mississippi rivers, and the different lines of stages north of LaCrosse, will, the coming season run to connect with the Davidson boats and the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad.

The LaCrosse and St. Paul Packet Company will run a

PASSENGER AND FREIGHT LINE.

The former will number two first class boats—the fleetest and fairest on the river. They will be the Ab CLELLAN and NORTHERN BELLE.—The first will be the Lightning Line, making the run from La Crosse to St. Paul in EIGHTEEN HOURS, and returning will leave here in the morning, and arrive in La Crosse in twelve hours, time to connect with the evening train, by which our passengers will make close connection and reach Milwaukee in time for cars, or boats on the Lake in TWENTY HOURS FROM ST. PAUL, and reach Chicago next morning, by Minnesota Junction or Milwaukee, in just TWENTY-FOUR HOURS FROM LEAVING ST. PAUL, and in time for close connection East! This will be the twelve hours the quickest time between these three cities ever made! Nothing but passengers, the mails, express matter, and express goods will be carried on these boats, which will be furnished in the best of style. Passengers will then have daylight to view the grand beauties of the river, and good sleeping cars from La Crosse to Chicago—a great item. Arrangements have also been perfected so that all the boats on the upper rivers and all the stage lines will run in close connection.

The other line will number three regular boats; the Keokuk, G. H. Wilson and Wenona, one

THE CITY.

HOGAN & CAMP are selling off their entire Stock of Summer Goods at cost This is an opportunity to be improved in these times of high prices.

MR. JAMES MILLS, recently engaged on the editorial staff of the Chicago Times, arrived in St. Paul yesterday morning.

A CONTRACT has been entered into by Capt. Saunders with Dr. T. R. Potts to be the physician at the Fort after the departure of Dr. Stewart, until such time as a regular surgeon may be disignated.

THE St. Cloud Union says that Mr. Long, of the Winslow House in this city, has been in that place with a view of looking at the chances of starting a first class hotel in that city next summer.

MORRISON COUNTY.—Our readers are referred to a circular in another column setting forth the inducements to settle and make homesteads in that county. The gentlemen whose names are appended to this circular are among the first citizens in the northern section of the State.

RIVER ITEMS.—The Northern Belle in connection with the Wenona is the down packet for La Crosse this morning.

The Milwaukee is the down packet this evening for Dunleith.

CITY SCRIP BURNED.—Just before the opening of the Council yesterday a bonfire was made of $3,485 City Scrip by the Committee of Ways and means. This amount was cancelled by the city in the issuing of the small notes or shin plasters.

PASSING along the street last evening where they were discussing the new war levy, we heard one person ask another if he was going to claim the protection of the British Consul or submit to the draft. "I shall do neither. I'm going to enlist to-morrow morning." "Bully for you," said his companion, "I'll be with you."

THE YOUNG MEN AROUSED.—A party of young men in our city met last night to volunteer in defense of our country—they were of the right sort—are going as privates and mean fight. Their object is to raise a company of good steady fellows; they mean to stick together in order to make the duties and associations of camp agreeable and comfortable, and want none they can't associate with; as they wish to make the position of private at once both honorable and agreeable. They will complete their organization to-night at a quarter past eight o'clock at Armory Hall.

REV. G. S. F. SAVAGE, Secretary of the Western Tract Agency, Chicago, will present the cause of tract distribution in our army to the churches and people of St. Anthony, this (Wednesday) evening, in the Congregational Church, at a quarter before eight o'clock.

As Mr. Savage has spent much of the past year in the hospitals and on the battle field, many interesting facts and much valuable information may be expected. Come one, come all.

MORE PRIVATE BOUNTY.—By notice in another column it will be seen that Mr. Whitcell offers to give $15 each to the first twenty married men, or $10 each to the first thirty single men or either in that proportion, who will enlist in either of the four companies now being raised in this city. This liberality, for a private individual, who is hardly considered as a resident of the State, is most munificent, and worthy of commendation and imitation.

ORIENTAL TRAVELERS.—Two merchants, whose names we can't begin to write out, from Bombay, India, with their servants, are stopping at the International, where they arrived yesterday on their tour through the United States. They are well educated and thoroughly posted up in the affairs of this country, though they have been in it but three weeks. They visited St. Anthony and Minnehaha Falls and the country and lakes thereabouts yesterday, and enjoyed themselves hugely.

NOTHING LOST.—It has been demonstrated, that nothing is wasted in making bread or biscuit where the Chemical Saleratus is used, and the directions upon the papers thoroughly followed. It is sure to perform all that it is recommended to do, and is therefore the cheapest saleratus in the market, as it is conceded to be the healthiest and the purest. It is made and sold at wholesale by D. B. DeLand & Co., Fairport, Monroe Co., New York, and by respectable wholesale and retail dealers generally. For sale by all Wholesale Grocers in Chicago and Milwaukee. d&ewly

CHIPPEWA TREATY.—Mr. A. S. H. White, a gentleman for a long time connected with the Indian Department at Washington, arrived in town yesterday, preparatory to making a treaty with the Chippewas of Red Lake this summer. Mr. White is Secretary of the Commission. Mr. Dole, Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who has charge of matters on the part of the Government, will be here in a week. The treaty will be held at or near the confluence of Red Lake River with the Red River of the North. Mr. White, it will be recollected by all the old settlers, was Secretary to the Commission which made the treaty with the Sioux at Traverse des Sioux in 1851, for the session of all the territory on the west side of the Mississippi between the Iowa line and the land of the Chippewas on the North. He returns in eleven years to find in that then wilderness a large population, highly cultivated farms, and thriving towns and cities.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.—The Council met yesterday in regular session.

The agent of the Union vocalists petitioned for a free license, in consequence of their giving half the proceeds of their concerts for the benefit of the volunteer fund. Referred to the Mayor with power to act.

Sundry residents of the Third Ward represented the butcher's shop next to Davenport's book store as a nuisance. Referred to the Chief of Police with instructions to abate the same.

The managers of the State Agricultural Fair requested that the St. Paul bridge might be made free on the days of the Fair to all persons visiting the same for the exhibition of stock or other articles. The request was granted.

The engineer on the Owatonna road presented an estimate of the amount of work done on that road by Messrs. Branch and Nash for the month of July, amounting to $1,200.

The Wharfmaster's report for the last three weeks showed a collection of $849.62, exclusive of per centage for collection.

The report of the Chief of Police showed the number of arrests for the month of July to be ninety.

The report of F. McCormick showed the amount of relief furnished by the city to families of volunteers for the six weeks ending August 5th, to be $419.50.

The Committee on Levee, to whom was referred the petition for the reduction of wharfage to the steamer Clara Hine, reported adverse to the same. Adopted.

The contract for the lease of the Market Hall for the use of the German School Society, was approved.

Proposals were read for the painting of the bridge, and for uniting the upper and lower levees, which were referred to appropriate committees.

CLAIMS FOR DAMAGES.

Messrs. Van Etten and Officer, on behalf of Borup & Champlain and Mrs. Abigail Davis, presented claims for damages against the city. The first is $1,756.20, which occurred in consequence of the washing away of the embankment below the Merchant's Hotel. The latter is for $50—damage to personal effects stored in the basement of the City Hotel. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

SMALL CITY SCRIP.

The Committee of Ways and Means reported that there had been issued in small City Scrip in obedience to the resolution of the Council as follows—from Nos. 1 to 3,340 of the fifty cent: Nos. 1 to 3,340 of the twenty-five cent: Nos. 1 to 3,920 of the ten cent—making an issue in all to the amount of $3,485—all of which had been exchanged for the old issue, which had been cancelled and destroyed.

MARKET ORDINANCE.

The ordinance amending the Market ordinance so as to prevent hucksters buying up and forestalling the market, was read the second time and adopted.

ALD. COREOMAN.

On motion of Ald. Finch, the Council adopted a resolution giving notice to Ald. Coreoman to appear and show cause at the next session of the Council why his seat should not be declared vacant, in consequence of his continued absence from town.

RESOLUTIONS.

That a sidewalk be constructed on the south side of Eighth street from Jackson to Olive. Adopted.

That the City Clerk be authorized to receive the "revenue one and two year bonds" with the accrued interest, payable at the office of the City Treasurer within one year, with seven per cent. interest and that the City Clerk is further authorized to renew all other and past due City Bonds, if presented by the 1st of September in new 7 per cent. bonds running not less than three years. Adopted.

That the City Clerk be authorized to issue a "road for $178.20 to Catherine Mathews in full payment for the lot taken in the opening of Pearl street. Adopted.

ELECTION OF WOOD INSPECTOR.

On motion of Ald Fitz, the Council proceeded to the election of a Wood Inspector. Ald. Fitz nominated the present incumbent Joseph Neer. Ald. Gross nominated Paul Faber. The vote was taken and Joseph Neer received 8 votes and Paul Faber 4 votes. Mr. Neer was declared elected.

THE members of the Pioneer Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, are notified to attend a regular meeting of the Company, to be held this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock at the truck house.

Per order of the Foreman.

D. H. McCLOUD, Secretary.

THE BOOKS FOR SOLDIERS.—Merrill has the new United States Infantry Tactics, authorized by the Secretary of War. Also the army regulations.

"Agnes of Sorrento," Pearl of Orr's Island" "Spare Hours," "Leisure Hours at Long Town," "John Brent," "Cecil Dreeme," Edwin Brotherhoff," and many other readable books. A good assortment of Photograph Albums, "cartes de visite" and views of Minnesota scenery can all be found at Merrill's. Visitors in the city will do well to call and examine.

A GOOD WORD.—Yesterday evening at the close of Holcombe's Writing Class, the pupils adopted the following preamble and Resolution:

WHEREAS, Prof. Holcombe, of St. Louis, has most successfully taught the "Spencerian System of Penmanship" during two terms in our city,

Resolved, That we, teachers and pupils of the public and private schools of St. Paul recognize him as a "live teacher" of the art, and cheerfully recommend the system he teaches as the very best, for its clear, thorough analysis of the principles of writing.

RECRUITING.—Our friend T. S. Slaughter, of Judson, informs us that he already has forty men enlisted for the company he is raising for the Sixth regiment. Mr. Slaughter is a gentleman of ability and pluck, and will make a capital officer. Blue Earth county is coming up to the work nobly—the prospect being that she will send two companies in addition to what she has already furnished.

From the Mankato Record.

WAR MEETINGS.—A series of war meetings are to be held in different parts of the county, commencing this evening at Garden City. Hon. J. H. Baker and other speakers will be present at each meeting.

Lieut. Jerome Dane will be present at all the meetings, to solicit men for his company.

ST. PAUL STAGES.—Messrs. Burbank & Co. have stocked the Valley mail route with large and comfortable four horse stages. The fare to St. Paul has also been reduced for the present to $5.50.

SNAKE BITTEN.—The son of S. B. Smith, who was bitten by a rattlesnake while in company with his father across the Lake picking gooseberries, several days ago, is recovering. Whiskey is said to be a sure cure it taken in season.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A son of Dr. Vilas, a lad about thirteen years old received a severe kick from a horse in his face, a few days since. His upper lip and nose were completely cut open. He was carefully cared for and we are glad to learn is doing well.—Lake City Times.

Legal Notices.

THE STATE OF MINNESOTA, COUNTY OF GOODHUE.—DISTRICT COURT—FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT.

In the matter of the application of Isaac Nichols, an Insolvent Debtor, for a discharge from his debts, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 79 of the Compiled Statutes of the State of Minnesota, entitled "Relief of Insolvent Debtors."

To the creditors of said Isaac Nichols, an insolvent debtor:

Please take notice, that upon reading and filing the petition, schedule, inventory and affidavit of Isaac Nichols, a resident of said county and State, praying to be discharged from his debts, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 79 of the Compiled Statutes of the State of Minnesota, entitled "Relief of Insolvent Debtors," an order was made on the 26th day of May, A. D. 1862, by the Hon. S. J. R. McMillan, Judge of the District Court for the First Judicial District of said State, requiring the creditors of said Isaac Nichols to show cause, if any they have, before the said Judge, at the Court House, in the city of Red Wing, in said county on the 2nd day of December, A. D. 1862, at 10 o'clock of that day, why an assignment of the said insolvent's estate should not be made, and he be discharged from his debts, pursuant to the said Chapter of the Compiled Statutes, and that notice thereof be given by publishing the contents of said order in the newspaper published in the city of St. Paul, Ramsey county, the seat of government of said State, called the "St. Paul Press," and in the "Goodhue Volunteer," a newspaper published in Red Wing in said Goodhue County, and in the "Albany Argus," a newspaper published at the city of Albany, the seat of government of the State of New York, for four successive weeks, once in each week before such application.

Dated at Red Wing, Goodhue county, Minnesota, this 28th day of May, A. D. 1862.

WM. W. PHELPS,
Atty for said Insolvent.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALE.—DEFAULT has been made in the payment of the sum of seven hundred and forty dollars, which amount is claimed to be due and is due at the date of this notice, upon that certain mortgage executed, acknowledged and delivered by Oscar Worsley Bond and Louisana A. H. Bond, his wife, of Ramsey county, Territory (now State) of Minnesota, to Lowman Hawes, of Bloomington, (late of Madison,) state of Indiana, and with powers of sale dated the twentieth, (20th) A. D. one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven (1857,) and was given to secure the payment of six thousand, seventy-four dollars and twenty-five cents ($6,074.25) in one year from the date thereof, and interest thereon and was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, in the city of St. Paul, on the 22nd day of October, A. D. 1857, at 10 o'clock, in the forenoon, in Book "C" of mortgages, pages three hundred and forty-one, (341) and three hundred and four (304), in the register of deeds of said Ramsey county.

And the said Lowman Hawes, mortgagee, has duly paid the taxes upon the land thereby described as being in the said county of Ramsey, for the years 1858, 1859, 1860 and 1861, and all necessary charges thereon, and has the receipt of the treasurer of the said county of Ramsey therefor, and the amount so paid and the interest thereon, at the rate of ten per cent. is twenty-eight and fifty-two one hundredth dollars, ($28.52) and claims an additional lien on the said land in the county of Ramsey, for the same; and no proceedings at law or in equity have been had to collect the said mortgage debt or any part of the same.

And whereas, said mortgagee, Lowman Hawes, deceased and died intestate on the eleventh (11th) day of February, A. D. 1865, and upon the application, Mary Hawes, of Madison, in the county of Jefferson, State of Indiana, was on the eleventh (11th) day of April, A. D. 1863, duly appointed administratrix of the estate, &c., of said Lowman Hawes, deceased by the Court of Common Pleas, being also a Court of Probate, of said county of Jefferson, and letters of administration duly issued to her, and a certified copy of said letters of administration and appointment are now on file in the Probate Court in and for the county of Ramsey, in the State of Minnesota.

Now, therefore notice is hereby given that under and pursuant to a power of sale in said mortgage contained, authorizing and empowering the said mortgagee, Lowman Hawes, his heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, to make sale of the premises thereby described upon default being made in the conditions of the said mortgage, and under and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, the premises described in said mortgage, as follows, to wit: The south half (½) of the southeast quarter (¼) of section thirty-one (31) in township thirty, (30) north of range twenty-three (23) west, lying and being in the county of Ramsey and State of Minnesota; also the southeast quarter (¼) of section two (2), in township fifty-two (52) north, of range twenty-one (21) west, lying and being in the county of St. Anthony and State of Minnesota, with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances belonging, or in anywise appertaining to the said premises, will be sold at public auction to the highest bidder or bidders, for cash, by the Sheriff of said county of Ramsey, at the front door of the Court House, in the city of St. Paul, in said county, at ten (10) of the clock in the forenoon, on Saturday, the sixteenth (16th) day of August, A. D. 1862, to pay said debt, taxes and interest and costs allowed by law.

Dated at Saint Paul, Minn., July 1st, 1862.

GUARDIAN'S SALE.—RAMSEY COUNTY—IN PROBATE.

In the matter of the guardianship of George W. Carter, minor.

Notice is hereby given, that by virtue and in pursuance of an order of license made in said matter on the 7th day of July, by the Probate Court of the said Ramsey county, the undersigned guardian of said minor, will on the seventh day of August, 1862, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the front door of the office of the Judge of Probate, (the court house being occupied,) sell at public auction, the following described lands, situate in Ramsey county, to-wit: Fifty-four acres of and being all of the northwest quarter (¼) of the southeast quarter (¼), and the southeast quarter (¼) of the southwest quarter (¼) of section 15, township 28, range 23, except twenty-five and one-half acres previously sold.

The terms of sale will be made known at the time and place of sale.

Dated St. Paul, July 8, 1862.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE AGENCY,

One door East of Davenport's Bookstore, on Third Street.

The "FLORENCE" SEWING MACHINES make LOCK STITCH alike on both sides of the same machine. Thus the LOCK, but RESEMBLES KNOT AND DOES NOT KNOT, all of which make the seam alike on both sides of the fabric. Either or all can be produced while the Machine is in motion.

They have the REVERSIBLE FEED MOTION, which enables the operator to have the work easy either way, or to change the direction, and fasten the end of seams, which, together, with making a long and a short stitch, is done simply by turning a thumb screw.

Their motions are all positive. There are no springs to get out of order. They are so simple that the most inexperienced can work them perfectly and with ease. They are NOISELESS, and can be used where quiet is necessary.

They are the FASTEST SEWERS in the WORLD, making five stitches to each revolution. They all do alike. Their stitch is the wonder of all, because of its combined DURABILITY, STRENGTH and BEAUTY.

Prices No. 1, $47.00, No. 2, $57.00, No. 3, $67.00, No. 4, $72.00, No. 5, $77.00, No. 6, $82.00, No. 7 Cabinet raised, $95.00, Mahogany $97.00, Rosewood $100.00, Hemmers and all necessary tools included in the above prices.
